

Fremont Boy Wins Spelling Contest

John Young, Fremont high school entrant in the spelling contest finals held at Bovard auditorium Tuesday evening, won the scholarship offered by the University of Southern California by outspelling all other contestants, 33 in number. Miss Vivian Young, Torrance entrant, was eliminated on the third round but received one of the gold medals given to each student who took part.

CHAS. LEBOEUF ILL.

Charles LeBoeuf, Keystone resident, is at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital for medical treatment and possible operation for relief of a kidney ailment. Mr. LeBoeuf, an employee of the Platt Music Company, was formerly a teller at the First National Bank in Torrance.

Senior Play At Narbonne Cure For Blues

Select Cast Presents Rollicking Comedy In Three Acts

"Pigs," a rollicking three-act comedy that is guaranteed to squelch any attack of the "blues," will be presented by the Narbonne seniors Friday night, June 16, under the direction of Mrs. Myrtle Schwartz. The presentation will begin at 8 p. m. There are to be no reserved seats, but instead all seats will be sold for the small sum of 25 cents.

Malcolm Thistle, a senior A, has been cast in the leading role of Tommy Atkins, Jr., who claims that he can cure any animal that is sick. He wants to buy some pigs that have cholera, claiming that he can cure them and get rich, but the one flaw in his plans is getting the money to buy them. Some amusing situations arise from Tommy's dilemma. Just how he finally succeeds will be revealed Friday night.

Jean McLellan will play the part of Mildred Cushing, Junior's unrecognized fiancée. Jean played a leading part in last year's junior play, and according to members of the dramatics class, will be a "knock-out" in "Pigs."

Other members of the cast have been chosen as follows:

- Thomas Atkins, Sr., a none-too-successful lawyer, Ethan Schmidt.
- Hector Spencer, the brother-in-law, Vincent Weber.
- Grandma Spencer, the mother-in-law, Yvonne Neshime.
- Ellen Atkins, the wife, Margaret Robinson.
- Spencer Atkins, the elder son, Claude Omohundro.
- Lenore Hastings, always in love, Doris Vroman.
- Smith Hastings, her father, Robert Stock.
- Dr. Springer, a veterinary, Alva Hawks.

Future Farmers Awarded Prizes

Four Torrance agricultural students, Future Farmers of America, competed in the district and regional projects held in the Southern region this spring and two of them were prize winners in their departments.

Seventy-eight projects were entered in the competition with representation from schools all over Southern California.

For Torrance, Cornelius Peet took second in bee-keeping and was awarded a ribbon. Paul Batovsky took first in the home beautification project, winning a ribbon, belt and buckle. Batovsky also took first in the home made or repaired implement class, and won much favorable comment among the judges for his lawn renovator.

Other boys who entered were John Phillips, entered in the field crops project, and Jim Ryan in poultry.

UNEMPLOYED PICNIC AT BANNING PARK
Unemployed units of the county will meet at Banning park, Wilmington, for an all-day picnic, Sunday, June 25, with a basket lunch served at noon. The county council will serve coffee, cream and sugar free, all those who attend bringing their own lunch. A feature of the entertainment will be a concert in the afternoon by the Cleveland Boys band, of San Pedro.
