Big Jungle Films at Torrance

Major Hammond, the world-famous explorer and authority on life in the South Sea Islands, is coming back to Torrance Saturday to play a special return engagement at the Torrance Theatre in response to the many requests from those who saw him here a few weeks ago. Major Hammond brings all new pictures this time, even more weird and fascinating than those he brought on his first visit here. The pictures were taken in the very heart of jungles never before penetrated by a white man!

Manager Anderson of the Torrance Theatre, in co-operation with the principals of the local schools, has arranged for a special 5c matinee Saturday afternoon, and Major Hammond is going to show some special films at the matinee, and in addition is going to give a very interesting talk to the schools of his many adventures in the United States' possessions in the South Seas.

An exhibit of native dance skirts, war clubs, necklaces, household utensils, head knives, cloth made from bark, baskets and mats, from the major's private collection, is now on display in the lobby of the theatre.

"The Unholy Three"

"The Unholy Three," a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture, will come to the Torrance Theatre next Sunday and Monday.

This picture is said to be something entirely new in the way of crook melodramas.

It concerns the adventures of a trio of crooks who leave a dime museum and during their criminal operations give rise to a romance that lends a great quantity of color to the plot.

Mae Busch portrays the leading feminine role—an Irish-American girl who is in league with the underworld band.

Lon Chaney, the screen's greatest makeup artist and character man, is the leader of the crook trio, and appears in the role of a sympathetic heavy.

TOWNE ALKE

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Well the banks was closed Monday so I wasn't overdrawed until Tuesday this wk.

The bus mgr. is just getting his application for veterans adjusted insurance filled out and signed up. After the govt. sends him his ins. policy why he can carry $2 cents on it two yrs. from now.

The boss and me was window shopping in L. A. and we come to a store that right on the walk in front of it imbedded in the cement was brass letters that read Short Vamp Shoes and I says come on this ain't no place for you. You're short all right but you ain't no vamp.

They was a flock of bozos over to the Dolley Drug having their lunch Monday and listening to the radio returns on the Vok's Scries and in the third innings why the announcer he says that President Coolidge left the game and somebody up and says I wonder why he left and St Rappaport avers as how he thinks the President went out to see if he could make another loan to France.

No, he didn't neither, says Harry Roberts, can't you see it's rainin. The President he went out to help get the hay in before it got all wet.

Yes, says Bill Nye, but before he went to help with the hay he put his horse in the barn so it wouldn't get all rusty.

And speaking of athletics why the few of us folks who live in Torrance and who is lucky enough not to have been born in Nebraska took particular note of the fact that Missouri trimmed the Cornshuckers at a football game last Sat.

Dick Malone says they is so many Nebraskans in the 1st. Nat'l bank that when Missouri win Sat. they close the bank Monday hoping the non-Nebraskans in Torrance would forget about the game by Tues. a. m.

So Tues. a. m. they was a bevy of us in there to the bank and we all looks out the window to see if the flag is half mast in the park. It wasn't and that ain't right—not in Torrance when Nebraska is licked.

Spud Murphy tell W. Post, who was born in York and admits it, that the Missouri game just goes to prove that the Nebraska victory over Illinois was just a fluke.

Well anyway, Nebraska should ought to of beat Missouri, says Wallace, and they would of only on acct. of that fumble. And Murph he says yes Nebraska won everywhere but on the scoreboard and that's the only place it counts.

They was some heavy bets offered at most of the places where

King Players in 'Goose Hangs High'

In "The Goose Hangs High," at the Mission this week, the Charles King Players offer theatregoers a play of happiness and goodness. It amounts to a vote of confidence in the fundamental trustworthiness of human nature. "I picked it," said Manager King, "because it was one of the soundest of New York successes last season, one of the really fine things not before played in stock, and because it contains a rather novel note in its beautiful defense of modern youth."

F. AND S. CLUB

This week the Thursday club made candy. The swim has had to be postponed, as the Anderson Memorial plunge is out of repair.

Much interest is being manifested in the study of the life of Joseph, who was willing to serve the Lord at all times and in all places. "There hath no temptation taken you but such as is common to man; but God is faithful, who will not suffer you to be tempted above that ye are able; but will with the temptation also make a way to escape, that ye may be able to bear it" (1 Cor. 10:13).

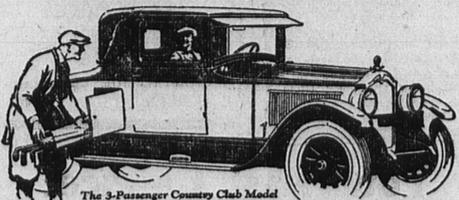

Those present on Thursday were Muriel Leveson, Sara Shelhart, Lorene Keith, Mildred Hopper, Stella Walker, Jack Santich, Charles Culver, Orrel Perry, Effie Eade, Faye Marsh, J. D. and Ollie Stits, Oran Buck, Frank Wilkin, Harry Marriott, Maybell, Delbert Thomsen, Howard Harris, Marshall Richey, Lorna Thistle, Edward Morter, George Wilkinson, Glenn Clark, John Primrose, Vernon Markham, Harold and Glenn Hammack, Grace Newberry, Bill Gallert, Gordon Groves, Delbert Chapman, Leonard Wilson, and Eddie Archer.

The Better Buick is a Man-sized Motor Car

The 3-Passenger Country Club Model

People appreciate a smart-driving, easily-handled, but full-sized, man-sized car. The Better Buick, for instance.

Each Buick model seats its capacity of full-grown people—in relaxed ease—without cramped legs or necks. Tall people, especially, enjoy its extra head-room and leg-room.

American men and women are above the average stature. And a smaller car than Buick is apt to be tight-fitting, low-ceilinged, crowded!

Drop in and try the ample, arm-chair comfort of a car that is right in size. Bring some of your six-footer friends. You will find another big reason why Buick is so widely considered a better motor car—another reason why there are a million and more enthusiastic Buick owners.

Or telephone, and we will send a Better Buick to your home or office for you to try.
