ALICE BURGER APPEARS AT BANQUET

Alice Burger delivered her oration on World Friendship at a banquet recently given by the Los Angeles Council of International Relations. The banquet was held in the Mona Lisa Cafe at Los Angeles.

Professors of University of Southern California are members of this council and Torrance should feel honored at having one of their high school students appear on their program.

Special guests at the banquet were Professor Behlmer of the Philharmonic, and Miss Carrie, assistant superintendent of the Los Angeles schools.

Alice delivered her oration in her usual pleasing and forceful manner and was highly complimented on both the composition and delivery. Professor Westover, dean of law at the University of Southern California, invited Alice to deliver the same oration at the Junior Council of International Relations when it meets at his Pasadena home later in the summer.

Appearing on the same program was Kenneth Jampol of Roosevelt high school, and Dr. Starbuck of the University of Southern California, who presented a travel talk illustrating with slides.
