Officers of Keystone Woman's Club Installed

Beautiful roses of varied hues, greenery and other adornment bloomed at the home of Mrs. J. H. Crumrine, president of the Woman's Club of Keystone, on Moneta street, Wednesday afternoon, May 10, when the final meeting of the club year was held. The delicious luncheon served by the hostess at 12:30 preceded the regular business session. Mrs. Crumrine presided and called for the annual reports of the following board members and chairmen: Welfare, Mrs. J. S. Sleppy; first vice president, Mrs. Thomas Cowan; corresponding secretary, Mrs. J. R. Hilpert; American home, Mrs. E. E. Banks; co-operation with World War veterans, Mrs. S. C. Sault; federation secretary, Mrs. George Nahmens; press and radio, Mrs. R. V. Kooler; historian, Mrs. Forsythe, and president, Mrs. Crumrine.

A beautiful installation ceremony marked the activities of the afternoon when Mrs. Willis M. Brooks of Torrance inducted into office the newly elected executive board including Mrs. Thomas Cowan, president; Mrs. J. R. Hilpert, first vice president; Mrs. S. C. Sault, second vice president; Mrs. Fay Bailey, treasurer; Mrs. Charles M. Forrest, recording secretary; Mrs. C. E. Harshman, corresponding secretary; Mrs. J. S. Sleppy, auditor. In wishing continued success for the club and the newly installed officers Mrs. Brooks presented the organization with a new gavel. Mrs. Cowan responded most appreciatively.

Gifts were presented to Mrs. Sleppy for her efficient welfare work and Mrs. Harshman for her service to the club. Vocal duets were sung by Mesdames E. L. Gibson and E. P. Howe of Lomita, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. S. S. McKee of Harbor City. Other guests of the day were Mrs. Charles F. Van de Water of Long Beach, president of the Los Angeles County Federation of Women's Clubs, Mrs. M. Watson and Mrs. E. M. Johnson of Torrance.

Mrs. Van de Water addressed the club briefly on the important step that women have taken in the country through unity. In closing her timely remarks she said, "Let us be civic-minded, club-minded, internationally-minded and above all else, spiritually-minded." Beautiful bouquets were presented to the speaker and the installing officer.

Deep appreciation was expressed by Mrs. Crumrine for the co-operation of the members during the year past as she presented the club gavel to Mrs. Cowan, her successor. In accepting the gavel and the responsibility of her office, Mrs. Cowan said that she hoped for continued co-operation for without it, the club could not exist. As a token of esteem the club presented Mrs. Crumrine with a past president's pin.

Arrangements are complete for a card party in American Legion hall, Monday evening, May 21. Tickets will sell at 25 cents. Jenn Patterson is chairman for the affair.

Our Juniors are holding their installation of officers Friday evening, May 26, at 7:30 o'clock. They have issued a special invitation to the senior organization to be their guests.

Wreaths for veterans' graves at the Roosevelt Memorial cemetery will be made at the Woodington home late next week.

MRS. NEELANDS IS GUEST OF HONOR
Yellow and pink formed the color scheme for a charming luncheon party which, May 21, ladies and members of the Woman's Club executive board entertained in honor of their president, Mrs. W. H. Neelands, at the home of Mrs. O. W. Hudson, 1753 Andree avenue, Wednesday afternoon.

During the luncheon, Miss Myrtle Melzer gave two piano selections. She played, "Waltz in Eight" by Engelking, and "Fascination Waltz" by Vachas. Miss Hogue gave several readings in Italian which were well received.

A beautiful gift was presented to the honoree and prizes at bridge awarded to Mesdames A. Lewis, C. T. Rippey and G. B. Worcester. Those who attended were Mrs. Frank Sammons of Van Nuys, Mrs. Edna Stone of Long Beach, Mrs. Caroline Collins, Mrs. J. S. Lancaster, Mrs. Willis Brooks, Mrs. Fay Parks, Mrs. Chas. Schultz, Mrs. Sam Levy, Mrs. F. Jamieson, Mrs. Isabel Henderson, Mrs. A. Johnson, Mrs. W. Gilbert, Mrs. A. Lewis, Mrs. A. Price, Mrs. L. Ralston, Mrs. A. W. Meinzer, Mrs. C. T. Rippey, Mrs. G. B. Worcester and Mrs. O. W. Hudson.

HERE and THERE with the GIRL SCOUTS

By Rosanna Henley

TROOP 1

At the last meeting of the girls of Troop 1 held their annual Mother's Tea. Daphne Landreth and Eva Mize were on the reception committee, and they introduced the mothers and presented each with a corsage of Cecile Bruner roses.

First the girls had their opening circle and sang several songs. Some of the girls told what the Scout laws mean to them and to all the other Girl Scouts. Next a play called, "Jean and Joy Talk Tramping," was given by Tsuyoko Fukai and Daphne Landreth. The girls concluded the program with their closing circle. Rosanna Henley took charge of the program. Delicious refreshments were prepared and served by the girls.
