"Just for Fun"

By RAS BERRY

Jack Hanson eases into the office to tell me to tell the world that no sooner had Jerry Calder been made chief of police than Mrs. Calder went to Reno. Jerry says that's where he used to live and he don't expect the Mrs. to visit there long.

Jim Leech is now the papa of four boys the latest one of which was born on June 3 and that puts Jim on a par with Dr. Shidder. Both says, however that it ain't no race.

I see by the papers that a prominent club woman says that gals with one-piece bathing suits should be whipped but I think it would be more fitting to make 'em go swimmin'.

The only proper thing about that Earl Carroll wine bath party was that it took place on Saturday night.

Dick Malone he played golf with J. McMillan and W. Post and me last Saturday and while we was playing them yachts in the race to Honolulu sailed by and Dick he had one eye on them and one eye on his ball I guess because he took a swipe at the pellet and it went right into the ocean and Mac says Dick was shooting for one of the yachts so he could say he made Hawaii in one. Nobuddy was hurt.

Geo. Proctor had a birthday Thurs. nt. but didn't announce which one it was.

Once he says I am just 24 and Mrs. Proctor says you was 24 when Los Angeles was a duck pond.

Scotty McKenzie says he notices that they is a lot of Scotch boats playing in and out of San Pedro harbor and I says how do you know they is Scotch boats and Mac says well they ain't any sea gulls followin them.

I guess Mac has been to the Orpheum, but I can't figger where he got the pass.

I got a postal card from St. Louis the other day from my brother-in-law who is driving across the continent and he made a funny crack on the card and I starts to read it to the bus, mgr. and no sooner had I started than he said Yeah I read it and I learned a lesson. The height of repetition is to read a postal card to the guy that brings the mail or to Al Gourdiar.

Pax Paxman he looks me over the other day and he seen a couple shocks of whiskers that I had missed while shaving and he started to sing, Just the same, Just the same, and the wind blew through his whiskers just the same; He always tried to save; So himself he'd daily shave, but the wind blew through his whiskers just the same.

A picnic party at White's Point Sunday included Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Brown of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cobb and family of San Pedro, and Mr. and Mrs. Lynden Lowe and family of Walnut street.

Mrs. H. G. Randles, Mrs. G. M. Randles and Mrs. C. Mading were Hawthorne visitors Tuesday.

Mrs. Louis Tinning of Cypress street returned yesterday from several days' visit with friends in San Juan Capistrano.

Narbonne Class Has Surprise Tea

The members of the adult millinery class of the Narbonne High School were treated to a surprise tea Tuesday afternoon at the close of the session.

A committee of seven members and the class instructor, Mrs. Effie Jane Hayden, served a delicious repast of sandwiches, cake and tea, and everyone reports a delightful time. Miss Griffin, principal, was an especially invited guest.

Members of the Gardena, Moneta, Wilmington, Redondo and Torrance classes were present, and plans were perfected for a picnic to be held at Bixby Park next Friday, June 25. The picnic party will include the members of the six classes and invited friends.

Inman Announces Improved System At Daley's Store

Charles R. Inman, manager of Daley's Torrance store, has rearranged the service at this grocery to facilitate service and more speedily take care of increasing trade.

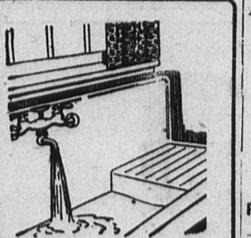

Aisles have been widened and goods rearranged. All bulk goods will be sold at the counter. Other improvements tending to make selection by customers easier have been instituted by Mr. Inman.

"Our business is constantly increasing," said Mr. Inman, "and we are merely making improvements and service changes in order to handle the trade more readily and make it easier for our growing list of patrons."

AMARANTH ACTIVITIES

An Amaranth picnic is planned for the near future.

Several members of the local court attended the Redondo Court of the Amaranth Wednesday evening, when Grand Royal Matron Mary Elizabeth Rice of San Francisco and Grand Royal Patron

Kitchen Cheer

Water—hot or cool—flowing from a faucet which is as sparkling as the water it supplies! The snow-white surface of the modern one-piece sink!

These make your kitchen cheerful. Easier dish-washing and a sink that's easy to clean and keep clean lighten kitchen work.

Let spring house cleaning include installing one of our modern sinks.

David Livingston of Long Beach made their official visit.

Local card players are looking forward to the Amaranth card party to be held in the Chamber of Commerce rooms Friday evening, June 25.

About twenty-five members were present Monday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce rooms when Mrs. John Glenn Wilson, Mrs. Jack Radcliff and Mrs. Robert McCartney were hostesses to the Amaranth Auxiliary. The business session was followed by a short program, which included vocal solos by Mrs. B. A. Beckham and readings by Mrs. A. E. Perkins.
