"Melody Cruise" Spicy Musical Film Offered At Lomita Sunday

In a luxurious stateroom on a great ocean liner, a philandering husband is in the snare of two chorus beauties. A heavenly situation—until the bosom friend of his wife found out about it!

Such is one of the breezy predicaments confronting Charlie Ruggles in RKO-Radio Pictures' musical movie, "Melody Cruise," coming to the Lomita Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, September 17, 18 and 19, with Phil Harris, Greta Nissen and Helen Mack also in the featured roles.

Ruggles' problem is but a highlight of the frivolous tale. Harris, playing his millionaire playboy friend, insures his immunity from marriage by describing Ruggles' profligacies to his wife in a letter which is to be opened only in case of his marriage. Ruggles, liable for Harris' marriage, promotes embarrassing situations when his friend actually falls in love. Eventually, he fails, but encounters his greatest hardship in trying to retrieve the revealing letter from his wife.

Others cast are June Brewster and Shirley Chambers as the two chorus girls; Chick Chandler; Marjorie Gatenon as the wife; and Florence Roberts as the sniping friend of the wife. Mark Sandrich directed "Melody Cruise" with a musical accompaniment which embodies four new melodies especially written for the picture by Val Burton and Will Jason, composers of the famous "Penthouse Serenade."

Coming Sunday to Torrance

West of Singapore

Clyde Cook and Betty Compton in that thrilling melodrama of the Malay jungles, "West of Singapore," coming to the Lomita Theatre Friday and Saturday, September 15 and 16.

Midnight Show Is Patronized By Large Crowd

Success of Experiment So Gratifying That It Will Be Repeated

The Lomita Theatre's first midnight matinee went over so successfully last Saturday night that Manager J. D. Baker has decided to repeat the experiment and is now working on his program for the night of September 30, when an equally entertaining show will be presented with some new features added.

A large crowd attended the show last Saturday night.

The big feature of the next midnight show, in addition to an attractive film, will be the big bathing beauty contest, in which local beauties will take part. Valuable prizes and gifts will be distributed to the winners. All local girls and young women who wish to take part in the contest should get in touch with Mr. Baker at the theatre at once.

Judges of the affair will be prominent people from Lomita and Torrance, whose names will be announced later.

In the meantime, the Lomita Theatre will continue to offer its usual program of high class films and vaudeville entertainment. "There's nothing too good for the patrons of the Lomita Theatre."

Real Action

Thrilling rides, a sensational rescue, hand to hand combat, are some of the thrills in "The Honor of the Mounted," with Tom Tyler and Gila Ryland, at the Lomita Theatre Friday and Saturday, September 15 and 16.

Unique Musical Offering Heads Vaudeville Bill

Another Splendid Stage Show Tuesday, Wednesday At Torrance

Tuesday and Wednesday will see another splendid stage show at the Torrance Theatre. The program has been arranged and theatre-goers who have been making a weekly habit of these stage attractions are assured of seeing a bill that has variety and entertainment.

First of all there will be that unique musical offering, presenting Maximo, the celebrated entertainer and singer, with the Seven International Sheikhs, in an act that is in reality a show in itself. These boys are remarkable musicians, each of them plays a stringed instrument and plays it extremely well. Their ensemble numbers are exceptional and with the boys introducing comedy and novelty numbers the act is one of unusual diversion.

That well-known New York musical comedy star, Sol Brilliant, with the assistance of Myra, dainty soubrette, offers a wildfire comedy and dance presentation which he calls "Stick to Your Horn." Davis and McCoy will appear in a musical comedy sketch which is filled with song and dance and completing the stage show will be Gene Du Pree in an extremely interesting novelty.

The feature picture will be "Voltaire," with George Arliss in his finest character part ever portrayed on the screen.
