EXILE OF SAVANT CAUSES ATTACKS OF SPANISH BOSS

The banishment of Prof. Miguel de Unamuno, of University of Salamanca, Spain, for criticizing Primo de Rivera, dictator of Spain, has caused the pens of many European writers to be arranged against Rivera. Gabrielle D'Annunzio, Italian poet-soldier, has been especially scathing in his attacks.

SOVIET DECORATES U.S. PHYSICIAN FOR WORK IN ARMENIA

The Soviet Russian government has decorated Dr. Russell T. Uhl, of Kansas City, Mo., for his work in combating trachoma in Armenia, where he was a member of the Near East Relief staff.

Harbor City Notes

Mrs. J. Waldron of Belleporte avenue returned home this week from a three months' visit with her daughters and other relatives in New York. Mrs. Waldron is glad to be back in California, as she experienced some very stormy weather in the east and it is good to be back again in the sunshine.

Frank G. Hodges attended a meeting in Los Angeles Monday of the Vermont avenue project committee. Mr. Hodges is on the committee from Harbor City.

Responding to an alarm Tuesday evening, the local fire department extinguished flames in a truck at Redondo boulevard and Walnut street. A cigarette had started the fire, which caused slight damage to the truck.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Pettit and family, of Belleporte avenue, accompanied by Mrs. Pettit's sister, have returned, after spending a few days at San Diego.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Aspitte and sons, Clarence and Stanley, spent Wednesday in Long Beach.

Mr. and Mrs. W. O. Preston have returned from a two weeks' vacation at Yosemite.

Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Robinson of the Hyacinth apartments are now occupying Frank G. Hodges' house on 25th street.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. C. Nation of Weston street are their son, E. C. Nation, and his

ARE YOU INTELLIGENT?

If you are—no matter whether or not you are educated—you will improve your position in the world by keeping in touch with current events, as interpreted by the best minds of today. May we commend to you the features which are published in every issue of this newspaper, on the editorial page. We are proud of that page, for we think it is the duty of every paper to present its readers with the best opinion available. On this page prominent men and women discuss today's problems—experts in varied realms of thought speak out to you. Are you reading that page? No education is complete without knowledge of literature and poetry—the best literature and the best poetry. Our editorial page presents each week a feature by Clark Kinnard, whose acquaintance with the best writers the world has known is entertainingly relayed to our readers on our editorial page. These articles are a sheer delight to anyone who reads them. Twice a week we also present a selected poem or two from the pages of the world's best poets. On the same page in each issue is a tabloid history of the life of some prominent man or woman—entertaining, enlightening and human. Do you read our editorial page? We think that no paper in California presents a better one. That may be taking in a wide territory, but other editors have agreed with us.
