Rolph to Fly to Virginia Next Month

SACRAMENTO, Calif.—(U.P.)—From California to Virginia in less than two days!

This will be the record flight attempted next month by James Rolph, Jr., California's "flying governor," when, with Colonel Roscoe B. Turner, transcontinental record holder, he files to Richmond, Va., to the annual governor's conference.

It will be the longest and fastest trip ever made by Governor Rolph. As his guests he will have Governor Fred B. Balzar of Nevada and Earl B. Gilmore of Los Angeles. At Richmond Governor Rolph has been honored by being chosen to deliver a response to the address of Governor John Garland Pollard of Virginia on the opening day.

The two Western governors will be given a rousing sendoff from San Diego, where they will be guests April 21 of the San Diego Press Club, at its annual Gridiron banquet. From advance reports, both executives will be royally toasted and "roasted" at the newspaper party.
