

LITTLE MEANIE makes good in new "GINGER" FILM

Jane Withers, the kid who imitated a machine gun, told tales on Shirley Temple, tried to run her down with a doll carriage and proved herself a complete annoyance in "Bright Eyes," has the title role in Fox Film's latest comedy success, "Ginger," which kept Hollywood and New York preview audiences in continual riffs and caused the prediction that the film is a great beginning for what looks like a great career.

Brilliant New Ballet Comes to Hollywood Bowl

Serge Oukrainsky, World Famous Producer, Stages "Les Elements"

Serge Oukrainsky, one of the world's best known dance producers, has created a brilliant new ballet for Hollywood Bowl which he will stage Thursday night, August 29, in the seventh week of 1935 Symphonies under the Stars.

The ballet "Les Elements" danced to music by Rimsky-Korsakoff conducted by Modest Altschuler will be one of many features arranged by the Hollywood Bowl. Oukrainsky's company of 50 dancers will be headed by Madeline Lazard, Patsy Woodard, Mavis Meredith, Allan Cooke and Dimitri Romanoff.

Helen Jepson, soprano star of the Metropolitan Opera Company, will be starred on the Tuesday night event, August 27, which marks the farewell conducting appearance of Jose Iturbi, Spanish virtuoso.

Bernardino Molinari has two conducting assignments in the week of August 27. He will direct the first half of the Thursday and the entire Friday night concert. Tschukowsky's dramatic opera "Eugene Onegin" will be given Saturday night in concert form under the direction of Alexis Corshansky.

IT'S A NEW SPANISH CUSTOM

Dolores Del Rio dances the "Muchacha" in the land of Cucaracha where Warner Bros. filmed the first National musical "In Caliente." Seething with señoritas and flaming with rhythm, it is coming to the Torrance Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday.

Detective Work And Love Story Are Combined

Fascinating insights into the detective work of the department of justice men and a tender love story are deftly combined in Paramount's "Men Without Names," which comes tonight, Friday and Saturday to the Torrance Theatre.

Fred MacMurray, Madge Evans, David Holt, the new child prodigy, and Lynne Overman feature the cast of this new film on the exploits of Uncle Sam's detectives. In the film, Fred MacMurray, one of the department's agents, is sent to a small Kansas town where money stolen in an armored car hold-up is making its appearance.

Posing as an aviation promoter, he makes the acquaintance of key figures in the mystery, learns that the mob is somewhere in the vicinity, and is being shielded by the local banker.

MacMurray sends out a call for aid. Lynne Overman answers the call and between them they proceed to get the evidence and track down their prey.

As the ring closes in about the mob, they become desperate. Overman is killed in the line of duty. MacMurray attempts to come to his aid, but he, Madge Evans, whom he has come to love, and her little brother are trapped by the gangsters.

In a dramatic, rapid-fire climax, the gangsters are apprehended, the prisoners released and the film brought to a happy conclusion.

AT PLAZA

Dolores Del Rio, famous dramatic star, turns Spanish dancer for "In Caliente," the Warner Bros. musical filmed in Mexico's far-famed play ground, which comes Sunday at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne.

Winifred Shaw, the "Lady in Red," in the picture, is consistently cast in musicals as a "night club gal," although in real life she is a "nine o'clock" person.

"I really go to bed every night at nine," said Winnie. "Hard work is the reason. I've just got to have my sleep. With eight o'clock calls every morning, night stepping just can't be done. Somebody suggests going places and I yawningly decline night after night."

In the picture "In Caliente," Miss Shaw not only is the "Lady in Red," but sings the song of that title in the picture. Before her picture work, she was a famous musical comedy singer on Broadway.

"In Caliente" is First National's latest musical spectacle, combining romance, comedy and drama. There is an all star cast, which includes Dolores Del Rio, Pat O'Brien, Leo Carrillo, Edward Everett Horton, Glenda Farrell, Phil Regan, Dorothy Dare, Miss Shaw, The DeMarcos and The Canova Family.

BAFFLING MYSTERY

Robert Taylor, Una Merkel, Jean Parker, Ted Healy, Nat Pendleton and others are included in the cast which presents "Murder in the Fleet," a baffling mystery which takes the whole fleet to solve it. Seen Sunday and Monday at the Torrance Theatre.

"Calm Yourself" Says the Young Advertising Man

Teamed in the leading roles of "Calm Yourself," Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer's brightly new photoplay of a "confidential services" operation, which comes Tuesday and Wednesday to the Torrance Theatre, are Robert Young and Madge Evans, distinguished as co-players in such recent pictures as "Death on the Diamond" and "Paris Interlude."

Adapted by Arthur Kober from an original story by Edward Hope, "Calm Yourself" is a romantic comedy-drama dealing with the exploits of a young advertising man who, bounced out of his fiancée's father's business, starts a "confidential service" agency which promises to handle any chore for the subscriber who is admonished to calm himself.

His Troubles Begin When one of these chores is to take care of the comely daughter of an affluent business man, trouble begins. Carrying for an instant, he to a large fortune, complicates things further when "confidential services" is suspected of being a kidnaping ring, but a triumphant and unsuspected solution is found.

By an odd coincidence in advance booking, the Lomita Theatre will present both Will Rogers and Wiley Post, whose untimely deaths were mourned throughout the nation during the coming week.

On Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, Will Rogers will be seen in "Doubting Thomas" in which he is co-starred with Billie Burke, wife of his deceased life-long friend, Florenz Ziegfeld.

Next Wednesday, August 28, the Lomita Theatre will show "Air Hawks" in which Wiley Post appears with Ralph Bellamy and Tala Birell. There will also be a matinee Wednesday when kiddies will be admitted for any old tire. The children's matinee is sponsored by Uncle Pete.

broadcast studios later on. To Fuzzy Knight, who depicts another farm hand entertainer, falls the lion's share of the comedy, and the comedian makes the most of his opportunities.

Mary Carlisle, Lawrence Gray, Dorothy Lee, Willard Robertson and Lillian Miles are featured in the story, which was adapted to the screen by W. Scott Darling. William Nigh directed.

A GIANT SERVANT RIGHT IN YOUR OWN BACKYARD

SUPPOSE the population of Central and Southern California were merged into one gigantic human being, requiring the same muscular energy—the same vital parts as you. There would be then, an intricate nervous system spreading tiny nerve threads to every portion of the body. Without these the body could not move. It would be an inert mass—alive but without motor power.

But Southern California is a corporate body rather than a corporeal one, and would be helpless without the equally vital electric system of the Edison Company. Throughout ten counties—from Fresno to San Juan Capistrano and from San Bernardino to the sea—the Edison Company spreads its network of power lines. It sends impulses of energy to a half million consumers through 16,800 miles of principal and secondary lines from 251 substations.

This great system built by Californians for Californians furnishes low-cost energy to the most magnificent mansion and the humblest home alike. We serve equally the smallest shop and the largest factory as an integral part of the community.

THE PIT AND THE PENDULUM

KARLOFF, BELA LUGOSI and SAMUEL HINDS in "THE RAVEN" UNIVERSAL PRODUCTION

A replica of the horror chamber described by Edgar Allan Poe in his "Pendulum and the Pit" may be seen in "The Raven," the Universal picture at the Torrance Theatre next Tuesday and Wednesday. The reproduction of this scene was taken at great cost and labor, but it is startling in its effect.

Heading the cast in "The Raven," suggested by Poe's immortal masterpiece, are Karloff (Frankenstein) and Bela Lugosi (Dracula), with a supporting cast including Irene Ware, Lester Matthews, Jan Wolfe, Inez Courtney, Samuel Hinds and others.

Rider Haggard's famous novel, "She," which was a sensation a generation ago, has been filmed, and will be one of the features presented at the Torrance Theatre next week, on Thursday, Friday and Saturday. The companion feature brings Jane Withers and Jackie Searle in "Ginger."

LOMITA WOMAN is prize winner IN CONTEST

Among the over 1,000 prize winners in the recent limerick contest conducted by the manufacturers of Drifted Snow flour was Mrs. Wm. Wasmond of Lomita. She was awarded a recipe-menu book valued at two dollars. Thirty-one Norge refrigerators were also given as grand prizes and 31 sets of Wm. Rogers & Son silverware were awarded as second prizes to winners scattered throughout the United States and Canada.

STATE FAIR GOES ON ICE

Ed Parker of Sacramento finds there are still thrills for the iceman as he drops the first cake into one of the new ice-cooled drinking fountains which will refresh visitors during the ten days of the California State Fair, which opens in Sacramento on August 31. More trees, more benches, and a big shaded picnic ground are among the other comforts which will add to the enjoyment of the coming fair.
