BROTHERHOOD TO ENTERTAIN MONDAY

Members of Central Church Brotherhood will be hosts to members of the church and their friends when they entertain with a Halloween party for grownups at Guild hall on Arlington avenue, Monday evening, October 31. A cordial invitation is extended to come out and enjoy the evening. Costumes suitable for the occasion will be worn. As a party for children is being planned for a later date, it is suggested that no children be included on this occasion.

Hallowe'en Hilarities

TORRANCE LADIES AT LONG BEACH

Mrs. L. W. Ralston and Mrs. G. E. Rogers were delightfully entertained at an attractively arranged Halloween luncheon Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Dean Bowman at Long Beach. Bridge furnished entertainment for the afternoon, a high score award being presented to Mrs. Geschieder, while Mrs. Snook received a consolation. Guests included Miss Mabel Steinsecker, Mrs. Carl Geschieder, Mrs. Fred Crawford, Mrs. Allen Piersol, all of Long Beach, Mrs. William Snook of Santa Barbara, Mrs. Rheme Rooke of Altadena, Mrs. Rogers and Mrs. Ralston of Torrance.

"DEPRESSION" MASQUERADE DANCE

The Central school P. T. A. of Redondo Beach is sponsoring a large party at the Hallowe'en dance in the Mandarin ballroom next Monday night, October 31. The dance will be in the nature of a "Depression" masquerade, and a cash prize will be awarded by Manager Phil Tower for the costume best depicting the exigencies of the depression. There will also be prizes awarded for other types of costumes.

The logic tickets, which may be obtained from the P. T. A. members at the door, entitle the holder to dance all evening at very small cost, or if preferred, the patron may pay the usual small fee for each dance. Costumes and make-up are, of course, optional.

Everything necessary for Hallowe'en merrymaking will be supplied gratis by the management and the public is invited to celebrate the occasion in Redondo Beach.

W. B. A. TO ENTERTAIN

Members of Review No. 37, W. B. A., will entertain with a bridge and pinocle party to be held at Torrance Woman's club, Tuesday, November 8, beginning at 8:00 o'clock. A special feature of the party will be the broadcasting of election returns. Everyone is invited. Tallies at 25 cents may be secured at the door. Mrs. Watson, Mrs. Stadig and Mrs. Roekte are chairman of arrangements for the occasion.

WOMAN'S CLUB DINNER TOMORROW

Tomorrow, Friday evening, November 28, is the date for the initial bridge dinner of a series to be sponsored by the Torrance Woman's club at their clubhouse on Engracia avenue, beginning at 7:00 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Tickets at 50 cents may be secured from members. For further information call Mr. L. W. Ralston, 325-J.

BUXTONS CELEBRATE WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

The wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. B. C. Buxton provided the incentive for a delightfully intimate party when they entertained at dinner at their home on Arlington avenue Saturday evening. Beautiful baskets of fall flowers were used throughout the rooms and an attractively arranged bouquet of giant marigolds and white scabiosa was used as a centerpiece for the dining table. Covers were marked for Mr. and Mrs. Hartwell Barford and Mrs. Finnegan of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Turck and the hosts.

DOROTHY IS EIGHT

The eighth birthday of Dorothy Treloar furnished the incentive for a prettily appointed party at her home on Arlington avenue last Wednesday afternoon. Included were the honoree, and Barbara Lee Watson, Katherine Jeanne Turner, Shirley and Phyllis McVickers, Ann Kinnison, Girard, Myrtle and Geraldine McLean, Billy Jones, Irene Gilson, Winifred Smith and Gertrude Unger.

KATHERINE JEANE IS SIX

The sixth birthday of Katherine Jeanne Turner, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Turner, was celebrated by a delightfully appointed party at the Turner home on Andree avenue last Friday afternoon when 16 of her little friends were entertained. Hallowe'en decorations were used throughout and yellow and white chrysanthemums, flanked with lighted tapers, centered the table at which places were marked for the honoree, Katherine Jeanne, and Virginia Hall, Barbara Lee Watson, Buddie Hogue, Donnie and Harland Johnson, Geraldine and Roddie McLean, Dorothy Treloar, Ann Kinnison, Mary and Gussie Bray, Margorie and Margaret Tolson, Ruth Kenour and Winifred Phillips. Children's games were enjoyed for the balance of the afternoon.

American Legion Auxiliary News

The annual flag pageant of American Citizenship League will take place at Patriotic hall, Los Angeles, Tuesday, November 1, at 7:00 p. m. Banners and colors of posts and units of American Legion will take part. A feature of interest will be the awarding of prizes to successful contestants in the essay contest for boy and girl Scout. Everyone is welcome. L. C. Young, president of Citizenship League, will be chairman for the evening.

Don't forget the pancake supper to be held Wednesday, November 2, beginning at 5:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited. Tickets at 25 cents may be secured at the door.

American Legion and the auxiliary will attend services in a body at M. E. church, Sunday, November 6. Members are requested to assemble at the church at 10:45.

Tomorrow, Friday, October 28, at 3:15 p. m., the Juniors will enjoy a Hallowe'en party at the clubhouse with Mrs. Lewellen and Mrs. Barrington as hostesses. Each member is allowed one guest for this party.

There are still a few good tickets for Armistice Day football game available. These may be purchased at Sandy & Scott's, Dolley Drug Company or Beacon Drug Company.

Mr. and Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Vandervoort of Los Angeles were weekend guests of Mr. and Mrs. Delman Albright at their cabin at Crestline near Arrowhead.
