CLUB WOMEN AT LONG BEACH

Among those from Torrance who attended the open forum of L. A. Federation of Women's Clubs at county council held at Long Beach Tuesday, were Mesdames W. J. Neelands, Archer Lewis, P. G. Briney, Willis M. Brooks, C. T. Rippy, Caroline Collins, A. W. Meizner, C. C. Schultz, G. B. Worcester, J. R. Jensen, O. W. Hudson, B. C. Buxton, Enos Kingsley and Mrs. Susie Renn. The program was opened by Mrs. Charles F. Van de Water, president who introduced Mrs. Charles S. McKelvey, district federation president. Mrs. McKelvey spoke briefly upon the 18th amendment. Mrs. McManus, chairman of the juvenile board, was the principal speaker at the morning session. She chose as her topic, "Problems of Juveniles." Following luncheon, Mab Copeland Lineman spoke briefly, using as her subject, "Reduction of Juvenile Expenses." Judge Ben Lindsey then spoke about divorce. He was followed by Kathleen Norris, the speaker of the afternoon, who gave a splendid talk upon law enforcement. The next meeting of the county council will be held at Catholic Woman's Club, 927 Menlo avenue, Los Angeles, Friday, November 18. The final meeting of the year will be held at Whittier, January 26. These forums are both educational and entertaining and are available to club women.

P. T. A. NOTES

The first meeting of P. T. A. was held at elementary school auditorium, Tuesday, with a large attendance. The meeting was in the nature of a reception to enable mothers and teachers to become acquainted. Many new mothers were present and there is every evidence that the organization will have an unusually successful year in this worthwhile work. A question box, conducted by W. M. Bell, was an especially interesting feature of the program. Thrift work as organized in schools was discussed by Miss Holland and safety work in relation to school life was the topic chosen by Mrs. Bradford. Announcement of a paper drive for old newspapers to be held October 7 was made at this time. A membership drive from October 1 to November 1 promises to be unusually successful. Room prizes this year will be awarded to classes having most mothers present who are members of P. T. A. rather than to those having most mothers present as heretofore.

ATTEND MEETING AT HOLLYWOOD RIVIERA
