CHINESE-JAPANESE ALLIANCE IS NOTED

SANTA ANA, (U.P.)—Is the war between China and Japan over, or is it just beginning? This is the question local citizens were asking when Miwa L. Tomura, 21-year-old Japanese girl and Mun Wew, 26, Chinese, applied for a marriage license here. It was the first of its kind in the history of the country.

"DEAD MAN" STARTLES ATTENDANTS WITH SNORES

ISLETON, (U.P.)—Officials of the Isleton Chinese poor home reported an inmate was dead. Deputies from the coroner's office threw a sheet over Eng Sing, "deceased," and rolled him onto a stretcher. Eng's head struck the corner of the stretcher. "Velly sleepes," he sighed, and dropped back, snoring loudly.

O. W. Thompson Dies At Home Wednesday

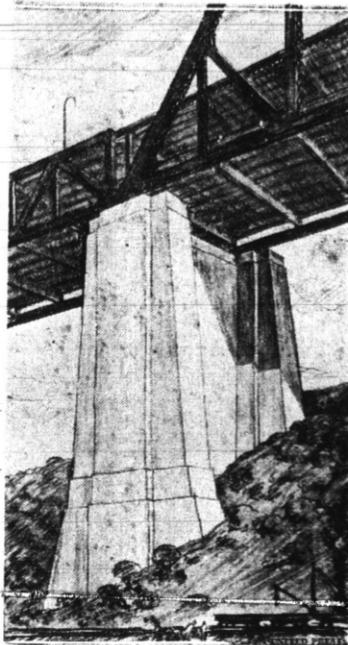

Orrin W. Thompson, who passed away at his home, 2276 Torrance boulevard, yesterday, February 21, at the age of 69 years, is survived by his wife, Mrs. Phoebe Thompson, and an only son, R. E. Thompson, of Wilmington.

Mr. Thompson was born at East Wilton, Maine, and had been a resident of Torrance for 13 years and of California for 23 years.

Funeral services will be conducted Friday, February 23, at 2 o'clock from Stone & Myers chapel, Rev. Kemp J. Winkler of the First M. E. church officiating. Interment will be made at Inglewood Park cemetery.

Unusual 'Shot' of Bay Bridge Pier

An unusual architect's perspective of pier E-1 on the east side of Yerba Buena Island, where the anchor arm of the world's third longest cantilever span—the San Francisco-Oakland bay bridge—will take off. Employing 2040 men, work on the great project is now proceeding on 12 miles, "according to schedule" and when completed will link two of northern California's greatest cities.

U. S. C. Starts Evening School For Merchants

New Venture In Adult Education to Continue For Eight Weeks

A new venture in adult education in Southern California, planned by the school of merchandising, University of Southern California, as an effective aid to merchants advertising men in meeting new conditions of commercial practice, was inaugurated in Santa Monica on February 19. Organized as the Institute of Store Management and Retail Selling, and sponsored by the Southern California Edison Company, the new educational program will provide a practical presentation of the important phases of merchandising as they apply to the sale of electrical appliances at retail. A series of eight Monday evening lecture meetings will be held simultaneously in eight Southern California cities.

The institute staff is composed of members of the faculty of the University of Southern California school of merchandising and other recognized authorities on practical merchandising and advertising. The staff members were selected for their intimate knowledge of the fundamental factors which control success in store management and retail selling, according to H. C. Rice, manager of the merchandise department of the Edison Company. It is the purpose of the institute, he said, in obtaining the lecture services of these authorities to carry forward the company's program of cooperative business building efforts with retail dealers and newspapers.

Howard Locke and Merle Richardson were inspection winners and will get passes to the Torrance Theatre. Bob Lewellen was a guest at last meeting and has been appointed by the Kiwanis Club as a new committeeman for Troop 4. Mr. Locke, Hank Jacobs and Charles Kinsinger were other visitors on Thursday evening. Cakes and cocoa were brought in after the meeting by the Mothers' Auxiliary and were greatly enjoyed and much appreciated by all Scouts.

Inter-patrol contests were held with the Panthers winning first aid, Foxes winning signaling, and Heavers winning knot tying. Scoutmaster Jones and Junior Assistant Scoutmaster Lee Burns attended the Kiwanis dinner at Earl's Cafe.

SPEEDY ELECTION MODESTO, (U.P.)—An election was held here in which all the ballots were cast within a period of ten minutes. The election was to decide if the city of Modesto would annex 40 acres of privately owned property. Three votes were cast.

L. D. S. Organizes New Society Here

Bishop Harry V. Jordan of the Latter-Day Saints was the installing officer at a meeting held Sunday to organize the Genealogical Society in the Torrance ward. For the past two years Torrance has been operating in conjunction with Lomita, and now has an organization of its own. State Representative A. Merlin Steed and his co-workers were present to assist in the organization.

The Genealogical Society will meet each Monday evening in February at 7:30 o'clock at the home of V. M. Harris, 1301 Cedar street. Later the meetings will be held at the Woman's clubhouse as soon as arrangements can be completed and a permanent night is settled.
