MRS. DOLLEY HOSTESS AT DESERT BRIDGE

Mrs. H. H. Dolley introduced a delightful innovation to Torrance social groups when she entertained at her home on Post avenue on Monday with a "dessert bridge". The secret of this intriguing affair concerns itself with the serving of refreshments, in this case, delicious ice cream molded and all of them of the most appealing flavors.

Service at a dessert bridge begins when all guests have arrived, so that they may be properly refreshed before play, instead of after.

Mrs. Dolley's house decorations were of an attractive simplicity, the only floral ornament being a huge vase of poinsettias.

Honors were awarded to Mrs. F. B. Dilly for high score, Mrs. W. J. Neelands, second, and Mrs. L. G. Danford, low score.

Invited were Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Mrs. R. A. Huber, Mrs. O. E. Fossum, Mrs. A. P. Stevens, Mrs. J. O. Moore, Mrs. Harvel Guiton, Mrs. George P. Shilder, Mrs. W. C. Dolley, Mrs. Frank Sammons, Mrs. George Peckham, Mrs. Julius Jensen, Mrs. W. J. Neelands, Mrs. Clara Curtis, Mrs. Paul Vonderhake, Mrs. Dewey Quigley, Mrs. Charles Gault of Beverly Hills, Mrs. C. B. Buxton, Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. Archer Lewis, Mrs. P. Dilly, Mrs. Walter Schlick, Mrs. Valdo Darnell, Mrs. Joe Stone, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. Sadie W. Buchanan, Mrs. Willis Brooks, Mrs. Guy Claire, Mrs. Walter Mulholland, Mrs. Robert Deinger, Mrs. L. G. Danford, Mrs. Walter Post, Mrs. Harley Hayes, Mrs. Leonard Murray, Mrs. Albert Hildebrand, Mrs. L. B. Kelsey, Mrs. Grover Whyte, Mrs. W. Harold Kingsley, Mrs. Isabel Henderson, Mrs. Huron Reeve, Mrs. Perry Briney, Mrs. Florence Welch, Mrs. John Guyan, Mrs. George Watson, Mrs. Fay Parks, Mrs. N. F. Jamieson, Mrs. George Neill, Mrs. George Worcester, Mrs. Ellis Harder, Miss Isabel Berenson and Miss Adelaide Berenson.

MRS. SLEPPY IS HOSTESS

Mrs. R. Sleppy was hostess to members of the Girls' Friendly Society of the Episcopal church at a delightful Christmas party given at her home in Keystone Friday evening.

Honors for high score at 500 were awarded to Marjorie Eade, second to Anna Margaret Sprout and consolation to Eleanor Holce. Delicious refreshments were served by the hostess.

CELEBRATE 9TH BIRTHDAY

Frank Carr Jr. celebrated his ninth birthday Monday afternoon when his mother entertained with a party at the Carr residence on Andreo avenue.

Seasonal decorations were used in the house, which was the scene of lively games throughout the afternoon. An interesting game was the making of New Year's resolutions, and a prize for the best one was awarded to Victor Rose.

Present were Billy Anderson, John Guyan, Norman Hudson, Earl Lock, Stanley Abbott, Dick Sharrow, Eugene Denman, Robert Mowry, Joseph McNeil, Keith Tilt, Dale Richardson, Victor Rose and Frank Carr Jr.

MRS. SIDEBOTHAM ENTERTAINS

Mrs. May Sidebotham, retiring Guardian of Job's Daughters, entertained 22 members of that organization and four members of the guardian council at her home on Normandie avenue in Lomita last Saturday.

A delightful luncheon was served at 12:30, after which the guests indulged in bridge, 500 and bingo. Yuletide decorations throughout the house lent holiday spirit, and a Christmas tree held gifts for all of the guests.

Members of the Guardian council present were Mrs. Margaret Forde, Mrs. Emma McIntyre, Mrs. Mary Price and the retiring guardian and hostess, Mrs. May Sidebotham.

SURPRISE BIRTHDAY SHOWER

The birthday of Miss Thelma Price, newly installed honored queen of Job's Daughters, was observed Monday evening when the newly elected officers tendered her a surprise shower Monday night.

The officers met at the Masonic Temple for their first practice, and immediately after, Miss Price was led to the banquet room where a

Following the ceremony, a dinner supper was served to immediate relatives and friends at the new home of the bride and groom at 611 Amadipola avenue, Torrance. The table was decorated with flowers, and the groomsmen were in blue. George Dobrick of the room, was best man.

MRS. MAXFIELD HAS BRIDGE PARTY

Mrs. V. L. Maxfield, was hostess at a delightfully informal bridge party Friday evening at her home on Encarnacion avenue.

Honors for high score were awarded to Mrs. Edith Kasper with second to Mrs. Edna Stone.

Present were Mrs. J. Forbes Anderson, Mrs. Goodfellow, Mrs. Edna Stone, Mrs. Persis Fess, Mrs. John Dennis, Mrs. Jennie Moore, Mrs. Edith Kasper, Mrs. Juliette Johnson, Mrs. O. E. Fossum and the hostess, Mrs. V. L. Maxfield.

ANNUAL CHRISTMAS PARTY

The annual Christmas party of the Christ church school was held in the Parish hall on Monday evening. Owing to several other entertainments held the same evening not so many were present as hoped for but a good time was enjoyed by those who attended.

After a couple of hours passed in playing games, candy and apples were presented to each one present by the school.

CHRISTMAS PARTY FOR S. S. CLASS

Mrs. E. N. Tomkins was hostess to her Sunday school class of girls at her home on Gramercy avenue last Thursday evening at a prettily appointed Christmas party.

Each guest brought a gift, which was numbered and then exchanged. Delicious refreshments were served.

Present were Mrs. Alice Beck, Mrs. Frances Shodgrass, Mrs. Helen Burdick, Mrs. Katherine Reeve, Miss Ruth Beckwith, Miss Doris Spoon, Miss Caroline King, and the hostess, Mrs. E. N. Tomkins.

ENTERTAIN MASONIC OFFICIALS

Mrs. E. N. Tomkins entertained at their home on Gramercy avenue last Friday evening with a dinner honoring Mr. Fred Pardee, district Masonic inspector, and Mr. William Hall, patron of the Inglewood chapter.

The dinner was held prior to the Masonic installation, at which Mr. Tomkins was the installing officer.

MISS HAZEL HARSHMAN CHRISTMAS BRIDE

Coming as a surprise to their many friends is the news of the wedding of Miss Hazel Nell Harshman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Harshman, to Lawrence Vernon Mulholland of Wilmington, who were quietly married at Santa Barbara on Christmas eve.

The bride was attractively dressed in rose beige chiffon with hat and accessories of a matching shade. Immediately after the ceremony, the young couple motored to Torrance and broke the news to their friends. They have taken an apartment at the Gaylord, and plan a balated honeymoon during the summer months.

The bride is a popular Torrance girl, and is cashier at the Torrance Water, Light and Power company.

GUESTS AT LONG BEACH

Torrance guests at a lovely bridge dinner given by Mr. and Mrs. Robert MacAlpine at their home in Long Beach Saturday evening were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Stone and Mr. and Mrs. Tom McGuire.

Christmas motif was used in the table appointments, and the unusual favors were from England. They were in the form of crackers, decorated by candles and flowers, and contained unusual surprises for the guests.

Both Mr. and Mrs. McGuire captured honors for high score at bridge, and Mr. and Mrs. Stone were awarded second.

Pipe Line Permit on 208th St. Given

Permission to lay a pipe line upon portions of 208th street and Normandie avenue was given by the Los Angeles City Council in an ordinance adopted last Monday. The franchise was given to the General Pipe Line Company.
