MARRIED AT ONE O'CLOCK IN MORNING

A wedding at 1:15 o'clock in the morning, by appointment with the judge, and in the presence of friends and relatives, was the unusual ceremony which united John A. Tolken and Mabel Barbara Lockhead at the home of Justice of the Peace John Dennis, 1621 Amapola avenue, on Monday, December 12. The date and hour of the marriage was set to coincide with the birthday of a sister of one of the contracting parties.

The bride, living at 668 Witmer street, Los Angeles, is a nurse, while the groom, residing at 530 West 64th street, is connected with the motion picture industry. Both are known locally.

TRIPLE T'S TOMORROW
Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Kelsey and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Haskell will be hosts for the next meeting of the Triple T's Dancing Club to be held at American Legion clubhouse tomorrow, Friday, evening. All members are cordially invited to attend.

WOODMEN HOLD ELECTION OF OFFICERS
Results of election of officers held by Modern Woodmen of America at their regular business meeting Thursday evening were as follows: W. T. Walker, president; J. A. Grafe, advisor; J. H. Samuel, past master; F. H. Racer, banker; C. A. Benzel, clerk; J. E. King, watchman; F. Sharts, secretary; G. H. Sapp, escort; J. H. Fess, George D. Hayward, L. M. Olsson, trustees. All visiting Woodmen are invited to attend these meetings which are held each Thursday.

M. E. AID CHRISTMAS PARTY
Following a short business meeting of M. E. Aid Society at the church parlors Tuesday afternoon, a delightful Christmas party was enjoyed. Mrs. T. D. Edmonds presented the program beginning with a vocal group by Mrs. Lorraine Ulrich, "Hail the Word of a Stranger" and "O, My Soul, Bless Thou Jehovah," accompanied by Mrs. Juliette Johnson at the piano. Piano solos by Gertrude Mowry, "Old Refrain" by Kreisler and "Trinity Chimes" by Decker, followed. The singing of Christmas carols completed the afternoon program.

ROTARY ANNS AT HASKELL HOME

Mrs. Floyd Haskell was hostess when she entertained members of the Rotary Anns at her home on Martina avenue, Tuesday evening. The rooms were attractively decorated with a profusion of cotton-wool berries and lighted tapers added a pleasing note. A bridge award was received by Mrs. Peckham. At the close of card play dainty refreshments were served by the hostess. Included were Mesdames F. M. Buffington, Harvel Guttenfelder, L. B. Kelsey, J. S. Lancaster, N. A. Leake, Sam Levy, George Peckham, F. L. Parks, J. W. Post, R. R. Smith and Grover C. Whyte.

BETSY ROSS NOTES

At luncheon tables attractively decorated with cotton-wool berries, Santa Clauses and lighted tapers, covers were set for 45 members of the Betsy Ross Club Monday. Following a short business session, at which Mrs. L. L. Fordice presided, Christmas carols were sung by the group. Mrs. E. N. Tomkins as chairman of arrangements was assisted by Mrs. Ulrich, Mrs. Herring, Mrs. York, Mrs. Gensler and Miss May Horrell. Honor guests at this luncheon included those having birthday anniversaries in December and those with names beginning with W, X, Y or Z. Dainties of Santa Clauses were used as favors for these guests.

MRS. FESS ENTERTAINS CLUB

Members of the Tuesday Afternoon Club were delightfully entertained by Mrs. J. H. Fess when they met at her home on Arlington avenue this week. Pointsettias were used throughout the rooms and a Christmas motif was carried out in menu and accessories. Awards for high bridge score were received by Mrs. Knudson and Mrs. Maxfield, while Mrs. Shriner received a consolation. Present were Mesdames John Dennis, W. West, Archer Lewis, J. O. Moore, Mae Sidebottom, Fred Knudson, J. F. Dalton, R. A. McFarland, L. L. Fordice, Jeanette Maxfield and Lillian Shriner.

PROGRESSIVE DINNER ENJOYED

A progressive dinner last Thursday evening proved diverting to a group of younger girls who met at the home of Alice Burger for the cocktail course and proceeded to the home of Doris Godward where soup was served. A salad at the home of Esther Terry was followed by the main course at Doris Jensen's home. Dessert at the home of Betty Jane Rous concluded the dinner. The girls were then entertained by Joy Fossum. Dancing was enjoyed at the Fossum home where the girls enjoyed an overnight party. Included were Misses Joy Fossum, Helen Smith, Jean Solomon, Betty Danford, of Los Angeles, Dorothy Jensen, Margaret Floyd Alice Burger, Doris Godward, Betty Jane Rous and Esther Terry.

POLLY ANNS MEET

Mrs. A. W. Meinzer was hostess when she entertained members of the Polly Anns at her home on Post avenue Friday afternoon. Pointsettias in attractive arrangement provided a Christmas setting for the party. Mrs. J. H. Fess and Mrs. Dunbar received prizes for high score at bridge, while Mrs. O. W. Hudson received a consolation. Included were Mesdames J. H. Fess, W. C. Andrews, H. L. Alcorn, F. W. Minck, Thomas Kendrick, Dunbar, T. D. Edmonds, W. C. Dolley, John Guyan, Ernest Perry and O. W. Hudson.

P. E. CHERIO CLUB NOTES

Members of the P. E. Cherio Club will meet at the home of Mrs. Frank Cramer, 1152 Andrea avenue, where they will enjoy a Christmas party tomorrow, Friday, evening, December 16, at 7:30 o'clock. Mrs. Cramer will be assisted by Mrs. W. G. Phillips as cohostess. All members are cordially invited to attend.

M. E. CIRCLES TO MEET

M. E. Circles will meet Tuesday afternoon, December 20, at 2:00 o'clock. Mrs. R. E. Hogue will entertain Circle No. 2 at her home on Gramercy avenue, while members of Circle No. 3 will meet at the home of Mrs. P. X. Weiss, 716 Border avenue.

GROUP AT LOS ANGELES

Mr. and Mrs. George Probert, accompanied by H. H. Dolley and Pat Purdue, attended the U. S. C. Notre Dame game Saturday afternoon and were joined by Mrs. Dolley and Mrs. Purdue at dinner at Los Angeles. A theatre party concluded the evening.

W. B. A. AT INITIATION CEREMONY

Nine members of W. B. A. attended the regular meeting of Review No. 9 at Inglewood last Tuesday evening. Torrance Review, No. 37, presented three candidates for initiation at this time. Mrs. Marion Kusba, Mrs. Verneita VanSkiver and Mrs. Esther Butler.

MOTHERS' EDUCATIONAL CENTER

Mothers of babies and small children are cordially invited to attend Mothers' Educational Center to be held at Torrance Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia, tomorrow morning, Friday, December 16.
