BETSY ROSS NOTES

More than 50 members and friends attended the Betsy Ross Club luncheon, Monday, May 16, at Masonic Temple. The tables were artistically decorated with bowls of spring flowers and individual May baskets filled with sweet peas were used as favors. The centerpiece was a Maypole with colored streamers ending in clusters of variegated flowers. The birthday guests were Mrs. Johnson, Mrs. Pess, Mrs. Ulrich, Mrs. Horrel, Mrs. Knudson and Mrs. Montague all of whom were served with a piece of the delicious birthday cake. At the conclusion of the luncheon, Mrs. Fordice introduced the visitors and those whose names began with the letters J. K. or L. they being the honored guests. Mrs. Jean Guyan was hostess assisted by Mrs. Fossum, Mrs. Graham, Mrs. Hudson, Mrs. Knudson and Mrs. Kerber.

BETSY ROSS

The Betsy Ross Club will present "The Mayor's Wife," a short play, together with several very clever vaudeville sketches tonight, Thursday, May 19, at 8:00 o'clock, at Torrance Woman's Clubhouse. The cast is home talent and will furnish a very enjoyable evening's entertainment. Admission, adults 35 cents, children under 12 years, 15 cents.

POLLY ANNS MEET AT GUYAN HOME

Members of the Polly Anns enjoyed an attractively appointed party when they were entertained at the home of Mrs. John Guyan Friday afternoon. Mrs. John P. Buck was hostess to 20 members of the D. O. U. V. when she entertained with a luncheon and card party at her home, 1012 Cedar street, Thursday afternoon. The rooms were artistically decorated with spring flowers and pink and white were accented in the accessories and menu. Awards for high score at bridge were received by Miss Katherine Burmaster, Mrs. Ray Leslie and Mrs. Quigley. Included were the honoree, Mrs. D. W. Quigley, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. Baker Smith, Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff, Mrs. Paul Vonderhe, Mrs. C. L. Ingold, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. Douglas B. Collins, Miss Edna Mullin and Miss Katherine Burmaster.

W. B. A. PARTICIPATE IN RALLY

Torrance Review No. 37, W. B. A. was represented at a rally held at Belvedere Thursday when a group consisting of Mrs. H. E. Reeve, president, and four color bearers including Mrs. Flora McDonald, Mrs. Anna Stadig, Mrs. Earl Butler and Mrs. Shugg of Moneta, exemplified the patriotic service in Colonial costume. A George Washington program is being planned for the next regular meeting of the organization to be held at Torrance Woman's Clubhouse next Tuesday evening, May 24, at 8 o'clock. All members are requested to be in attendance.

LARGE CLASS INITIATED INTO L. O. O. M.

Wilmington lodge with an excellent drill team exemplified the degree work at Torrance Lodge L. O. O. M. when a large class of candidates was initiated Friday evening. Representatives from Long Beach and Maywood were also in attendance. Delicious refreshments were served at the close of the lodge work.

KIWANIS TO DISTRICT CONVENTION

On Monday evening, May 16, 22 members of Torrance Kiwanis club attended the district convention of Division No. 1 International Kiwanis, held at Inglewood. A timely address was presented by William B. Harris. He chose for his topic, "Communism" and a discourse on whether or not judges should be elected for life was also enjoyed.

FRIDAY AFTERNOON CLUB MEETS

Mrs. Jack Gill was hostess when she entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Sonoma avenue last week. Variegated spring flowers in attractive arrangement were used throughout the rooms. Mrs. Stanger received honors for high score while a consolation was awarded Mrs. Charles Myers. Present were Mesdames C. C. Schultz, Ellis Harder, E. W. Hueston, Ray Leslie, W. H. Stanger, J. F. Stone, Charles Myers, Robert Steeth, L. G. Barkdull, D. A. Murphy, and Floyd Evans.

VOISINETS ENTERTAIN AT EVENING BRIDGE

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Voisinets were hosts when they entertained with a delightfully arranged bridge party at their home Saturday evening. Guests included Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Bartlett, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Thomas and Mr. and Mrs. H. Campbell of Los Angeles. A buffet supper was served at the close of card play.

MATRON IS HONORED AT SHOWER

Mrs. D. W. Quigley was honored when Mrs. Ralph Satchell and Mrs. Jean Schaeffer entertained for her at the Satchell home on Acacia street Saturday afternoon, with a surprise shower and bridge. The rooms were artistically decorated with spring flowers and pink and white were accented in the accessories and menu. Awards for high score at bridge were received by Miss Katherine Burmaster, Mrs. Ray Leslie and Mrs. Quigley. Included were the honoree, Mrs. D. W. Quigley, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. Baker Smith, Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff, Mrs. Paul Vonderhe, Mrs. C. L. Ingold, Mrs. Ray Leslie, Mrs. Douglas B. Collins, Miss Edna Mullin and Miss Katherine Burmaster.

DINNER HONORS EASTERN GUEST

Honoring Fred Fulton, who is vacationing here from Gary, Indiana, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Greenman entertained with a dinner party at their home Saturday evening. At the table, having as a centerpiece a low bowl of red roses and fern, covers were placed for the honor guest, Fred Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace McBride, Mrs. Faye Howard, Miss Bonnie Taylor and Mark McIntyre, both of Los Angeles.

GRAMLING, WERTZ TO K. C. CONVENTION

Past Grand Knights Carl Gramling and T. L. Wertz, delegates of Torrance Lodge No. 2445, Knights of Columbus, attended the state convention of Knights of Columbus, California jurisdiction, held at Mission Inn, Riverside, last week-end.
