WANTED!

Men and Women

Who desire to engage in clean, pleasant and profitable work for the next few weeks. Rich reward will be the portion of those who fulfill the requirements of these unique positions.

1. Lots of Pep and Energy
2. Plenty of Ambition
3. A Desire to Turn Their Spare Time Into Dollars

To such men and women The Torrance Herald will on June 21st pay a handsome reward. The work consists of gathering votes in The Great $5000 automobile and prize campaign just starting. Energetic workers are starting out in every district determined to win the splendid prizes. Votes alone will win—and it takes a little energy and ambition to get them.

It makes no difference where you live. The Torrance Herald and Lomita News wants men and women everywhere to share in this lavish distribution. Present indications are that it will take very little effort to win the biggest prizes. There is a wonderful opportunity facing anyone who REALLY wants to do something BIG—and in return for their efforts they can get something worth while.

Q.—Can votes be transferred?
A.—Positively no. Once votes are issued they have to "stay put."

Q.—Is it possible to win a capital prize and a district prize besides?
A.—No. After the capital prize winners have been decided, the district prizes will be awarded to the next highest candidates. One of each will be awarded in each district.

Q.—If a new subscriber, secured by a candidate, makes a second payment on his or her subscription, will it be considered old or new?
A.—It would be new, the same as the first payment. Once new, always new as far as the purpose of this campaign is concerned.

Q.—Is it permissible for a subscriber to give a second payment to a different candidate from the one who secured the first payment?
A.—Yes, indeed. In such cases, candidate should ascertain who secured the first payment, and the amount thereof, so that the proper difference in votes may be given.

Q.—Are candidates allowed to get subscriptions outside their own districts?
A.—Candidates can go anywhere for their subscriptions and votes. The whole world is their field.

Q.—Does collections on old subscriptions interfere with the carriers or agents?
A.—Absolutely not. The carriers are paid by The Herald, and you are aiding them by making the collection on any old subscription.

Q.—What is the best time to enter?
A.—Right now—take advantage of the present big voting period. The OPPORTUNITY COUPON is your success.

Q.—Will there ever be another opportunity later on to secure as many votes as we are getting on new subscriptions now?
A.—Absolutely not. This period is the biggest of the entire campaign, and never again will there be an opportunity of this magnitude.
