To Our Friends and Patrons:
 Some Plain Facts On a Delicate Subject . . .
 We deem it very unethical to encroach upon your hour of bereavement to solicit your order for floral tribute, the minute a death has been announced. However, we do greatly appreciate your business and hope you will continue to cooperate with us. If you do not wish to order in person at our place of business or by phone, at your request, we will courteously send a representative to your house without any obligation on your part.
 Yours for Service,

THERE'S A STYLE IN HOLEPROOF HOSIERY
 FOR EVERY MOTHER!
 Remember your mother with something personal on this day of days. A gift box of Holeproof Hosiery, for instance, containing the kind of stockings she likes. Something conservative like "Foggy" and "Clear" in a medium weight if she's so inclined . . . something dashing like "Sun-up" and "Sun-down" in a cobweb sheerness if she's young and fashion conscious. Whatever her tastes, you'll find just what suits her best . . . in Holeproof.

Keeping Up With Torrance High
 With the Torrance high school vocational orchestra furnishing the music, the senior A's and B's held their big "hard times" party in the high school gymnasium, Friday, May 5.
 The gymnasium had straw scattered on its floors, wagon wheels were placed around, lanterns and old horse collars finished the decorations. At a late hour refreshments were served. Dancing was the main entertainment of the evening.
 The faculty was represented by Principal and Mrs. A. G. Walden, Mrs. Lois Engel and the two senior advisors, Mrs. Stella Young and Herbert B. Andrews. Seniors who attended the affair include: Messrs. Bill Parke, Henry Bruhan, J. J. Jaspard, Melvin Howard, Bob Carson, George Figueredo, Myron Nightingale, John Phillips, Chikara Kazama, Fred Currier, Paul Geje, Swayne Johnson, Louis Brizanti, Alfred Koboyashi, Raymond Schumaker, Wendell Leatheman, Francis Laven, John Hilpert, William Laven, Francis Carnahan, Earl Doner, James McLean, Harry Green, Raymond Rogers, Carl Fressel, Herman Hamman, and Misses Hortense Price, Gargie Higgins, Mary Whalin, Mae Guy, Jean Wheaton, Vivian Young, Sophie Grasso, Jessie Mae McCray, Pauline Faller, Gertrude Peterson, Mildred Austin, Irene Falk, Valeria Tucker, Ethel Slepoy, Helen McMaster, Pauline Rose Eby, Cecelia Ernst, Rose Higgins, Hazel Briney, Lucille Thompson, Betty Rohr, Lillian Smith, Aldine Brown.
 Because of the fact that the auditorium was ruled unsafe by engineers, the coming June graduation class will be the first one to graduate elsewhere. It has been suggested that the graduation exercises be held in one of the patios.
 If the graduation is held outdoors, it is probable that the class will wear caps and gowns. At present the senior A's are divided on the subject of caps and gowns, and at a former meeting the matter was laid on the table pending the investigation of the condition of the auditorium.
 The night school has been holding a tennis tournament this week. It has been open to everybody above high school age, regardless of whether they are enrolled in night school. More tournaments are to be held in the future, it has been announced.

HERE and THERE with the GIRL SCOUTS
 By Rosanna Henley

TROOP 1
 Three girls won the same number of points toward the April award, so the prize was evenly divided among them. The three girls who were awarded tenderfoot pins were Tsuyoko Pukal, La Verne Spears and Jean Traver.
 Saturday a group of Scouts met at the high school and went up to Palos Verdes to hike. They ate lunch on a grassy hillside, overlooking the Dicalite corporation grounds. The girls thoroughly enjoyed hunting and identifying flowers and shrubs, and finding and following trails.

TROOP 79
 The Girl Scouts of Troop 79 had their annual "mothers' tea" last Thursday. The mothers and honor guests were met at the door by the hostesses, and each given a corsage of roses. The honor guests were Miss Madeline Murphy, Mrs. Dalton and Captain Miller. De-

Mothers' Program At Men's Bible Class
 A Mothers' Day program will be given by the Men's Bible class Sunday morning at 9:30 o'clock at the Torrance Theatre.
 The program will include a violin duet by Charles and Walter Merrick; vocal solo by Miss Swanson, accompanied by Mrs. Edmonds.
 All mothers, wives and sweethearts of the members are invited to attend.
Dry Land Yields Large Crop
O'NEILL, Neb. (U.P.)—Although untrigged, a plot of land here, in which six quarts of onions were set, yielded at an estimated rate of 225 bushels per acre.
 Delicious refreshments were served by the girls. A good time was had by all.
 Today will be Captain McDonald's last meeting for at least a month. She and Mr. McDonald are going to North Dakota to visit Mrs. McDonald's parents.
 Miss Murphy has kindly consented to take charge of the troop in Mrs. McDonald's absence.
