

CHESS

By A. L. PAUL

The Torrance Chess and Checker Club has now become a permanently established institution with the recent retention of officers, paid under the SERRA, to conduct this recreational feature (or adult). The officers are Clyde McNew, president; Hugh Seidler, secretary; A. L. Paul, technical instructor. Many lively and entertaining features are now being planned for each and every Monday and Thursday evenings. The club meets at the Recreation Center, 1216 Cabrillo avenue, and visitors are cordially welcomed.

From now on we shall include one problem each week as a regular feature of this column. If sufficient interest warrants it we shall publish a list of the names of solvers once a month.

Problem No. 100

By Sam Lloyd

ORI: 2K5; 18; 5P; 6P; 1Q3NK1; 8.
Solution to this problem will be given next week.

First of the American continent to leave for the scene of the international chess tournament to be held in Mexico City the first week of December, Reuben Fine, champion of the Marshall Chess Club and the holder of the Western Chess Association title, mailed two weeks ago for Vera Cruz on board the steamship Orizaba of the Ward line. The young New Yorker, who holds a degree of Master of Arts from the College of the City of New York, will be one of a dozen entrants in the competition announced by Capt. Jose J. Aranza, the Mexican champion, and one of the leading exponents of the game in that country.

Isaac Kashdan was successful in winning the exhibition game with Samuel Reshevsky at New Bedford last, thanks to his precise handling of the ending, defeated the one-time boy marvel with the black pieces in a Queen's Gambit Declined after 57 moves. The game lasted over six hours and attracted an attendance of 200 persons. Mayor Ashley was among those who greeted the young masters.

If you are one of those people who think there is no excitement in chess, then examine this lively game from the Bad Nendorf tournament between the two "brack" players of Sweden.

Mr. L. M. writes to ask, "If one can already play a fair game of chess, what is the advantage of studying the science of the game?"

You have admitted a fundamental fact in your question, Mr. M., namely, that chess strategy is a science. Because of this fact the game possesses great beauty and charm which are only revealed to he who knows this science. With this knowledge he becomes more sure of himself, thus the game becomes more fascinating and effortless. The "fair" player is constantly involved in a maze of complications which only confuses him and the great effort expended to overcome these complications exhausts his patience and powers of concentration and he is deprived of the beauties and entertaining features which are always present.

As another talking point in favor of the educative value of

Development of Television Predicted With New Tube

A new cathode ray tube, utilizing neither filament, grid nor screens, and generating high-frequency direct current for use in short-wave radio broadcasting and television sending, has been announced by Philo Farnsworth, 25-year-old inventor, and the Heins-Kaufman Laboratories of South Francisco. Ralph Heins (second from right above, without coat) is explaining functions of the invention at tests of the tube—placed directly in front of him. Experts predict immediate development of television broadcasting stations through use of the tube.

chess, we wish to cite an incident of very recent occurrence. A few months ago a man in Portsmouth, England, died and left 10,000 pounds (about $50,000) for the promotion of chess among Portsmouth and Brighton boys. He maintained that all his success in life was due to the qualities that he had learned from the study of chess.

Hawaii Baseball-Minded

When Babe Ruth, the home run king, and Connie Mack, manager of the Philadelphia Athletics, arrived in Honolulu on their world tour the people declared a national holiday and turned out en masse to greet the two famous figures of the diamond.

$100,000,000 Dream Comes True

Twenty-two years of labor and an expenditure of $100,000,000 was culminated Sunday when water from the gigantic Hetch Hetchy project flowed into San Francisco. At the left is Secretary of Interior Ickes, speaker of the day, as he addressed the large crowd that attended the ceremony. On the right Mayor Angelo Rossi of San Francisco presides over the flow of water.

officials of the C. C. M. O. for the purchase of the six-acre reservoir site on a three-year payment plan instead of paying the entire $18,500 at present. If this can be worked out satisfactorily, we plan to drill one and possibly two wells at an early date. Ludlow stated.

Boy, 6, Knows His Apples
CHARDON, O. (U.P.)—Clay Eddy, Jr., six, of Chester, near here, can identify any apple from 25 varieties and tell any fruit tree correctly, no matter how small. When he was only five he could look at small specks on an apple and tell what insect or moth was responsible. His father is an orchardist.

Prison Votes Solicited
SEATTLE (U.P.)—Congressman Marlon Zioncheck was passing up no bets in the recent political campaign. He visited the city jail, urged the inmates to cast absentee ballots and left cigarettes in the women's quarter and "makings" with the men.

Oldest Hotel Guest
BOSTON (U.P.)—Miss Laura C. Hill, 91, believes she is the nation's oldest hotel guest in "point of service." She has lived at Hotel Bellevue, on Beacon Hill, for 47 years.

Auto Wrecker Saved Cow
ESTACADA, Ore. (U.P.)—A cow that fell into a well 22 feet deep and holding eight feet of water was rescued by use of a wrecking car equipment borrowed from a local garage.

Second Raspberry Crop
SEATTLE (U.P.)—Mrs. Robert W. Millikan harvested a second raspberry crop from her vines this year, in October. The first came unusually early in the spring. With the second crop of ripe fruit were blossoms, forecasting a possible third yield in December.

Spanking Wife Cost $50
POCATELLO, Idaho (U.P.)—It cost ARTHUR MARITA $50 to learn that man is not always kind in his own home. He was fined that sum in justice court when he pleaded guilty to giving his wife "a good spanking."

School Shutdown Threatened
ZANESVILLE, O. (U.P.)—Unless teachers of this city of 30,000 agree to serve without pay the remainder of this year, Zanesville schools will close until Jan. 1 for lack of operating funds.

At Least—Man Bites Dog
CINCINNATI (U.P.)—When Roy Baglion bit the ear of his pet Boston puppy he wasn't trying to make news. It was all in fun, but the pup misunderstood. He bit back. Baglion was treated at a hospital for dog bite.

For Restored Buying Power
TOLEDO (U.P.)—The buying power of the people, especially those who have helped build the nation in time of peace, and war veterans who have saved it in time of war, must be restored, Congressman Wright Patman of Texas, told a Democratic rally here.

Boy Struck by Discus
CLEVELAND (U.P.)—Lloyd Cassidy, 12, stepped into the path of a spinning discus on a school playground during a gymnasium session. His skull was fractured.
