Ford Business in July Sets Record

During July the Ford Motor Company did a record business in every division. It has just been announced at the Highland Park general offices. Domestic sales of Ford cars and trucks totaled 167,626 in July, exceeding by 6,182 those of a year ago. Sale of Fordson tractors were more than 3000, or 300 greater than last year, and 207 more Lincoln cars were delivered to customers during the month than in the previous July.

On the basis of branch reports received early in July the company anticipated an increased volume of business, and while it predicted that summer buying would rise to a higher level than usual, the demand for all Ford products during the month exceeded expectations. The outlook is for increasing business in August.

One of the chief indications of this appears in agricultural sections of the country, where farmers are coming into the market in rapidly growing numbers. Evidence of this is found in the remarkable sales of Fordson tractors during July.

TOWNE TALKER
"Just for Fun"
By RAS BERRY

I was over to Hardware Reeve's store having Marion Reeve fix the cart that my son took apart to see what was on the inside of it and when I left why I left my swear on my head is a heavy wool cap and so I went bear headed for three days because I forgot where I left my hat and then with me running around without no head piece why the barbers that suns them selfs in front of Al Bond's had the nerve to yell hey you need a haircut so I was right when I left my hat and then with me running around without no head piece why the barbers that suns them selfs in front of Al Bond's had the nerve to yell hey you need a haircut brought in my hat so I wouldn't have to advertise my long hair any more in front of no fresh barbers.

Al Bond is on a two week vacation and while he is away so is the other barbers it seems like.

All the boxes around town is talking so much about them horses we rode that I guess it kinda got on my mind because the other night I dreamed that I was riding a spirited steed and I rode it right into the 1st Nat'l bank. The boys in the bank say it wasn't horses that was on my mind but money.

And speaking of horses and money why pretty near everybody these days is saddled with debts.

They has been plenty auto crashes lately at the corner of Post and Arlington and if they ain't a bid, stop put there pretty soon why Drs. Shidler and Lancaster won't even have to go to their offices to meet patients.

They is a little Johnny owl which has made his home in the water pipe that runs into the curb in front of the high school and he comes out to sun his self and when you get too close he runs in the hole and he's gonna be one busy owl when school opens.

Fred Palmer has got a new habit of coming over to the office after his morning visit to the postoffice and opening a lot of envelopes with checks in them right in front of ye ed's eyes, which is just like tying a stick on a dawg's head and hanging a hunk of meat from a string in front of said dawg.

I got a card from Perry Briney from St. Louis and he says he ain't sure whether it is him or Verne Babcock that deserves a razing because he says when he gets in to L. A. why the American Express Co. refuses to honor the certified check that Verne made out for him and he aces and argues and finally misses his train because he couldn't start across no continent without no kale and while he was talking with this here agent he takes his baggage into the detective room and after he had called up Verne and got the check cashed and missed the rate and all he goes in after his baggage and it is all unstrapped and undone and strewed all over the floor except a package that had a hand drill, a cold chisel, a hatchet, a hammer and a gasoline stove in it and Perry postal cards that he was so durned glad not to be arrested for a burglar that he never said nothing about somebody tampering with his luggage but just packed up again and jirins. Perry is gonna drive back from the east.

Joe Prata says he hopes next year the Fiesta starts and ends in Torrance instead of starting in Torrance and ending in Lomita.
