Many Gifts Are Given Hospital On Annual Day

Mrs. Torrance and Other Women Remember Institution With Presents

Hospital Day was observed at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial Hospital Thursday, and the occasion prompted many to present the institution with gifts.

Mrs. Jared Sidney Torrance, chief of the founders of the institution, announced at a meeting of the hospital board yesterday that she will have the pergola on the roof of the hospital made into a solarium for the nurses. It will be so constructed that it may also be used as a dormitory for the nurses during the warm summer months.

A large amount of jelly and preserves was given to the institution yesterday. Among the donors were Mrs. George W. Post, the Women's Guild of the Central Evangelical Church, Mrs. George P. Shidler, Mrs. Norman Leake, Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley.

A beautiful layette was presented by the Torrance Relief Society. Flowers were received from Mrs. J. T. Price of Lomita and from Mrs. Torrance.

Mrs. Jennie T. Welch presented the institution with a gift of $25.

SCHOOL NEWS

That the world is approaching a change second only to that when Columbus discovered America was revealed to the students of T. H. S. last Thursday. The speaker who disclosed this world-famous travelogue was M. LeBourdais, world-famous traveler and explorer. Mr. LeBourdais showed the students a map like the ones which will be used in the center of the world, and all routes from the Orient to the Occident will pass through the Arctic. The speaker showed slides of the frozen north. Pictures of seals, polar bears, Esquimaux and icebergs interested the students greatly, and they considered it one of the best aud. calls for this year.

Life in miniature. This might be said to describe the very entertaining opera, "The Pirate's Daughter," which is to be given by the junior high school music department Friday night, May 14. Because it is an entertainment given by the boys and girls of the seventh and eighth and 129 grades, it is something different than anything hitherto given in the auditorium.

Those who have been fortunate enough to listen in at rehearsals are delighted and wish to urge the people of Torrance not to miss this gay little production of song, laughter and chatter. There is love-making on a small scale and some little thrills, all done with song and dancing and—well, come and see it all for yourself. You'll have an evening of enjoyment and be able to forget your troubles for an hour or two. Seats now on sale at the Dolley drug store.

Friday evening, May 8, a crowd of Torrance students went to Long Beach to attend the semi-finals in the constitutional contest. All returned impressed with the fine orations given that evening and with high hopes that the winner, Gregson Bautzer of San Pedro High, will go to Washington.

The service committee of the senior class has brightened the teachers' room with new curtains and drapes, table runners and pictures. The appearance of the room has been completely changed.

The senior class have at last chosen their play, "Agatha Ann," and the cast chosen is as follows: Agatha, Kent, Kathryn Wheaton; Burton Forbes, Walter Zaver; Zaira Frink, Jane Roelofs; Phemie Ladd, Jean Hudson; Howard Kent, Dee Williamson; Julia Studley, Geneva Holland; Mrs. Knox, Garnet Cook; Jim Doollittle, Tom Jones; Deacon Wiggins, Martha Liggenter; Ridgely Warrens, Everett Richhart.

The chemistry class felt themselves highly honored when the head chemist acted as guide through the Torrance oil refinery. The laboratory was very interesting, and the class wish to thank Mr. Mowry for the trip, which proved so interesting and educational.

Miss Nettie Taff, from the Educational Bureau of Food Products, will give a demonstration to the class in cookery of the evening high school on Monday evening, May 17, at 7 o'clock. Her subject will be cakes and cake decorations. She will also start a cake contest, which is open to anyone. Everyone is invited to attend.

New Manager at Lomita Theatre

Announcement was made today that Jay Chittner, manager of the Lomita Theatre for the past 15 months, has resigned and that his position will be taken by Don S. Cowan, formerly associated with the West Coast Theatres of California. Mr. Cowan is a moving picture theatre manager of long experience and promises to bring to Lomita the highest class productions available. He says it will be his aim to live up to the theatre motto, which is "If it's a good picture, Lomita will show it."

LOCAL NOTES

Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Crawford have moved from Flower street to the Adamson bungalow at the junction of Walnut street and the boulevard.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Snyder of Redondo boulevard were visitors in Redondo Beach Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. William Vetter of the Vetter ranch spent Sunday at the home of their daughter, Mrs. Ural Griffin, of Point Fermin.

Guests Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Lacy of Poppy street were Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Mendelson and Mr. and Mrs. Crabbell.

Famous Streets in Los Angeles Carry Flood of Traffic

Los Angeles has more concrete streets than any other city in the country—a total of over 220 miles.

All of these streets are carrying a steadily increasing volume of traffic, and are doing so with very little maintenance.

Some of them are famous thoroughfares representing the most advanced type of paving construction.

They include Vine Street, "The Highway of the Movie Stars," Franklin Avenue, one of Hollywood's fine residential streets; Cahuenga Avenue, the main artery leading into Los Angeles from the San Fernando Valley; and Hill Street from Washington to Santa Barbara Avenue.

Los Angeles is building more concrete streets every year. The latest of these is Pico Boulevard. This, when completed, will be from 34 to 68 feet wide throughout its entire length of seven miles.

It will pay other cities and towns to make a careful study of Los Angeles' advanced practice in permanent street paving.

Property owners and local authorities are invited to write to this office for the facts. Also ask for your copy of our free booklet on "Concrete Streets."
