'Romola' and 'Shore Leave' Are Booked at Torrance Theatre

Scene from "Romola"

"Romola" is the picture that played for 16 weeks in New York at $2, 10 weeks in Chicago at $2, and 12 weeks at Grauman's Egyptian Theatre in Hollywood at $1.50. It will be shown at the Torrance Theatre Sunday and Monday at the regular admission price.

"Shore Leave," the first National attraction which comes to the Torrance Theatre Saturday, is the comedy hit of Richard Barthelmess' career.

The story was adapted from the David Belasco success. Barthelmess plays the role of the tough job so successfully wooed by the little New England dressmaker.

The picture is an amusing comedy of the navy. Many of the scenes were taken with the cooperation of the United States navy on board the Arkansas at Hampton Roads. Dorothy Mackall is the dressmaker who falls so desperately in love with the job.

King Troupe In Reappearance At Long Beach

Open Engagement With Successful Showing of 'Polly With a Past'

So the Charles King Players came to Long Beach Saturday and the next day it rained; but not so hard but that as many people as could possibly get into the Mission Theatre Sunday afternoon and night were present.

"Polly With a Past," the opening offering for the return of this popular company, certainly got away to a buoyant start. Every body present wanted personally to welcome his favorites and the length and strength of that welcome in each case stopped the show for a good many pulsing, wonderful moments. It will be entirely unnecessary for Dudley Ayres, Miss Rose Ludwig, Albert Van Antwerp, Miss Virginia Thornton, Miss Kathryn Wayne, Miss Dorothy Dudley, Robert Homans or Nathaniel Holmes to look into a dictionary to find the definition for the word "ovation." Both matinee and evening audiences gave a complete demonstration of that word with all its glowing possibilities. Also the audiences showed by gracious favor their complete willingness to become satisfied friends with Miss Marjorie Sinclair, James Donlin, Robert Griffin and Charles Gregg. Mr. Griffin they already know quite pleasantly.—Long Beach Press-Telegram.

F. AND S. CLUB

This week each club had the largest attendance of many months, and the Monday club is much elated at having caught up with the Thursday club in attendance for once. Monday club had a jolly candy meeting, with all sorts of goodies to feast on after a busy hour in the kitchen. The lessons now are on Joseph, of whom the Bible says "And the Lord was with Joseph, and he was a prosperous man" (Gen. 39:2).

Those present on Thursday were Jack Santich, Vernon Markham, Muriel Leveson, Lorene Keith, Mildred Hopper, Marshall Richey, Muriel Montonye, Laura Stanton, Mary Julia Beard, Oran Buck, Frank Wilson, Effie Eade, Hazel Johnson, Clara Haslam, John Primrose, Lorna Thistle, Annora Wilson, Graham Tinning, Howard Harris, Harry Marriott, Ollie Stits, Pirkle Dixon, Leonard Wilson, Harold and Glenn Hammack, S. B. Van Der Beken, Grace Newbury, Faye Marsh, Pauline Morgan, Norman Groves, Glenn Clark, John Stits, Orrel W. Perry, Basil Brady, Alice Ruffraff, and Harry Todd.

"If you come you'll have a good time!" That's what they all say.

Mr. and Mrs. George Her of Los Angeles were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Hanson of Pennsylvania avenue.

Show Bookings At the Lomita For Next Week

Vaudeville, Country Store, Comedy Stars on Theatre Program

Tonight the Lomita Theatre will show "The Woman Hater," with Clive Brook, Helene Chadwick and John Harron, together with new and better vaudeville.

The Friday and Saturday program features Bert Lytell, Anita Stewart, Huntly Gordon and Justice Johnson in that masterpiece, "Never the Twain Shall Meet."

Sunday, for one day only, comes the James Cruze production, "Marry Me," with Edward Everett Horton and Florence Vidor, which is knock-out comedy drama.

Monday marks the second week of the return of Harry Shutan, one of the leading men from the play "Playthings"; and for the reason that Mr. Shutan is a friend of long standing with the manager, Jay Chotiner, he will work the Country Store while here in California. For this night there will be "Charlie" Chase, who for three years was the lead comedy man with Ziegfeld Follies; also "Dynamite" Ray with his own voice, who played Grauman's Metropolitan theatre in Los Angeles for six weeks straight.

Tuesday and Wednesday Richard Dix will be seen in "The Lucky Devil," a picture on the style and fashion that made "Wally" Reid famous on the screen.

Ask Dad—See If He Knows

Father and mother are always thinking of your welfare—there isn't a thing within reason they wouldn't do for you. But they may unknowingly have been risking your life every day.

When you are at dinner tonight with dad, ask him this question:

"Dad, is our school firesafe?"

Perhaps he won't be able to answer—he may not know.

Ask dad if he knows that somewhere in the country a schoolhouse burns every day. Ask him if he knows that one-third of all the schoolhouses in the country are nothing better than firetraps—maybe your school is one of them.

Of course dad knows that buildings can be built that will not burn. They are being built everywhere, every day.

If your school is firesafe, you're lucky. If it isn't, ask dad what he is going to do about it. You have a right to know.

The highest type of firesafe construction is concrete. Our illustrated booklet "Concrete Schoolhouses" contains a wealth of information on firesafe construction with which every parent ought to be familiar. Write today for your free copy.
