Dorothy Louise Shoppe to Open Informally Sat.
New Frock and Hat Shop At 1318 Sartori Conducted By Miss Laas

A delightful addition to the retail district in Torrance will be made this Saturday when the Dorothy Louise Shoppe opens its doors at 1318 Sartori avenue. Miss Dorothy Louise Laas, assisted by her mother, Mrs. E. J. Laas, will jointly conduct the new apparel shop, which will feature the celebrated line of Pedaline hats and personality frocks, carefully selected from leading fashion centers. Of particular interest to many women is the announcement that the Dorothy Louise Shoppe will carry half-sizes in dresses.

Mr. and Mrs. Laas and daughter first came to California to "spend the winter away from the colder climate of the old home in Benton Harbor, Michigan. But like many other easterners, they fell in love with the environment of the Southland and last November they returned from Michigan to make their home in Torrance. They have already made a number of warm friends in this community who join in wishing them much success in their new business enterprise.

While no formal opening of the Dorothy Louise Shoppe is planned, Miss Laas and Mrs. Laas extend a cordial invitation to the women of this community to visit the new shop beginning Saturday of this week. While stocks of frocks and hats may not be complete for a few days, visitors will be welcome, they stated.
