Old Lomita Feud Breaks Out Anew

C. of C. Directors Turn Down Two Smiths as Members

The long feud between the Lomita Chamber of Commerce group and the J. A. Smith family which has been burning in Lomita for years broke out afresh when the directors of the Chamber refused J. A. Smith and Charles Smith membership in the Chamber of Commerce. A letter addressed to the Smiths, signed by Mrs. T. C. Erickson, secretary, informed them that the directors on Dec. 4 had voted to reject the Smith application money. A committee of two, it is said, was appointed to "investigate" and report. Members of the Chamber directorate refuse to discuss the matter except to point out that the Smith application was made just prior to election. Neutral observers in Lomita have expressed widespread disgust with the long-standing feud, declaring that both sides should bury their prejudices for the good of the community. Partisans to the feud, however, refuse to give an inch and the battle, which has been fought out in many a sharp encounter, bids fair to rage on—and on—and on—and on.

Coffee and sandwiches will be served.

After a fine turkey dinner, a meeting of the Lomita Masons was held last Friday in the Masonic hall on Narbonne avenue. An election of officers took place with the following result: Andrew E. Perkins was elected worshipful master; Charles Gregg, senior warden; Mr. Hall, junior warden; L. J. Hunter, treasurer and O. W. Thistle, secretary.

Lomita Lad Gives Blood to Save Pal

The bond which binds boys together is made of strong stuff. A boy will go the limit for his pal. Wayne Cox, Redondo Boulevard, Lomita and Gene Nelson of San Pedro are fast friends. Wayne is a healthy, husky lad, enjoying splendid health. Gene has been ailing for a long time. Surgeons in consultation decided that Gene might improve if a blood transfusion were made. Wayne heard about it. With true loyalty he volunteered to give his blood for his buddy. The transfusion operation took place last Friday morning at the San Pedro General hospital. Wayne is back in school, little the worse for his sacrifice. And possibly one of the chief reasons for his own good health and high spirits is the fact that Gene is vastly improved. Fred Nelson, Miss Vivian Nelson and George Freshman spent Sunday at Tarjuna with Mrs. Nelson who has gone there for several months in the interest of her health.
