TOWNE TALK

"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Ben Lingenfelter says if he had another button sewed on his britches and our cat should die why they wouldn't be nothing left to write about in this here column, but I would rather have to worry about something to write about than to almost faint with fright every time I see Ben stoop over.

Business conditions in Torrance is better than they is in most cities in So. Cal. and yet the boys has to have their little joke about it and so it is a good one when Sam Rappaport says in speaking of commerce that last week was a good day.

They was a few of us in the 1st. Nat'l the other day and Verne Babcock he hangs up a sign that says this here bank will be closed all day Lincoln's birthday and Tom Foley wants to know if the interest runs on just the same when a bank closes and Verne says the interest runs days and nights and holidays and Sundays and we decides to circulate a petition demanding that interest be cut out on days the bank is closed and Jim Fitzhugh says the trustees would pass such a ordinance and Verne he says all right go ahead and if you do we'll leave the bank open on holidays only we'll lock all the money in the vault and leave the janitor in charge. You can't get ahead of a bank.

And speaking of Jim Fitzhugh why he has got a cabin near the Pacific ocean up the other side of Santa Monica and the other morning he reads in the paper that the waves has did some damage in that neck of the beach and so he says to Mrs. Fitzhugh you better go up there with a carpenter and some tools and if they is any damage done why the carpenter can fix it up and so she does only when she gets up to the cabin it ain't nowhere to be saw and so she and the carpenter starts playing cabin, cabin, who's got the cabin and pretty soon they see it bobbing around on top of the waves. Jim says the lot is still standing.

They held the York picnic last wk. in Long Beach and that was why things was quiet in Torrance because 3/4 of Torrance was over to the picnic as is seen by the results of the election. George Neill he was president of the society once and last yr. Dr. Geo. Shidler he was president and this yr. they elected Wallace Post president. The picnic reunion will be held next yr. in Torrance which makes it convenient says Carl Hyde for most of the folks that will attend, because they will be more York folks at a York picnic held in Torrance than they would be at one held in York. (York Teller, please copy.)

I only gets one answer to my adv. for a dawg for sale and it was only a informal verbal one at that. It was Wallace Gilbert who answered the adv. and he meets me on the st. and says how much do you want for that dawg and I says one hundred dollars and he says I thought you only had one dawg I didn't know you was selling a litter.

And I says if you keep on making fresh remarks you will need a litter only not a dawg litter but the kind they carry wounded soldiers on. Is that so, is his snappy retort. Nobody was hurt.

The people of Torrance was gave quite a thrill last Sunday a.m. at 2 a.m. by an earthquake that shook the houses but did not hurt nobody nor anything. Mrs. Geo. Proctor says she was woke up by the house shaking, but as Geo. was not home yet she did not think it was a quake but thought it was Geo. coming up the front stoop.

Ben Rappaport has got rheumatism in his right arm but he says it don't prevent him from ringing up a sale.

Dick Flaherty has got a big boat and has got it in the garage over to his Buick showrooms and is putting a motor in it and if the wet season keeps up he is planning to give excursions up Nigger slough, through Los Angeles and around the Central manufacturing district and Bandini. Torrance C. of C.—Adv.

WIFESAVERS

Baked Beans Elizabeth.—Parboil navy beans and turn into an earthenware beanpot. Season with salt, dry mustard and pepper, and add one small onion and one clove of garlic chopped fine, inch cubes of bacon, and brown sugar. Mix well and add canned tomato instead of water. More tomato may be added if they bake dry. If properly done no catsup is necessary.

Egg Sauce Tabasco.—Make a rich thin cream sauce, add two or three drops of tabasco sauce, one-quarter spoon Worcestershire sauce, and one-eighth spoon curry powder. Add two hard-boiled eggs chopped. Serve very hot.

Fish Leaf.—Combine mashed potato with fish flakes (the canned variety is very good) and one egg. Shape into a roll, cover with crumbs and bake until brown.

MILK IN CHILDREN'S DIET "A quart of milk a day for every child" has been the slogan of many nutrition workers for several years. Some advocate a pint of milk supplemented by other foods. The young of the human race need milk after they are weaned because their growth is slower than that of most mammals. During the early years when the permanent teeth are developing inside of the gums, and for the still longer period during which the bone construction of the body is maturing, milk is valuable as a source of calcium or lime salts. There is no better source of protein in the child's diet than milk and it also contains the necessary vitamins.

A large round marshmallow box, that the grocer gets marshmallows in, can be bought for a small sum. They make excellent cake boxes for the home or picnics.

These sermons will be found very helpful and inspiring in these days when so many people are doubting, and many more being taught to doubt, that the Bible is the true word of God.

All are welcome to the little mission. "Seek ye the Lord while He may be found, call ye upon Him while He is near. Let the wicked forsake his way, and the unrighteous man his thoughts, and let him return unto the Lord, and He will have mercy upon him, and to our God for He will abundantly pardon."—Isaiah 55:6, 7.
