ENTERTAINS AT EVENING BRIDGE

The home of Mrs. J. R. Wilkes, 1931 Gramercy avenue, was the scene of a prettily appointed party Tuesday evening when she and Mrs. Herbert Robinson entertained at one of the American Legion diminishing bridge parties. At the close of play dainty refreshments were served. A prize for high score at bridge was awarded to Mrs. Al Harder. A consolation to Mrs. Harry Jacobs.

CECIL BISHOP FETED ON BIRTHDAY

A surprise party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Bishop, 2021 Carson street, Saturday evening, celebrated the 13th birthday of their son, Cecil. Games and dancing furnished the entertainment and a midnight supper was served. Covers were placed for Misses Elizabeth Wilkins, Nadine Sherwin, Elizabeth Neelands, Reeva Hinkle and Alaina Brown of Torrance; Ethel DeLay of Gardena; Messrs. Hal Watson, Fred Ralston and Cecil Bishop, of Torrance, and Kenneth Hammon, Eugene Hammon and Louis Moore of Gardena.

Zabelle Stars Score Hit At Cooking School

Famous Dancing Academy Opens Studio At Legion Hall

The Murielle Zabelle Juvenile Stars, who were enthusiastically applauded by the audience at the Safeway Stores' Cooking School this afternoon, have appeared on many important programs throughout the Southland. During the Olympic Games they appeared every evening at the Ambassador and Chapman Park hotels for the entertainment of the world famous athletic champions and their friends.

At the La Fiesta de Los Angeles, these talented juveniles featured every evening with Harlow Roberts and his Trojan band, and they also appeared at Sunday concerts with the band in the park.

All the work at these performances was the original conception of Murielle Zabelle, which included Spanish dancing, castanet playing, and singing.

Torrance children are now privileged to enroll in this unique organization as the Zabelle Dancing Academy has opened a studio at the Legion clubhouse on Carson street, and lessons are given every Friday, according to an announcement by L. E. Arends, managing director. Mr. Arends, who has personal charge of the Torrance studio, has had 12 years of successful experience in teaching the dancing art to children.

WOMAN'S RELIEF CORPS MEETS

A meeting of the General Hawthorne, was held at Nelson's hall in Hawthorne Tuesday afternoon. Torrance members who attended were Mrs. Elva Kelton, past president; Florence Buck, color bearer; Bessie Rogers, chairman of auditing committee; Mary Baker, musician; May Howard, assistant conductress, and Florence Nagel, press chairman.

Two Torrance ladies applied for membership in the order and will be initiated later.

The annual convention of the W. R. C. will be held this year at Long Beach, May 14-18.
