Beautiful Dolores Del Rio At Torrance Sunday and Monday

Voted the most beautiful actress of the screen, glamorous Dolores Del Rio will make you gasp with delight in Warner's "Madame Du Barry," coming to the Torrance Theatre, Sunday and Monday, November 11 and 12. The story concerns the life and loves of this famous French courtesan and the cast includes such stars of stage and screen as Reginald Owen, Victor Jory, Osgood Perkins, Verree Teasdale and Helen Lowell. Bette Davis and Ann Dvorak in "Housewife" will be the added feature.

STARS OF "DESIRABLE"

Jean Muir and George Brent, featured along with Verree Teasdale in the new Warner Bros. romantic hit, "Desirable." This dynamic tale of the love of mother and daughter for the same man, offers an unexcelled starring vehicle for the lovely Miss Muir. The picture will be shown at the Torrance Theatre tonight, Friday and Saturday, November 8, 9 and 10. Also Warren William and Margaret Livingstone in the "Dragon Murder Case," and London and Man Mountain Dean wrestling match.

Erwin, Family Sap
 In "Party's Over"
 At Plaza Saturday

Meet the sap of the family tree! He was a sweetie to his mother—but an all-day sucker to the rest of the family! An uproarious screen comedy of the wren that turned!

That's Stuart Erwin, ace film comedian with the dead pan and the wistful eyes, who plays the leading comedy role in Columbia's "The Party's Over," which plays Saturday only, at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne.

Adapted from the howling stage comedy by Daniel Kussell, "The Party's Over" is a sparkling comedy of young love dancing to the tempo of modern freedom—with the devil to pay! The looniest comedy ever made, with an arsenal of laughs—and a heart throb to boot!

In addition to Erwin, the cast of "The Party's Over" boasts such prominent name players as Ann Southern, of "Let's Fall in Love," Arline Judge, William Bakewell, Fatsy Kelly, Henry Travers, Catharine Doucet, Esther Muir and Chick Chandler. Walter Lang directed.

Richard Cromwell, Donald Cook, Jean Arthur and Anita Louise will be seen in the featured roles of the Columbia production, "Most Precious Thing in Life," which also comes to the Plaza Theatre Saturday.

The four popular players portray the principal characters in this adaptation of the Travis Ingham original "Biddy," which appeared last year in McCall's magazine. Lambert Hillier directed.

AT LOMITA THEATRE

George O'Brien is seen here as he dashes into one of the thrilling situations with which "The Dude Ranger" abounds. Zane Grey wrote this newest O'Brien screen vehicle and he provides plenty of excitement and suspense for George. The picture will be seen at the Lomita Theatre, Sunday, Monday and Tuesday, November 11-12-13.

Reckless Lover Woos Countess

Madcap romance, enacted against the lavish and colorful background of life in the vineyards of Europe, to the haunting, tantalizing strains of native melodies! Briefly, it is reported, this describes "Caravan," Erik Charell's first American-made picture for Fox Film, which is coming to the Torrance Theatre on Tuesday and Wednesday, November 13 and 14.

Boasting settings of vivid beauty, a story centering about the romance of a devil-may-care nomadic songmaker and a lovely young countess, a notable cast and exquisite music, "Caravan" promises to reveal itself as something eminently distinguished in the field of film entertainment.

Charles Boyer, idol of movie fans on the Continent, makes his starring debut before American audiences as a captivating songmaker who loves and is loved by a beautiful and capricious countess. In the latter role will be seen the dazzling Loretta Young; while the raven-haired Jean Parker appears as Tinka, the other girl. Phillips Holmes, in the role of a dashing young lieutenant, completes the foursome of principal players.

The music of "Caravan," it is said, will create a sensation. All the airs, typifying the fiery, fervent nature of the Gypsies, were composed by Werner Richard Heymann and played by a Gypsy orchestra. Lyrics were provided by Gus Kahn.

Mae West At Lomita Tonight

Here she is, the one and only Mae West in her newest sparkling comedy, "The Party's Over," which plays Thursday, Friday and Saturday, this week, at the Lomita Theatre.

Richard Barthelmess in "Midnight Alibi," is also shown on the same bill.

Will Rogers At Plaza Theatre In Hawthorne, 4 Days Starting Sun.

Will Rogers—in the most human and lovable role he has yet played! That is the screen fare promised at the Plaza Theatre, Hawthorne, where Will's latest Fox picture, "Judge Priest," begins a four-day engagement Sunday.

According to advance reports, the star has never been so well suited as by this screen character, the shrewd, kindly but strong-willed Kentucky jurist, who is already famous in the stories of Irvin S. Cobb, perhaps America's most noted humorist.

A New Portrait
 With his characterization of the "Judge," Rogers is said to add a new and original figure to his all-American gallery, which includes such memorable portraits as David Harum, Mr. Skitch, Dr. Bull and the Connecticut Yankee.

This time he plays a wise old fellow who, following the Civil War, has settled down in his native Kentucky village with his Confederate cronies. The story opens in his court room on a lazy spring day in 1890.

George Brent and Bette Davis In "Housewife"

"Housewife," which marks the return to the screen of George Brent, is high powered entertainment with an unique romance that is of especial appeal to women, because for the first time, the picture shows to what great extent the success of a man is inspired by his wife.

There is an exceptionally talented all-star cast headed by Bette Davis, George Brent, Ann Dvorak and John Halliday.

Shown Sunday and Monday, November 11 and 12 at the Torrance Theatre.
