Retiring Officers of N. B. P. W. Club Honored

As a compliment to the outgoing officers of the National Business and Professional Women of Torrance, the members of the club gave them a surprise party Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Grace Biggs Dean, 1452 Engracia avenue. Without a doubt it was the most successful affair the club has arranged during the 18 months of its existence, an event that was no filled with friendly intrigue, surprises, surmises and climax that it will always be a landmark to measure the club's social doings.

When the officers had been suitably decorated with the badges of their office, the guests settled down to a little serious bridge and bunco playing, in which Ruth Haggard and Ethelwyn Niles proved to be champions at bridge and Margaret Shell and Orda Pietzke at bunco. Caroline Stroh was awarded a consolation prize at bridge.

Refreshments of ice cream, cakes, candies and coffee were served at the close of the evening. The club is indebted to the Mountain View Dairies, the Torrance Bakery, the A. & P. Tea store, the Mayfair Creamery, who donated the materials for the serv-
