BRINEYS ENTERTAIN AT HOLIDAY PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. P. G. Briney entertained at a beautifully appointed dinner at their home on Christmas day. The table was attractively decorated with a centerpiece of poinsettias flanked with tall red tapers. Snow men cleverly made of gum drops marked places for twenty-one guests. The attractiveness of the home was enhanced by a beautifully decorated Christmas tree and other appropriate holiday decorations.

Those invited included: Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Briney, Misses Olive and Bertha Briney, Mr. and Mrs. Erin Johannessen and children, Mr. Andrew Bert of Fullerton, Miss Ollie Dee and Miss Mary Hinman of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lewis and son, Miss Beulah Lewis and Mrs. Emily Lewis of Torrance, Bertha Hinman, the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. Briney and children. Open rouse was then held during which tea was served to thirty friends in the late afternoon.

ENGAGEMENT IS ANNOUNCED

The home of Mrs. G. M. Morgan of Hollywood was the scene of a very pretty party Saturday afternoon, December 27, when Mrs. Ruby Wise Sargent and her sisters, Mrs. R. V. Wise and Mrs. G. M. Morgan entertained twenty-four guests from Torrance, Redondo, Long Beach and Hollywood, the occasion being an engagement announcement party.

A musical holiday tea, furnished the diversion of the afternoon during which Miss Mary White, contralto, delighted the guests with Cadman's "The Moon Behind the Cottonwoods," followed by Miss Esther Dalton, soprano, who sang "Come, For It's June" by Lee, accompanied by Katherine Schaeffer at the piano. Miss Eva Anderson of Long Beach then played several selections.

At the close of the musicale Bobby Moran, small nephew of Mrs. Sargent entered wearing a Santa Claus costume and presented each guest with a small package from the Christmas tree. The packages, attractively tied with ribbon decorated with the musical staff, revealed their contents of a card bearing the names of Mrs. Ruby Wise Sargent and Mr. Floyd Grant Bond.

MR. AND MRS. DOLLEY ENTERTAIN AT DINNER

A very clever futuristic centerpiece graced the table at a delightful dinner party given by Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dolley at their home on Christmas day. Covers were placed for Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Dolley, Mr. and Mrs. Ellis Harder, Mrs. J. G. Olson of Long Beach, Mr. Fred Harder and the host and hostess, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Dolley.

FAMILY ENJOYS REUNION DINNER

Foreign Legion and Real Boys at Local Show

The Legion is coming. "Renegades," Warner Baxter's latest feature vehicle for Fox Movie-tone which comes to the Torrance Theatre tonight and Wednesday, is said to give a vivid portrayal of life in that famous organization, the French Foreign Legion, ruffe of the world's most picturesque adventurers, Victor Fleming directed. Myrna Loy and Noah Beery head the supporting cast.

"TOM SAWYER" The kids get a break in films once again. This time three youngsters play the leads in one of the most famous stories ever translated to the screen—"Tom Sawyer," the immortal classic from the pen of Mark Twain which opens for a three day run at the Torrance Theatre New Year's night (Thursday). Jackie Coogan, whose fame has increased since the day's of "The Kid," is seen in the title role. His partner in boyhood delvtry, Huckleberry Finn, is played by Junior Durkin, the lad who amazed Broadway by his work in Janet Beecher's "Courage."
