planning commission a proposal that a set-back line be established on Cravens avenue for the purpose of widening the street at a later date.

The most important action taken by the board was that which was contained in a resolution instructing the street superintendent to get busy with a team and scraper and put the high school baseball diamond in first class condition.

Boys Get Busy
Within ten minutes after this resolution was passed the "street superintendent" had a city team and equipment on the job, and you can believe this story that the diamond was put in real fine condition in mighty short order.

During the trustees' meeting considerable disturbance took place and the trustees ordered policemen present to arrest the disturbers. Charged with disturbing the peace, Albert Bartlett Jr. pleaded guilty and was sentenced to serve an hour in jail. The sentence was suspended during good behavior. "Slippery" Wilson pleaded not guilty and demanded a trial by jury. He was tried. Tom Jones defended him and Floyd Chandler was prosecutor. The defendant was found guilty. Recorder Zuver sentenced him to serve an hour in jail, half of which was suspended. "Slippery" served half an hour. He was convicted chiefly on the testimony of Roy Flood, genial star witness for the prosecution, who testified that "Slippery" habitually pulled the other kids' hair. Perry Briney was in charge of this citizenship program.

Stage Parade
Wednesday noon boys of Torrance, carrying large American flags and headed by the boys' band from the Harvard Military School of Los Angeles, staged a parade through the city. A number of Rotarians marched with the lads, exemplifying the interest that older men should take in the youth of their city. The parade was in charge of Don Findley and M. L. Darling.

Following the parade a track meet was held at the high school grounds, under the direction of Harum Reeves. A winner bake, arranged by F. L. Parks, followed. Wednesday afternoon the juniors won the high school track meet when they annexed 42 points, as against 30 for the seniors, 12 for the freshmen, and 5 for the sophomores.

Names of ribbon-winners in all events follow: 100-yard dash—Bozeman first, Runyan second, Fiesel third; 220-yard dash—Bozeman first, Fiesel second, Runyan third; 440-yard run—Jones first, Zuver second, Fyte third; half-mile—Romine first, Jones second, Von Hagen third; mile—Romine first, Danny second, Hudson third; broad jump—Steeple first, Runyan second, Zuver third; high jump—Steeple first, Jones second; shot put—Steeple first, Zuver second, Romine third; pole vault—Roberts first, Steeple second, Jones third; relay—freshmen first, sophomores second.

The seventh graders beat the eighth graders in the junior high meet by a score of 38 to 21.

The names of winners follow: 35-yard dash—Agapito first, Newby second, Reynolds third; 50-yard dash—Stevenson first, Justice second, Agapito third; 75-yard dash—Stevenson first, McKnight second, Woodington third; quarter-mile—Justice first, McKnight second, Brown third; high jump—Stevenson first, Agapito second, McDowell third; broad jump—Justice first, Carr second, Stevenson third; relay race—seventh grade first, eighth grade second.

Today was Boys' Day in Industry, under the direction of R. R. Smith. Boys were conducted through the industries of the city in groups, and problems of production and distribution were explained.

At the Saturday afternoon session, which was entirely of a business nature, this body conferred upon W. E. Bowen of Torrance one of the highest honors that can be given any man in religious work.
