Public Dance at Clubhouse Friday

The second of the season's series of public dances will be given at the Women's Clubhouse under the auspices of the Women's Club Friday night. The Oriole orchestra will furnish the music. The dances are being given to assure wholesome parties for young men and women of Torrance.

Miss Hermine Oetken announces that she will close the Art Store on Sartori avenue this week and move her stock to a store on Weston street, near Eshelman avenue, in Lomita. Assisted by her brother, William Oetken, Miss Oetken will conduct a general store. Announcement of the opening sale will be made through these columns.

SOCIETY

MRS. FULLER IS HOSTESS TO BRIDGE CLUB

The Palos Verdes Bridge Club was entertained Wednesday at luncheon by Mrs. G. E. Fuller. Beautiful spring flowers adorned the table and rooms.

At cards first and second honors were awarded Mrs. Raus and Mrs. Halladay, and Mrs. Hillis received the consolation award.

Members present were Mrs. H. H. Halladay, Mrs. Arthur Hodges, Mrs. Roy Hathaway, Mrs. E. L. Hillis, Mrs. J. W. Barnes, Mrs. Foley St., Miss Foley, Mrs. A. F. Welton, Mrs. C. F. Whitford, Mrs. J. O. Stalcup.

WASHINGTONIANS ARE GUESTS OF PASTOR

Rev. and Mrs. C. D. Rarey of the M. E. Church of Puyallup, Wash., were recent house guests of Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Zeller.

The ministers were formerly classmates at Northwestern College in Illinois. During their stay here Mr. and Mrs. Rarey enjoyed a visit to the San Bernardino orange show.

They left Thursday by auto, via the Coast route, for their home in Washington.

SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS ENJOYS MOTOR TRIP

The membership of Mrs. E. N. Tomkins' Sunday School class—the "Philathians"—enjoyed a motor trip to the Orphans' Home at La Verne Sunday.

While there the girls chose two orphans to whom they will act as big sisters—helping to clothe the little ones and presenting them with gifts from time to time.

Members of the class who enjoyed the visit were Mrs. Tomkins, Catherine and Robinette See, Genevieve Holland, Ruth Beckwith, Margery Ott, Mary Rowenstein, and Mildred Pinear.

Friends who accompanied the class were Mr. and Mrs. John Woods, Ted Reeves, Harold King, and Stewart Holland.

ETRI CLUB MEETS AT CHRISTIAN CHURCH

The meeting of the Eteri Club held Saturday evening at the Christian Church were well attended and the dinner was greatly enjoyed.

These dinners, served at 15 cents per plate, are indeed a credit to the committee that prepares and serves them, and are greatly appreciated by the club members.

The "kid" party and taffy pull was a grand success, and the 32 girls present enjoyed the inspiring talk given by R. Umstead. The next meeting will be held at the Central Evangelical Church Saturday at 6 o'clock sharp.

MRS. CONNER IS HOSTESS AT SHOWER

Mrs. Earl Conner of the Plaza Hotel entertained at a stork shower last Thursday in honor of Mrs. A. E. Kerber.

Many beautiful gifts were presented to Mrs. Kerber. About thirty guests enjoyed the delicious pumpkin pie, whipped cream and cocoa served by the hostess.

LADIES' AID SOCIETY WILL MEET TUESDAY

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church will hold an all-day meeting next Tuesday, March 2, at the home of Mrs. Guy Mowry, 2112 Carson street.

A pot luck luncheon will be served at noon, and all members are asked to come early. There's a lot of serving to be done.

CANADIAN GUESTS HONORED AT DINNER

A delightful dinner Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Woodington featured the visit here of Rev. and Mrs. D. J. Scott of Saskatchewan.

Places were indicated for Mr. and Mrs. Scott and Mr. and Mrs. H. Woodington, of Smetizer; Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Woodington and son Charles, Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Woodington, Miss Alexander, and Robert Wood, of Los Angeles; Mrs. F. M. Reavie, and the host and hostess.

VALENTINES FEATURED AT BIRTHDAY PARTY

Fourteen friendly friends gathered Saturday to help Myrtle Meiner celebrate her ninth birthday.

Games and music afforded diversion for the young people, followed by delicious refreshments, a feature of which was a beautifully decorated birthday cake. The decorations and favors were beautiful valentines.

Myrtle received several very nice gifts.

LUTHERAN LADIES HAVE AFTERNON OF SEWING

The first sewing meeting of the Lutheran Ladies' Aid and Missionary Society of Torrance was held last Thursday afternoon, at the home of Mrs. E. A. Schwartz, 1731 Martina avenue. A goodly number of ladies was in attendance and spent the afternoon with needlework.

Mrs. Carson of Carson street and El Prado and Mrs. Thelander were received as new members. Refreshments were served by the hostess, Mrs. W. Lange.

The next meeting will be the monthly business and social meeting and will be held at the home of Mrs. T. C. Farman, 1403 East 21st street, on Thursday afternoon, March 4. All ladies interested are cordially invited to these meetings.

An Ad That Says Something

The pleasanter your outlooks are, it naturally follows the more charming will be your interiors.
