Shekel Auction Starts Tonight at Tor. Theatre

Managers of Local Show-house Provide Rollicking Entertainment for Fans

"Play Girls," the Warner Bros. and Vitaphone picture featuring Loretta Young and coming to the Torrance Theatre next Wednesday and Thursday, is a brilliant example of the fact that only women get really stabbing heart appeal into stories about women. Another example was Vina Delmar's "Bad Girl."

"Play Girl" is from an original story by Maurine Watkins, author of "Chicago" and many other stage and screen hits.

Miss Watkins has chosen a big department store as the principal locale for her story of young love, ambition, disillusionment and final adjustment to life. Miss Young plays the part of Buster, a clerk in the big shop. Rollicking Winnie Lightner is Georgine, her fellow worker and roommate. Buster is filled with determination to succeed on her own initiative. It is the unexpected advent of a good-looking youth, a devil-may-care playboy, who makes his livelihood by gambling, which changes her plans. He starts her out on an adventurous, changing love quest which is compelling and genuinely feminine.

The cast of "Play Girl" includes Norman Foster, Guy Kibbee, James Ellison, Edward Van Sloan, Dorothy Burgess and Noel Madison.

Beginning tonight the Torrance Theatre will bring to its patrons a chance to have a lot of fun bidding in an auction and at the same time be suitably rewarded for the effort they make in collecting "Shekels" which are given away by various merchants around town.

Every Thursday night the Shekel Auction will be held. Articles of merchandise will be offered for sale. The price is to be paid in shekels, no cash required, so every shekel-holder can feel free to go the limit whenever an article is put up for sale that strikes his fancy. To the lucky bidder, it will be just like getting a Christmas gift, except that he knows what he is getting. Don't miss this feature which starts tonight.

Football Coach Turns Fisherman

HERMOSA BEACH.—Howard Jones, famous Southern California Trojan football coach, was the guest of Capt. J. M. Anderson, on the big Olympic fishing barge here recently. Jones proved to be a good angler bringing in a good sized haul of mackerel as well as a few halibut.

Capt. Anderson reports good fishing at present with an unusual number of halibut being taken. The Olympic's new anchorage on the edge of a natural fish feeding bank is believed responsible for the many halibut catches.

at fox redondo Screen Hits Presented Next Week Are All Top Notch In Interest

The Fox Redondo Theatre continues the presentation of screen hits is signalized by the list of feature pictures to be presented during the coming week.

On Saturday, "The Broken Wing" offers an adventurous drama of the tropics, featuring Lupe Velez and Leo Carrillo, the starting of a new chapter play, "Rin-Tin-Tin in the Lightning Warrior," a serial replete with thrills of adventure; also vaudeville.

Sinclair Lewis' novel, "Arrowsmith," in the movie form, is the Sunday and Monday attraction, in which Ronald Colman and Helen Hayes co-star.

Following "Arrowsmith" into Redondo's popular playhouse on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week, is "The Beast of the City," a sensational expose of the inside of politics and its relation to the underworld.

"Carnival Boat," starring big, two-fisted Bill Boyd and Hobart Bosworth, with Ginger Rogers lending to the love interest, will be the Thursday and Friday bill.

Golf Tournament Attracts Notables

AVALON, Catalina Island, Calif.—Indications point to one of the biggest golf tournaments of the year in the coming Bobby Jones amateur trophy event at Catalina Island, April 15, 16, 17. The affair will be a 36-hole medal play with the privilege of playing any 18 holes on any one of the three days.

A promising young contender is Fred Berning, an island lad who has already wrested the Avalon championship from Vince Petrich, last year's Bobby Jones winner. However, with David Martin, state and Southern California champion, de Paolo of Bakerfield, runner up, Harold and Russell Thompson, certain to be on hand, there will be no lack of interest.

Pitching Staff Is Chief Worry of Coach Fields

Baseball Season Starting This Month Finds Torrance Lacking Mound Ability

Lack of good pitchers on the Torrance team, has Coach Earl Fields worried over the prospects of the squad, with the beginning of the baseball season, Marine League, already in sight. Fields has a couple of men who are slated for mound duty, but neither of them has anything beyond a natural motion, and a willing spirit, he says. With such teams as Jordan, Riss, Bell, Gardena and Leuzinger to contend with, the chances for developing a winning outfit in the local school are far from bright.

About the only possible victory ahead of the Tartars looms in their games with Narbonne, El Segundo and South Gate, but the contemplation of this possibility is tinged with gloom.

The complete baseball schedule, which includes with the tennis competition, is as follows:

Wednesday, April 27, 1932
Torrance at Bell.
Banning at South Gate.
Riss at Leuzinger.
Gardena at Narbonne.
Jordan at El Segundo.

Renounces Buggies

By the United Press
COLUSA, Cal.—W. H. Reryford, 75-year-old geese herder, is through riding in buggies. They're too dangerous, he says. The horse he was driving the other day bolted, upset the buggy and broke Reryford's leg. He crawled half a mile in the mud before he was found.

Suspended Sentence In Petty Theft Case

Alleging that the young men took from his place of business a pair of wind wing brackets worth about 75 cents, Wm. B. Camozzi, owner of an auto wrecking yard in Lomita, caused the arrest Saturday of Shirley Justice and Paul Justice, residing in the Shoestring strip near Torrance. The young men appeared before Judge John Dennis and were given fines of $10 or five days in the county jail, the sentence being suspended for six months, as it appeared that Camozzi after consideration did not wish to press the charge, the property involved being of trivial value.

RE-ELECT JOHN DENNIS

Councilman Long Term
Municipal Election, April 11, 1932

Mayor of Torrance for Past 6 Years

DON'T forget it was Honest John Dennis who remained steadfast against corruption and threatened graft in the installation of Torrance's Ornamental Lighting System.

Don't forget it was Honest John Dennis who fought for the interests of the people of Torrance against the Torrance Water, Light & Power Co. This fight is not over. There will no doubt be attempts made in the next four years to sell the water company to the city at a big price. You can depend upon John Dennis to defend your interests and give the people of Torrance a fair deal, and to do everything possible to provide better water at low rates.

In his entire six years on the City Council, John Dennis has kept his record clean, his faith unshaken, and his courage undaunted. He has labored to help the unemployed; he has given unstintingly of his time without financial compensation. He is experienced, dependable and unselfish,—willing to carry on for the good of the city he loves.
