Girl Arrested in Hermosa Beach For Too Daring Bathing Costume

HERMOSA BEACH.—For a few brief minutes yesterday morning, the solitary habitues of the beach in front of the Surf and Sand club of Hermosa Beach were startled and surprised by the sudden appearance of a very beautiful and ravishing specimen of female pulchritude, clothed in a very abbreviated and daringly cut swimming suit.

This fascinating vision to the eyes of the few watchers turned out to be Miss Mary Wilson of Hermosa Beach, and she had just discarded her beach pants and coolie coat and was entering the water, when the ever watchful eyes of Chief of Police Eddie Messenger and Officer Foote were attracted by the swimming suit, or rather, the lack of wearing apparel worn by Miss Wilson.

Cops Get Action

They immediately halted the aquatic beauty, who stated that she had intended to swim to the Olympic lunge in preparation for some swimming events she contemplated entering this coming summer. But instead, she found herself escorted to the court house where she was charged with wearing immodest bathing attire, contrary to the rules and regulations of the city.

Miss Wilson, who is a beautiful brunette, stated that the wonderful warm sunshiny weather had enticed her to wear her new swimming suit, for the first time, which by the way, was one of the latest 1929 advanced and much cut down models. Miss Wilson claimed that the style of swimming suit, such as she wore, would be the vogue during the summer months. However, the offender was warned against wearing the suit again within the city limits of Hermosa Beach, and she was freed with a warning.

Something Lacking

Councilman McMillan, who happened to be present in the court house when Miss Wilson was brought in, inspected the swimming suit and pronounced it satisfactory, after a close inspection, but after viewing the front of the offending piece of wearing apparel, was of the opinion that "something was lacking."

Miss Wilson departed for her home quite disappointed by the fact that she would not be permitted to wear fashion's latest creation in bathing suits on the rolling sands of Hermosa Beach, but she was consoled by a remark made that she would prove a wonderful drawing card in any bathing beauty parade.

Mr. and Mrs. Gale Henry of Pasadena were dinner guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Fess Tuesday evening. They attended the light festival together.
