TOWNE TALK

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

For fear that folks will, think that the Gt. Dane dawg that W. Post has got is the one eastern bozo wanted 1000 berries for and start a rush to borrow money at the bank, why we make haste to state that this dawg which he has got was purchased from a gent over on Wash. Blvd. whose ideas of what dawgs is worth was gained on the sensible side of the gt. divide where men is men as Bugs Beer says and where women is apt to be given errors, and where dawgs don't come at no five dollars a lb. on the hoof.

Ray Tomkins was just in talking about his operation. He has been up in the mts. where he says he et like a hoss and that is nacheral because when the surgeons remove your insides you've got to get something besides air in there to fill up the hole.

Every time now that Ray is working a cross word puzzle and looks in the dictionary to see who the favorite wife of the second Sultan of Turkey was an the dictionary says see Appendix, why Ray gets a stitch in his side.

Ras thinks that advice to "see Appendix" is propaganda of the American Medical Ass'n.

Since Bob Deininger has been elected asst. sec. and treas. of the Women's Club, Inc., he has took to wearing a carnation in his button-hole.

When Jim Hines was bankin back in Oklahoma why a guy come in and says I want to borrow five dollars and Jim says well you don't make no loans that small and this duke says well you are in the business of loaning jack ain't you and Jim says yes but we ain't in the business of lending chicken feed but the bird insists and finally Jim agreed to make the loan and after the note is drawn and signed and everything this bimbo pulls out $10,000 worth of bonds from his inside coat pocket and before Jim could catch his breath why this hookoo says you see over to the other bank they wanted to charge me ten berries a year for a safety deposit box to put this in.

Verne Babcock got a good lesson in bowling the other day when yrs. truly as his opponent rolled 217—eight strikes, two spares and a coupla blows. That'll be in the Ras column says Cal Alverson. I wouldn't disappoint Cal fur anything.

When the new landing field is opened up for business Fred Palmer wants to be sure that nobody lets cows graze on it. Fred trashed a bovine recently on a forced landing on the way down from San Francisco.

Dear Ras:
 Yuh know what I did heah the otha day? Well I picks up the info that when part of the cast went to Santa Bahbrah last Sunday, along towed the end of the trip, Floyd Bahkah discovered that the Mistah Brown of your late story, were with them. I herd that Floyd sed to him "Jewish to get into trouble" and that gray haired, slightly corpulent gentleman said "No, Jew?"

Hahvel Guttenfeldah were very pleased to see that even if his efforts at teaching you how to work you lights had borne no fruit, several people he met on the way had learned the lesson well. It kept Hahvel happy all day long.

Both the Dollies was also vevy happy, 'cause all that crowd did was eat and they knew that next day they'd all be comin' to the store to get fixer up. Harry had little bottles of pills all ready for 'em.

They was no fights ovah the leadin' man eitha 'cause only the light headed leadin' lady was theah. All the otha ladies was married. So she was happy all day long too.

A little girl that were on the Dill pickles and kraut like you never ate before, at Harry Warren's Meat Market.—Adv. 10

Mrs. Guttenfeldah has a new coat and hat, she sed she got those 'cause Hahvel's gettin' along fine now that he's gone into the teachin' game.

Mistah King sed that usually in small towns the meetin place is at the station, but folks in this town has got the kinda station mixed up, they seem to think it's the GAS STATION. "Oh! no," sez Mrs. King "Folks in this town's smahth than that, they goes to the right place all right, it's on account of all the gassin' goin' on."
