Lawndale Producer Creates Excitement; Torrance Men Buy Land

With claims made of a possible flow of 2100 barrels, a new well put on production July 3 by the Stan Clemente Oil Company, in the Lawndale district, has been "beamed down" to 200 barrels daily.

The well is located half a mile south of Rosecrans avenue. It is understood that work will begin on five more wells in the Lawndale district which will prove which way the structure goes.

Although the new field is claimed to offer unusual opportunity for the man of moderate means to buy drill sites, $250,000 worth of property is said to have changed hands since the well started flowing.

Security maintained by the company has been relaxed and reports were made public last week for the first time.
