TOMORROW'S GAMES

Torrance at Santa Ana.
Long Beach at Huntington Beach.
Westminster at Anaheim.
Olive at Whittier.

TUESDAY'S GAMES

Olive at Whittier.
Anaheim at Long Beach.
Westminster at Santa Ana.

Seven more games to play in the second half of the second round of the National Night Ball League, and the season is over.

At the midway point it looks as if Anaheim was a sure winner for the second half, as this outfit is making the same runaway race of it that Santa Ana made in the first half.

Seems as if these two outfits are bidding for playoff and unless something very unexpected turns up to break Anaheim's stride, they will get it.

The Torrance Bluebirds, now that they have come out of their semi-france, have been making a pretty race for the top. Four wins in a row is not so bad, but at all bad, and Manager Spud Murphy is seeing visions of his team peached in the second berth, right under the winners when the round is over.

Should the Bluebirds take Santa Ana tomorrow night there is at least an even break for this desirable outfit.

Robbie Robinson pitched for the Bluebirds in both games, Friday against Whittier, which he won, 11 to 4, and Tuesday against Long Beach, which he won, 14 to 1.

Houghton Park Wins Slugfest From Merchants

Bombardment of Hits and Runs Marks Last Sunday Game at Lomita

George Stoval's Houghton Park nine trounced the Lomita Merchants last Sunday by a score of 16 to 10 at the Lomita home grounds, a total of 34 hits being made to account for the 26 runs.

Both teams used two pitchers, Hamilton starting for Lomita and being replaced by Yelovich, while Long Beach started with Hickson and finished with Greer.

Escobar, Lee, Wilcutt and Mann each got a homer, and other extra base hits were numerous.

Next Sunday the Merchants will meet Frank Hollis' Skippers at Wilmington.

Huge Stingaree Caught at Hermosa

HERMOSA BEACH.—The largest stingaree caught here in many years was caught off the pier here yesterday by Milt Hamlet of this city, according to Capt. J. M. Anderson, skipper of the big Olympic fishing barge.

Following a three-hour battle with the mammoth creature, Hamlet succeeded in landing it. Capt. Anderson weighed the strange looking creature on the scales which usually are employed for weighing Jewish fish. The stingaree weighed 125 pounds.

Anderson reports excellent fishing off the Olympic, with many record catches of halibut, yellow-tail, bonito and mackerel being brought in daily.

SPORTS

Are You Going to Leave Him Stalled?

Californians have one opportunity of helping the American Olympic team to victory in the games in Los Angeles opening on July 30. This is through the purchase of official 50-cent Olympic pins, through which the bulk of the expense fund for the training, traveling and equipment of the athletes is being raised.

With the American team scattered in various parts of the country where the tryouts are held, it is necessary to bring them to Los Angeles before they can be of any use to America's athletic hopes. Buy your pin at any Safeway or Piggly Wiggly store.

Many People Use County Playgrounds

There were more persons to use the county's recreation facilities during the first 10 days of July than for the entire month of June, according to figures released today by Supervisor John R. Quinn, head of the playgrounds activity.

During June, records show 1,328,874 persons attended the beaches and playgrounds, while for the first part of July there were 1,393,140 in attendance.

Puddingstone reservoir near Pomona handled 15,530 persons over the holidays while the Santa Monica Canyon state beach accommodated 360,500 persons. Alamitos Bay had 140,200 pleasure seekers and "Big Pines" recreation camp handled 31,750 visitors.

Sleepy In Eastern Golf Tournament

Oliver Sleepy, former Torrance man, is entered in the United States Public Links tournament to be held at Louisville, Kentucky, this week. A total of 215 golfers started Tuesday. Charles Ferrara, Santa Francisco, is the defending champion, with Joe Nichols, of Long Beach, last year's runner-up, also entered in the competition.

No Hit, No Run Game At Lomita Thursday

The Lomita Nightmen were blanked completely in their game with Cowan Bros. San Pedro team last Thursday night on the home grounds. With Willie Calandino pitching for the visitors only one Lomita man reached first base and that was on an error. Calandino turned in a no hit no run game, and struck out 13 men.

The visitors ran up a score of 14, with three home runs included in the total. Frank Luevano pitched for Lomita.

INVITATIONAL GOLF TOURNAMENT THIS WEEK

Qualifying rounds in the Palos Verdes golf club invitational tournament were under way yesterday and today with a large field entered. Match play starts tomorrow, with Al Gruber of Palos Verdes as defending champion. The tournament will close Sunday.

BALL GAME TONIGHT

The Lomita Nightmen will meet the Emseo Platon team of Los Angeles tonight at 8 o'clock at their ball park on Weston street.

NIGHT HAWKS TO PLAY

The Torrance Night Hawks will play a picked Torrance team at the local ball park tomorrow night. Game starts at 8 o'clock.

No admission will be charged for the games, but a collection will be taken to defray necessary expenses.

The winner of the ten-game series will be presented with a silver loving cup.

The Torrance line-up is Swain Johnson, catcher; Carl Pasmann, pitcher; Edwin Jarrett, third base; Chuck Williams, left field; Bob Wertz, center field; Hamm first base; Pete Zamperini, second base; Garland Johnson, shortstop; Earl Clayton, right field.

All these lads are under 20 years of age, and most of the boys in the teams making up the balance of the league are also under that age.

Next game Sunday at Redondo Beach, the following Sunday here, game called at 2 o'clock.
