A HEN STORY

RENO, Nev. (U.P.)—A pet hen disappeared from Walter Kline's chicken house under circumstances that led him to suspect someone had taken his fowl. He solved himself by taking extra precautions to make sure no more chickens could be stolen. One month afterwards he heard a clucking noise beneath a water bucket and discovered the hen, emaciated and thin from its long imprisonment. The hen lived.

Kiwanis Friendship Book Comes to Club

Members of the Torrance Kiwanis Club inscribed their names in the district friendship book at their meeting Monday night. The book which reposes in a handsome treasure chest was brought to the Torrance club by members of the Watts club, and will be carried by Torrance to Santa Monica. The friendship book is a volume circulated in the states of Nevada, Utah and California, going from club to club for signatures and pictures of interest in each locality. It started on its journey in January 1933 and will probably travel another two years before returning to its original place of departure.
