... in advancing radio reception to amazing new standards of performance—

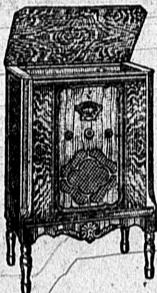

- NEW... The Spray-Shield Tube (Germany)
- NEW... Twin-Power Detection (England)
- NEW... "Modulated" Circuit (America)

Three phenomenal discoveries—all within the last year—gathered from the foremost nations in radio. A scoop of triple magnitude by Majestic! You get them—all three of these amazing developments—only in the new 1932 Majestic.

Majestic Superheterodyne RADIO

If you are one who feels that radio has nothing new to offer, come in and listen to the most sensational demonstration and performance in all radio history. Only by hearing the new Majestic will you fully realize how these sensational developments are making present-day conceptions of radio perfection but mediocre achievements.

Combining these master developments into a single perfect unit again places the Majestic miles ahead of any other radio regardless of price. Majestic gives you these added values at no extra cost. Ask about our liberal time-payment plan.

Woman's Club Notes

The first meeting of the state year of the Torrance Woman's Club was held yesterday. Mrs. Harry Michaels, chairman of Social Welfare, told of the work of her department at the luncheon. Miss Evelyn Hellum of Beverly Hills spoke of the works of Edna St. Vincent Millay and read several of her poems which showed the growth of her talent.

Mrs. Harry Stroll spoke on the subject of books as companions. Giving the Bible as the best book, she named several that she had read this summer. They were "A Richer Dust" by Storm Jameson;

"The Bitter Tea of General Yen" by Stone; "On the Road to Culture" by Shaw; "Enduring Quest" by Overstreet; "Magnificent Obsession" by Lloyd Douglas; "San Michele" by Dr. Alexander Mumtaz and "Break of Day" and "Red Willows" by Constant L. Skinner. William Mcheau sang two numbers. Announcements were made of the dancing party to be held October 23. On October 13 the presidents' council will meet at the Wilshire Fox theatre. The club will give a bridge dinner at a date to be announced later for the benefit of the program fund. There will be a special membership drive from now until December 1.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Rohring were Hollywood visitors Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Murray and son, Louis, and Mrs. Mary Jessome visited friends at Orange Sunday.

JOB'S DAUGHTERS GREET STATE OFFICER

Last Thursday was a gala occasion at Masonic Temple when more than 200 Job's Daughters, Masons and members of the Order of the Eastern Star gathered to greet Irma Wellman, grand guardian of the State of California, at her official visit to Torrance Bethel of Job's Daughters. Assisting Torrance were Bethel 99 from Beverly Hills and Bethel 91 from Los Angeles. At this time Frank Steinliber was installed as associate guardian of Torrance Bethel. The opening ceremony and ceremony of business were conducted by Torrance, while initiation work was beautifully exemplified by Bethel 99 and Bethel 91, brought the ceremony to a close. Following the lodge session, dainty refreshments were served at a late hour in the banquet room.

TORRANCE BETHEL HOST TO GRAND GUARDIAN

Uniting with Bethel 91, and Hollywood Bethel, U. D., Torrance Bethel received the grand guardian Thursday evening who paid her official visits to the Bethels and conferred the charter upon Hollywood Bethel, which is now number 99. The three Bethels demonstrated the ritual work for the grand guardian, Irma Wellman, and initiated several candidates, three of whom entered the Torrance Bethel, Mary Ann Taylor, Vivian Knudson and Dorothy McMillan.

The occasion was also the fourth birthday of the Torrance Bethel which has from the first made a splendid growth. Following the ritual work, the Torrance Bethel, with their guardian, Mrs. May Sidebotham, invited the visitors to the banquet hall which was beautifully decorated in purple and white, and dainty refreshments were served.

American Legion Auxiliary News

The annual election of officers of the American Legion Auxiliary was an event of Tuesday evening when Mrs. L. G. Barkdull was elected as president. Mrs. Barkdull who has filled the office of first vice president during the past year was unanimously elected. She is the 10th president of the auxiliary unit in Torrance which was organized in October, 1921. Mrs. Caroline Collins was chosen first vice president, Mrs. Lyle Doan as second vice president, Mrs. Robert Steeth, secretary; Mrs. Robert Deinger as treasurer, Mrs. Janet Woodington as chaplain, Mrs. A. W. Greiner as historian, Mrs. D. A. Murphy as sergeant-at-arms, and Mrs. Nellie Crossland, Mrs. Charles Myers, Mrs. Clara Baxter, Mrs. Ellis Harder and Mrs. Sidney Smith were elected to the executive committee. Installation of officers will be a brilliant affair and will take place Tuesday, October 20, with Beatrice Trumbull, 19th district president, installing officer. Bert S. Crossland new drill team will assist in this work and many state officers are expected to be in attendance. Tuesday, October 13, will be visiting day for this unit at Sawtelle and Mrs. Hurt, hospitalization chairman, will distribute jams and jellies derived from the recent drive. The group will leave the clubhouse at 1:30. Anyone wishing information about this trip call 259-R.
