OSTEOPATHY and HEALTH TALKS

By Dr. Bruce Castle Apartments

Watch this space each issue for Talks on Vital Subjects.

HOW DO YOU PUT HEALTH INTO A DISEASED BODY?

A diseased body needs something done to it, not something put into it.

We do not find health in medicines, drugs, vivisections, venesections, vaccinations, antitoxins, serums and interminable experiments with poisons and the knife.

The principles of Osteopathy are readily understood by the laity when intelligently presented in a manner free from technical terms.

The average layman has no difficulty in understanding how his telephone may become useless because wires are disturbed or because of wrong connections in the central office...

One of the chief functions of Osteopathy is to correct structures so that the vital fluids and forces of the body, blood, lymph and nerve currents, may be unimpeded in their free flow to and from every part of the body.

Good Comedy Is Promised When 'Monster' Shows

Hart Players Present Famous Laugh Provoker This Week

The call of the theatre is never so strong in the breast of the weary worker as when something is announced on the boards that gives undoubted promise of a stirring, laughable spoken performance.

This "The Monster," which the Hart Players are presenting this week at the Oriental theatre, is positively guaranteed to do it.

It has proven its wonderful powers in that direction by its sensational runs in New York, Boston, Chicago and Philadelphia.

Better get your seats as soon as possible, for everything points to absolute capacity while "The Monster" is being presented at the Oriental theatre next week.

What a feat of the newspapers of the east: "The Monster" is a play of thrills, rollicking laughter and romance.

"The last word in mystery plays has been reached in 'The Monster'."—New York Telegram.

Next week "Their First Baby" will be presented by the Hart Players.

Following are the dates of the principal ballet numbers: "Don Quixote" evenings March 11, 12, 16, matinee March 21; "Sleeping Beauty" and "Fairy Doll," March 12 (matinee); "Amarilla" and "Oriental Impressions," March 13; "Coppelia" and "Chopiniana," March 14 (matinee); "Invitation to the Dance" and "Russian Folklore," March 17; "Chopiniana" and "Autumn Leaves," March 18; "Magic Flute" and "Snow Flakes," March 19 (matinee); "Coppelia" and "Flora's Awakening," March 19 (evening); and "Polish Wedding" and "Amarilla," March 21.

Matinee performances will be on March 12, 14, 19, and 21.

SOCIETY NEWS

FAREWELL PARTY FOR MRS. PHIL HUGGARD

Mrs. Roy Confer of 1908 Martina was hostess on Wednesday at an attractive farewell party to Mrs. Phil Huggard, who left Torrance on Thursday to join her husband at Fairfield, Ala.

Those present were Mrs. Huggard and son Harold, Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Webb, Mrs. Oscar Carlson, and Mr. and Mrs. Confer.

Mrs. Carlson entertained with several selections from opera.

Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. S. F. Webb of 1920 Andrea avenue were Mrs. Louise Whitney and daughter Rose, and George Williams, of Sawtelle.

"So Big" at Torrance Theatre

Colleen Moore and Wallace Beery in "So Big"

Colleen Moore and Wallace Beery in "So Big"

Torrance theatre screen Tuesday and Wednesday. It is a First National Picture, and, as is the case with productions from that organization, the cast is notable for its excellence.

In the supporting roles are Wallace Beery, Ben Lyon, John Bowers, Ford Sterling, Dot Farley, Sam de Grasse, Gladys Brockwell, Rosemary Theby, Phyllis Haver, Charlotte Merriam, and Frankie Darrow.

Thursday's program consists of "Troubles of a Bride," a William Fox thriller, an "Our Gang" comedy, and Fox News.

Douglas Fairbanks in his latest, "The Thief of Bagdad," will be shown Friday and Saturday. The picture will be presented at the regular prices.

Edna Ferber's widely read and much lauded "So Big," called "the story of a girl with an unconquerable soul," will be shown on the
