

Fall Style Review At Woman's Club Wed.

Torrance Woman's Club, in conjunction with Sam Levy, will present a style review and card party in the Woman's clubhouse, 1422 Engracia avenue, Wednesday evening, October 18. An exclusive line of ready-to-wear clothing for women and children will be shown and clothes for sports wear, street wear, after-noon and evening clothes, will be modeled by local and professional models.

Misses Broughton and Chandler of the Los Angeles Ready-to-Wear Wholesale House, will model clothes especially designed for them. Local models will include Mrs. Marie McCrae, Miss Evelyn Hayes, Miss Ethel Ward. Children appearing in the review will include Vera Jane Lowen, Aileen Maskrey, Nancy Ann Whyte, Jane Scott, Jeannette Probert, Jean Lancaster, Norma Levy, Elsie May Meiner and Patty Lou Rogers. Music for the show will be furnished by Mrs. Juliette Johnson, piano, and Walter Zuber, violin. After the style show there will be a bridge play, prizes will be awarded and refreshments will be served. Members of the executive board are in charge of the affair with Mrs. O. W. Hudson as chairman.

DINNER PARTY

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. West, 1639 21st street, entertained an informal group with a dinner party at their home Sunday evening. Their guests included Mr. and Mrs. Eddie Barlow, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Babcock, Mrs. A. L. Bozeman and W. J. Morgan.

BRIDGE AND FORTUNES

A profusion of autumn flowers added to the atmosphere, when Mrs. Mae Siedobotham, 1519 Narbonne avenue, Lomita, entertained with a benefit bridge. A group of these parties are being given at homes of members of the Order of Eastern Star during October. Fifteen tables were prettily arranged. After the refreshments Mr. served each member had her future read by a very accomplished reader who was stationed in Mrs. Siedobotham's traveling house which was parked in the driveway of her home. This, however, did not disrupt the card play as Mrs. Fred Knudsen, co-hostess with Mrs. Siedobotham, and Mrs. Siedobotham filled in for members while they were having their fortunes read. Prizes for bridge were awarded to Mesdames Harley Haynes, John Fess and Fay Parks.

HOUSE GUESTS

Misses Rose Ebbert and Hilma Fransen, 2252 Carson street, had as their house guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Paul of Beverly Hills.

SHOWER HONORS

MRS. WEST

Relatives of Mrs. James A. West gave a potluck luncheon and shower in her honor at the home of Mrs. James W. West, 231st street, Wednesday. Thirty persons were present and presented Mrs. West with a number of lovely gifts.

P. T. A. NOTES

Mrs. J. O. Bishop, 2021 Carson street, president of Torrance Elementary Parent Teachers Association, announces that the drive for members is in full swing and especially asks that all parents join at once. Friday, October 13, is the day of the first paper drive. Money derived from this drive will greatly assist the organization in its welfare work.

MRS. BURGER ENTERTAINS

Mrs. Lester Burger, 1104 Cedar avenue, was hostess when she entertained teachers of the junior department of the Methodist church school with a luncheon at her home Friday. Those who attended were Mesdames W. H. Sinclair, Leonard Snyder, D. Bartlett, John Keefe, George Morgan and D. C. Turner.

RADIO STAR TO ENTERTAIN

Membership will be the theme of the next dinner meeting of the National Business and Professional Women's Club, to be held at the Christian church parlors Tuesday evening, October 17. Mrs. Stella Alkire of Los Angeles will be the speaker, and entertainment will be provided by Torrance's baby movie star, Eugene Butler, and Miss Bunola Kay, of KNX radio fame. At the last business meeting Miss Caroline Stroh was elected treasurer, replacing Miss Grace Fennel, who resigned the office. Much favorable comment is heard about the newly decorated apartments at the Mayfair, 2014 Torrance Blvd.—Adv.

CELEBRATE 12TH BIRTHDAY

Women of the Methodist Woman's Aid Society celebrated their 12th birthday with a luncheon in the church Tuesday. Eighty persons attended the affair. Tables were attractively arranged and decorated with bowls of cosmos and birthday favors. Large baskets of dahlias were placed about in the church and vestibule. Mrs. Frank Warren, first president of the society, cut the birthday cake. Past presidents and charter members were introduced by the president, Mrs. John Keefe. Mrs. Keefe introduced Mrs. Kemp J. Winkler, who acted as toast-mistress in her usual charming manner. Arthur James Maskrey delighted the audience with a clever reading. Mrs. Kenneth Folsom of Riverside, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Hoyt, also of Riverside, sang, "Star of My Life." Mrs. R. A. Young, formerly of Torrance, but now living at Riverside, was the speaker of the afternoon. Mrs. Young took as her subject, "Christ and the New Woman." In her talk she visualized women all through the ages until the present time. Her address was most interesting. Congratulations from Pastor Kemp J. Winkler and the singing of "Trees" by Mrs. Folsom closed the social afternoon.

ATTEND FOOTBALL GAME

Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Wilkes, 1511 Amapola, and Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Burmaster, 1512 Amapola avenue, attended the University of Southern California-Washington State football game in Los Angeles, Saturday.

BIRTHDAY HONORS TWO

Mrs. Arthur Burmaster and Mrs. Herbert Robinson were co-hostesses, when they entertained at the Burmaster home, 1512 Amapola avenue, Saturday evening. The affair celebrated the birthdays of their husbands and was a complete surprise for them. Bridge and bunks were in play and prizes for high scores at bridge were awarded to Mr. and Mrs. Thomas King; low prizes to Mrs. J. R. Wilkes and Harry Higgins. Prizes for bunks were awarded to Miss Gertrude Gensler, Miss Florence McEasters, Dewey Fix and J. R. Wilkes. Other guests included Mrs. Harry Higgins, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Pierson and Johnny Weiss.

MELVIN BENNER HAS BIRTHDAY

Melvin Benner, young son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Benner, 1309 Manuel, celebrated his birthday Sunday with a party to which a number of his little friends were invited. Melvin's birthday is shared by two other members of his family, his grandfather, J. Benner, "Colonel"; and his cousin, J. R. Stroh, son of Police Sergeant and Mrs. John D. Stroh, of this city, all three born on the same day of the month. His guests on Sunday were J. A. Barrington, Frances Barrington, Marshall Condon, Harry Raymond, J. R. Stroh, Billie Johnson, Anne McManally, Elynn Gellatly, and his sister, Ruby Benner. Games and refreshments made the hours pass very pleasantly for the young guests.

HOUSE WARMING FOR PASTOR

Rev. Murray Clayton, pastor of St. Andrew's Episcopal church, was surprised last Friday evening by a group of 22 men of his congregation honored him with a house warming at his home, 1221 Arlington avenue.

MINNESOTA VISITOR

Mr. and Mrs. Reid McCray, 1614 Beach avenue, have as their house guest, Mrs. McCray's sister, Mrs. Fred Wilson, of Minneapolis. A bunk and 500 party will be held next Friday evening at the home of the trip by motor, will start for her home next Tuesday. Miss Jessie McCray, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Reid McCray, will make the return trip with Mrs. Wilson and visit in Minnesota during the winter.

HOUSE GUESTS

Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Murphy, 1423 Amapola avenue, had as their house guests over the week-end, Mrs. Fred Smith, Mrs. Murphy's mother, and Mrs. R. Bruton of Los Angeles.

WOMEN'S BENEFIT LUNCHEON

Members of the Women's Benefit Association will give a bridge luncheon in the Torrance Recreation hall, 1951 Carson street, Tuesday, October 17, at 12:30 o'clock. Everyone is invited to attend and may secure reservations from members.

HERE and THERE with the GIRL SCOUTS

By JEAN TRAVER

TROOP 1

During summer vacation the Scouts lost their reporter, Rosanna Henley, who moved to North Long Beach. The first five days of September the Scouts of Troop 1 went to Glenn ranch. Captain Miller and Mrs. Landreth accompanied the following girls: Daphne Landreth, Tsuyoko Fukai, Rosanna Henley, Dorothy Henley, Leonora Schroeder, Pauline Ely, Betty Webb, Ermanell Smith, Mildred Lane and Jean Traver. We slept on the ground underneath the stars, cooked outdoors and enjoyed ourselves very much. On the 13th of September we went to Banning Park as gypsies. Captain Miller and Mrs. Hill took charge. The gypsies were Lenora Schroeder, Daphne Landreth, Pauline Ely, Mildred Lane, Betty Webb, Tsuyoko Fukai, Marcella Sharp and Jean Traver. We played baseball, cooked our supper and had a very nice time. Meetings are being held each Wednesday afternoon at 3:30 and membership is open to high school girls. Troop 79 is open to girls of elementary school over ten years of age. This troop holds meetings each Monday.

American Legion Auxiliary News

Regular meeting of the American Legion Auxiliary will be held in Legion hall Monday evening, October 16. Many important issues will be discussed and all members are urged to attend.

WORLD FRIENDSHIP LUNCHEON

Torrance women who attended the World Friendship luncheon in El Segundo Friday were delighted with the beauty of the affair and the novel manner in which the food was served. Twelve tables were so decorated as to represent 12 different countries, food served at the tables was of the particular country it represented.

CONTRACT BRIDGE CLUB

Mrs. C. D. Lowen, 904 Beech street, was hostess when she entertained members of her club with a dessert bridge at her home Thursday. Prizes for high scores in contract bridge were awarded to Mrs. A. A. Strom and Mrs. D. A. Murphy. Included were Mesdames E. L. Patterson, A. A. Strom, Louise Fernley, N. F. Gallucci, D. A. Murphy and F. T. Fischer.

ENTERTAINERS AT PRESIDENTS' COUNCIL

Allen and Arthur James Maskrey, talented children of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Maskrey, 1719 Martina, entertained the guests at the presidents' council, National Business and Professional Women, of this district at a meeting held here recently. They offered their well-known skit, "Going to the Bow-wow," and Arthur presented his clever impersonation of Benny Rubin and other stars. Allen gave two humorous readings. The entertainment was greatly enjoyed.

WEEK-END GUEST

Dr. and Mrs. O. E. Fossum, 1621 Cota avenue, had as their house guest over the week-end, Miss Cora Westphal of Los Angeles.
