Wanderers Must Return Or Will Be Barred Here

President Peterkin Issues Edict to Three Night League Players

Out of the turmoil produced by the back-sliding of three players in three different teams of the National Night Baseball League, comes a ray of hope that these wanderers may return to the fold. Manager Spud Murphy states that President George Peterkin is getting out a letter to the Bluebirds, who left to go to Visalia; Haasrot of Westminster, and one other, that unless they return to their clubs by next Monday they will be barred from organized baseball in Southern California. Such a rule will no doubt be put on the books of the league for next season, in order to do away with a situation such as prevails today. The loss of Louie Neva to the Bluebirds put a crimp in their championship hopes. This can not be denied. Louie was valuable to the Birds principally on account of his hitting ability, not because he was such a great pitcher, although he was good. However, Louie lost his first game with the Visalia club and is carried as a second string pitcher, which must be vinegar and mustard to this cocky lad. An additional clause in the command to return to their home lots is the condition that should they return these players must stick with their clubs for the next two years. The Bluebirds are now two down in the championship race with only six more games to play. Should Neva return in time for next Tuesday's game it is unlikely that he will be much help to the club, and in the opinion of the fans nothing that he can do will offset the damage that has already been done.

Checks Play Big Part
FORT WORTH, Tex. (U.P.)—Eighty-seven per cent of the buying and selling in the United States is done with checks. Dr. R. H. Montgomery of the University of Texas economics department, said. Even when money is used the greater part of it is paper money, which in a sense is a form of a check.

PROTEST FILED ON UMPIRE'S DECISION IN FRIDAY'S GAME

Dead Ball Is Issue in Westminster Tilt Lost By Birds, 11-2; Favorable Decision By League Will Allow Game to be Played Over

Westminster 11, Torrance 2. Oh pawaw, and a couple of tush tushes. The one game of the season that the Bluebirds should have tucked away in their bat bags went glimmering Friday night in the fifth inning, when the Aviators climbed aboard for a total of five runs.

Kiwanis Jrs. Defeat Pofi Team Monday

The Kiwanis Juniors continued their winning streak Monday night by defeating the Police and Firemen team by the score of 10 to 5. The Kiwanians have now taken a commanding lead in the night softball league and will be hard to stop. Jimmy Amman with three hits, including a home run, and Locke, with three runs, were the heroes of the game.

Chicago Cards Sign Players For Training

Disastrous 1933 Season Leads To Wholesale Housecleaning

By GEORGE KIRKSEY
United Press Staff Correspondent CHICAGO, (U.P.)—After last year's disastrous season, the Chicago Cardinals have made a wholesale housecleaning and will attempt to give their local rivals, the Chicago Bears, a battle for the national professional football championship this fall.

In the shakeup only seven members of last year's team survived. They include Lou Gordon, tackle; Frank McNally, center; Phil Handler and Gil Bergerson, guards; and Dick Nesbit, Howard Tipton and Hubert Hinchman, backs. Some of this group may find it difficult to land a regular berth. Paul Schissler, former Oregon Aggies' coach, who made his debut in the professional coaching ranks last season, is determined to develop the Cardinals into a winning team, and has toured the country by automobile in a search for new talent. He has signed 33 players to report for training in September.

Among this group are several All-Americans and outstanding college players of last season. The leading lights among the newcomers are Francis (Whitey) Williams, Michigan's All-American tackle; Mike Sebastian, Pittsburgh's halfback, who single-handedly beat Notre Dame two years ago; Mike Mikulak, Oregon's powerful fullback; Fred Carrinus, St. Mary's brilliant end; Henry Cronkite, Kansas Aggies' All-American end of two years ago; and Paul Fardonnier, Purdue's Napoleonic field general.

Other players signed by Schissler include Chris Mathis, Nebraska halfback; Doug Russell, Kansas Aggies' halfback; Frank Green, Oklahoma halfback; George Duggins, Purdue end; Bob Neuman, Illinois' wideback; and Neupert Riesterer, Detroit end; Joe Krejci, New State Teachers end; Bill Smith, Washington end; Pete Mehringer, Kansas tackle; Harry Field, Hawaii tackle; Ted Isaacson, Washington tackle; Ulysses Schluter, Arkansas tackle; Bill Volok, Tulsa guard; Fred Cumpston, Oregon guard; Johnny Sokoloff, De Paul guard; Bernie Hughes, Oregon center, and Paul Shengfelt, Illinois College center. In addition to these players, Schissler has obtained Hoy Horstmann, Purdue fullback of two years ago, and Bob Campisio, halfback, who led the nation in scoring in 1932, from the Boston Redskins. Horstmann, a star in college, was handicapped with Boston last year because of illness and injuries.

Long Beach Here Tomorrow Night For Last Game

Long Beach, the Bear Admirals of the National League, come here Friday night for their last game against the Torrance Bluebirds. The Admirals have dropped 24 straight games this season, so it looks like a clinch for the Birds, but as Manager Spud Murphy says, "They may be ready to knock us off this time. Several new players have been added to the visitors' string since the last game. All of their games have been lost by narrow margins, so that after all they are no set-up." The Birds are now two full games behind Westminster, one game behind Huntington Beach. Their only hope for the championship is to take every game, six in all, and for some of the other teams to knock over the leaders. Otherwise, it's all said.

downed, 7-6, after a hard struggle in which the locals had the edge. Both teams cut loose with a bombardment in the third inning and scored four runs apiece. However, Huntington Beach had socked over two in the first frame which made the count 6-4 in their favor.

The Birds made their bid in the ninth and tied the score. In the 10th Osborne got a hit and an error charged to Atwood on first put two men on with nobody out. Schuhardt, according to the disgraced Spud Murphy, was being deliberately passed but he stepped over the plate to reach for a wide one and laid down a perfect bunt, the lucky stiff. That was all.

New Ball Must Be Handled Right Says Coach Howard Jones

LOS ANGELES, (U.P.)—Howard Jones, head football coach at Southern California, sees both advantages and disadvantages in the use of the new, smaller football. He believes they just about will balance.

"The main thing is to get a uniform, all on it," he says. If one section of the country is going to use the old ball, while another is taking up the new one, there's bound to be trouble in inter-sectional games." Trojan passers in spring practice found that the new ball is easier to grip but requires more power to throw. "They found—probably because the new pill isn't as heavy—that they had to put a lot more force into each throw," their coach reports. "From what I can see, the new ball will travel farther, if it's kicked right, than the old one. But it has to be handled just right. If a kicker gets off a bad boot, then it's just too bad with this smaller ball. That's the main

National Champs Lost To Indiana

BLOOMINGTON, Ind. (U.P.)—Five present, or former national champions will be lost to Indiana University during the 1934-35 sports season by graduation. Ivan Fuqua, national A. A. A. 400-yard champion, and Charles Hornbostel, national collegiate half-mile titleholder, will be lost to the track team.

Wrestling lost three stars in Bob Jones, national A. A. U. heavyweight champion; Pat Devine, 1933 national 135-pound champion, and Dick Vollra, national 175-pound collegiate champion this year.

Lightning Fatal to Farmer LONDON, O. (U.P.)—Homer D. McQuirt, 34, farmer, sought refuge in a barn near here when a rain-storm started. Lightning killed him. His employer, Raymond Mize, escaped death, although knocked unconscious for 20 minutes by the bolt.

"The Trojan mentor believes that the new ball will make no difference in the centers of backfield receivers. "In our spring practice," he explains, "there weren't any more bad passes from center, or any more fumbles in the backfield than there ever are in spring practice."
