TORRANCE INDUSTRIAL INDOOR LEAGUE

SCHEDULE Which Began Monday, May 28, 1928. Table with columns for Week, Date, and various league events.

INDUSTRIAL LEAGUE NOTES

The game of Tuesday, May 29 in the Torrance industrial Indoor Baseball League brought together the Shell "400" club from Wilmington and the strong Petroleum Securities outfit. The Shell boys were without the services of their mounds ace Boyd and Jack Canterbury's boys had little trouble romping off with the verdict, one big inning in which they scored eleven times putting the game on ice for Steppy, who then switched to the outfield and allowed their southpaw Thompson to show his wares for the last two innings.

On Tuesday of this week the National Supply team, behind the sterling pitching of Atwood had little difficulty defeating the Standard Oil outfit by a score of 14 to 1. A big first inning in which they scored nine times put Atwood on easy street and he just coasted in. The attack of the National boys was featured by the hitting of Ted Troost, who helped himself to a pair of doubles and a home run. The Standard team, although beaten, were not disgraced, and with a little practice will make all the other teams in the circuit hustle to gain a verdict over them.

By far the most exciting, evenly contested and hardest fought game played to date in the league, was that of Wednesday, June 6th, which brought together the Pacific Electric and the Shell "400" club. This latter outfit, by the way, look like an entirely different team with their regular pitcher Boyd on the rubber. The final score was 9 to 8 in favor of the Shell boys, they putting over the winning run after two were out in the last inning. Boyd should have won further away, having ten strikeouts to his credit, but loose fielding behind him kept the P. E. boys in the game to the last.

One bright feature about the games so far is the fact that they are starting right on time, enabling the spectators to get home after the games in plenty of time for dinner. The attendance has been very gratifying to the league management so far, and is increasing with every game.
