Warm Weather Sends Thousands To Beach

Unusually warm weather sent 33,993 persons to county beaches last week, according to the county recreation department. Check of attendance at the Redondo, Manhattan, Santa Monica and other beaches showed that 13,600 persons visited the beaches a week ago last Sunday, and 2770 of these entered the water for a January swim, county guards reported.

Keeping Up With Torrance High

The high school students received a letter through Mr. Waidelich from Mr. Post, expressing his gratitude to the students for their generous assistance in contributing to the Torrance Community Service Association.

Mr. Post made special mention in the letter of the circumstance which permits one hundred per cent benefit of the entire amount contributed to aid the unfortunate ones in need. The administration and distribution of the fund is done gratis.

Mr. Post ended by saying that the kindness and co-operation of the students, teachers and principal would be long remembered.

Last year the clubs of the school co-operated to give a vaudeville show the proceeds of which were used for the club's pictures in the annual. The price of admission was ten cents, and there was such a large crowd and such a successful show that plans are being made for a similar program this year.

The Scholarship Society entertained a luncheon for Mr. Waidelich Tuesday, January 17. Each member of the club brought 25 cents, and Mrs. Bell prepared a luncheon for them.

The next to the last basketball games were played with Gardena at Gardena. The C's and D's played at home on Thursday, January 12, and the A's and B's played on Friday, January 13.

The Senior edition of the T. N. T. will be out in a week. The pictures and habits of the graduating seniors will probably be used to great advantage.

Six seniors, three boys and three girls, took charge of the grammar school groups while the teachers were visiting the Fern street school on Monday, January 9, from 12:00 to 1:00.

The students and faculty of Torrance high contributed $152 to the Torrance Community Service Association. This was done by each student bringing as much as possible even though it was only a few pennies.

The Boys' League sponsored a moving picture which was given through the courtesy of the Gilmore Oil Company. The picture was called, "An Empire of Grandeur," and gave interesting scenes along the International highway from Alaska to Panama and featured Mexico and Central America.

The points of interest were stressed by Mr. Boyd, who was sent out with the picture. The picture was shown on Thursday, January 12, and because of the subject of the picture, the girls were invited too.

The last basketball game of the season is tomorrow, January 20, with Jordan, in the Torrance high gym. It will no doubt be a thrilling game because it is the last one, and the boys will be playing as hard as possible for a victory in the last game of the season.

The members of the graduating class of winter '33 are certainly optimistic, for there will be THIRTEEN. But then, 13 may be their lucky number, and anyway, they all have the blessings of the classmates they're leaving behind.

A number of the girls are going to attend the playday at Narbonne today, January 19. There will be a basketball, volley ball and hockey team and two girls for tennis.

The Torrance Bears, fast Mexican aggregation from the Pueblo, who have cleaned up a lot of high class teams during the past couple of years, won another ball game Sunday, when they defeated San Pedro Stars, 6-4.

Narbonne Girls Are Hostesses At A Playday Three Local Schools Invited to Participate in Sports

The Narbonne Girls' Athletic Association will act as hostess at a playday which is to be given Thursday afternoon, January 19, on the girls' athletic field. The schools invited to participate are Torrance, Gardena and Banning.

After the games a series of relays are to be held, directed by Mary Likens, Helen Bartoll, Helen Gough, Chloell Aikman and Merrill Pankey. The Gauchettes will then take their guests to the cafeteria where refreshments of sandwiches and punch are to be served.

Later a short program will be presented in the gymnasium. It will include a modernized version of "Hamlet," entitled "Hamlet or Eggs," in which parts have been assigned as follows: Hamlet, Maxine Mucklow; Polonius, Geneva Backus; King, Lois Haslam; Ophelia, Alice Marlin; Laertes, Mary Likens; Queen, Helen Hobbs; and Horatio, Dorothy Leavson.

Songs will be led by Alice Marlin and Maxine Mucklow; and yells by Helen Hobbs and Phyllis Watton. Dancing will conclude the afternoon's fun.

The Gauchettes have been out practicing daily. Teams are being chosen by Miss Mason and Mrs. McKee, physical ed. teachers; and Miss Ernst, the playground instructor.

Receivership By Cities Plan of New Officer

Seventy-five members and guests of the Association of City Planners sat down to luncheon at Earl's Cafe Saturday afternoon, January 14, at the first meeting of the group to be held in the new year.

Mayor W. T. Klusman of Torrance welcomed the guests, and Mayor John T. Clark of Redondo Beach responded.

President A. E. Stockburger, city manager of Alhambra, the principal speaker, offered a novel plan, his own conception, for the relief of distressed property owners, wherein all properties now delinquent should be turned over to the municipalities in which they are located, the cities to act as receivers until such time as the owners might redeem them.

The group voted unanimously to protest any attempt to divert state motor tax funds from the road department to any other purpose, and asked that one-half a cent of the motor tax funds be returned to the municipalities on the basis of automobile registration.

Officers for the following year were chosen at the business meeting and are as follows: President, Eldon Zanon; vice president, Milton Everett; secretary, Ula Paisley; treasurer, Kenneth Foss. A prosperous year should result.

New Plays And Passing Attack Win For Knights

McLean's Aggregation Run Up Big Score Against Three Opponents

Mike McLean's Black Knights ran up a total of 155 points against three opponents last week, defeating the Venes evening high school on Thursday night, 48-17, Don's Smoke Shop on Friday, 50-12, and Redondo Flotam Five of San Pedro, 59-14, on Monday, January 16.

The Knights opened up a new set of plays, and made use of a powerful passing attack which overwhelmed their competitors and left them gasping for breath at the end of each quarter.

On Friday the Knights will play the Security Trust and Savings Bank of Long Beach, a super-fast outfit which has won a number of games and was defeated recently by La Verne College only by a meager two points.

Baker Smith's Jewelers and Roman Barbers of San Pedro will play the curtain raiser tomorrow night. All basketball fans are invited to these games, which are free to the public.
