

Three Carloads of Explosives Used In Film, "Hell Below; June 4-5

ROBERT MONTGOMERY and WALTER HUSTON in "HELL BELOW"

HOSPITAL NOTES

Motion pictures today buy almost as much gunpowder as an army.

Battle scenes, special effects, and such details at the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer studios used up nearly three carloads of high explosives, in addition to thousands of rounds of ammunition for realistic war backgrounds.

The ammunition was used in the filming of "Hell Below," sensational drama of submarine warfare which will be shown at the Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday, June 4-5, with Robert Montgomery, Walter Huston, Madge Evans, Jimmy Durante, Eugene Pallette and Robert Young heading an imposing cast.

A battle between a naval fleet and a fortified town, with more than two hundred pieces of artillery in action, is the great thrill in the climax. A submarine driven by Montgomery "rams" the fort, explodes and blocks a harbor full of destroyers. Each of the two hundred large caliber guns used in the battle fired about 20 shots.

There are also battles between anti-aircraft guns and planes, and ships are torpedoed by submarines. Some of the most remarkable action was filmed under water, the cameras registering submarines from the portholes of other under-sea boats.

Tom Cornelius, 18-year-old son of O. W. Cornelius, 216 Avenue C, Redondo Beach, is being cared for following an automobile accident May 25, in which the young man received a serious injury. His lower jaw bone was scraped and the muscles of his neck were torn and cut from ear to ear.

June Curtis, age 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Curtis, of the Norman Arms apartments, was brought to the hospital this week following a tonsilectomy performed in San Pedro.

Miss Bertha Fix, office technician for Dr. Spencer at Redondo Beach, underwent an operation for the removal of her appendix on May 26.

Charles Kissinger, 1887 Gramercy, underwent an emergency appendix operation, May 27.

Births

To Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brown, 1040 West Gardena boulevard, Gardena, a daughter, May 26.

To Mr. and Mrs. Gregg McBride, 2584 1/2 Oak street, Lomita, a son, on May 27.

To Mr. and Mrs. S. H. O'Brien, 1814 25th street, Lomita, a daughter, on May 29.

Free Tickets to See "King Kong" At the Fox Redondo Theatre

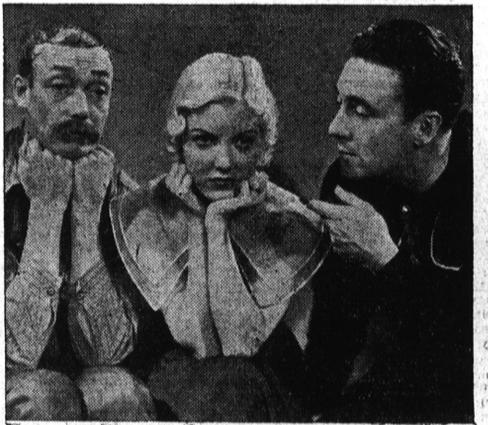

King Kong at bay, atop the world's largest building.

For the first five school children who turn in the best jobs of coloring the above picture of King Kong, the Fox Redondo Theatre will give each a ticket to see "King Kong," which starts a four-day engagement at the Fox Redondo Theatre at the midnight show, Saturday, June 3, and continues Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

In addition to the free tickets, each of the first five children will be given a jigsaw puzzle of King Kong, free of charge.

"Smoke Lightning," Showing at the Torrance Theatre, Fri.-Sat., June 2-3

Jail Sentence Meted to Wallace

Harry A. Wallace, who was accused of assault upon Alvin Roberts, a taxi driver, in Lomita, must serve eight months in the county jail, by order of Superior Judge Fletcher Bowron. Wallace was held for trial in the higher court following a preliminary hearing before Justice John Dennis several weeks ago. The assault took place last December 18, at 1530 Lucile street, it was stated, when he assertedly shot Roberts in the thigh.

Dodge-Plymouth Sales Set High Record in April

Since the 1933 series of Dodge and Plymouth were announced, Plymouth has earned third position and Dodge fourth position nationally in sales for the month of April, according to C. Fred Kerr, Gardena Dodge and Plymouth dealer. "This demand for the new Dodge and Plymouth has given us what we believe to be the largest used car stock between Los Angeles and Long Beach. In our used car and elsewhere in this paper we list only a few of our many used car bargains," Kerr stated.

"Adorable," at Torrance Theatre, Tues., Wed., Thurs., June 6-7-8

Litling romance takes a strong spurt in the Fox production, "Adorable," with Janet Gaynor and Henry Garat, international film stars, heading the cast.

For the first time in more than two years, Janet Gaynor is "all dressed up" in "Adorable," her latest Fox Film production in which she is co-starred with Henry Garat, charming young international favorite, coming next week, Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday, to the Torrance Theatre.

Not since "Sunny Side Up," in which she played the role of a working girl who was introduced to exclusive Long Island society, has she had a role with a wardrobe that could compare with the two dozen elaborate costumes she wears in her new delightfully romantic comedy with music.

She has elaborate ensembles for the street, for skating, tea gowns, dinner gowns, ball gowns and breath-taking negligees which a princess would envy.

FREE MOONEY MEETING

A "Free Mooney" meeting will be held at the Open Forum hall, 2015 Voorssanger avenue, North Redondo Beach, tomorrow evening. The meeting is open to the public. Stanley Waters of Ingewood will be the speaker.

Heavy Bail Fixed In Robbery Case

Don Berry, former Keystone resident, who was brought back from San Francisco recently where he had been arrested at the request of Los Angeles county sheriff's office, on a charge of robbery, was given a preliminary hearing before Judge Louis Kaufman of Dominguez township on May 29, and was held to the superior court for trial. Bail was fixed at $10,000, in default of which Berry was committed to the county jail.

Berry's companion, implicated in the affair, has not yet been apprehended.

Egg Within Egg Discovered Here

Mrs. L. C. Miller is of the opinion that some Torrance hens (feathered variety) have been looking over Ripley's "Believe It or Not" cartoons, as a few days ago when she was breaking eggs for cooking she came upon one which contained a smaller egg within its shell. The small egg has a soft shell, is oval in shape, and is about an inch long and three-quarters of an inch in diameter. The eggs among which this oddity was discovered were purchased from Will Dobrick's poultry ranch.
