No charge will be made.

Church Choir to Present Program On Sunday Night

Next Sunday night in the local Methodist church a program of more than ordinary interest and attractiveness is to be presented by the choir of the church under the leadership of R. F. Hogue.

The program is entitled "Voices" and presents its message both through music and the spoken voice.

GRAPES FOR PRESIDENT

EXETER, Calif. (U.P.)—President Roosevelt received the first "perfect" cluster of the San Joaquin valley's famous Red Emperor grapes this year.

The bunch, weighing eight pounds, was sent to the President by G. N. Young, in whose vineyard they were grown.

Three smaller bunches were sent with the larger bunch.

TREE WITHIN TREE GOT WRONG START

CALDWELL, Ida. (U.P.)—Discovery of a tree through which a second separate tree of another species had grown was reported here by C. W. Faris.

He explained that when the root tendrils of the trees were in early stages one penetrated the other at right angles, hardening together.

Both matured, and today, he said, the double tree has grown several feet high.
