Torrance Chapter

Order Of Eastern Star Welcomes Deputy Grand Matron

Mrs. Edith Kasper, 58rd district deputy grand matron of California chapter, Order of Eastern Star, paid her official visit to Torrance chapter Thursday evening. She was beautifully gowned in coral crepe trimmed in royal blue velvet. She wore slippers of gold cloth and carried a huge bouquet of American beauty roses. The roses were a gift from Myrtle Givens, worthy matron of Torrance chapter. Mrs. Kasper spoke briefly at the meeting and gave instructions to members on the sidelines as officers of Torrance chapter exemplified their work for her approval.

American Legion Auxiliary News

American Legion Auxiliary regular business meetings will be held in Legion hall, Tuesday evening at 7:45 o'clock.

One hundred persons attended the dancing party given in the American Legion hall by the American Legion Auxiliary. The committee in charge of the affair were Mesdames Gertrude Rodgion, Lucille Lowellen, Marie Marsteller and Maxine Smith. Music for dancing was furnished by Fred Grass and his orchestra of Inglewood.

Wreaths to be placed on the graves of veterans buried in Roosevelt Memorial cemetery were made by auxiliary members at the home of Mrs. J. R. Wilkes, Memorial Day chairman, Wednesday. Those who assisted in making the wreaths were Mesdames Lucille Lowellen, Janet Woodington, Jennie Lane, Gertrude Ralston and Blanche Allen. When the wreaths were completed Mrs. Wilkes served light refreshments.

SEMPER FIDELIS CLUB MEETS

The Semper Fidelis Club met Saturday, May 24, at the home of Mrs. Grace Munch, 219 West Rhode Island avenue, Hawthorne. A beautiful luncheon was served at 12:30, followed by a business meeting and installation of officers. Those seated are Grace N. Munch, president; Anna P. Boite, vice president; Jessie M. Gilliland, secretary and treasurer; Della Weaver, chaplain; Grace Willard, past national president, acted as installing officer, assisted by Martha Packard, Ida May Gribbing, past department president, all of Los Angeles; Evelyn Johnson, past department president, of Redondo, acted as conductor.

The club observed a moment of silence in respect to the memory of Colonel Renout, an honorary member of the Corps, who passed away recently.

Mrs. Elva Kelton and Mrs. Anna Boice, of Torrance, were among those who attended this meeting. The club is composed of past presidents of the Woman's Relief Corps, an auxiliary to the Grand Army of the Republic, Civil war veterans' organization.

SHOWER-DINNER PARTY HONORS MISS NEELANDS

Using a color scheme of pink and white with roses of pink and white as a center piece for the table, Mrs. Charles Curtis, 1821 Engawa avenue, entertained with a dinner party and shower for Miss Betty Neelands at the Curtis home, Sunday at 5 o'clock. Covers were placed for the bride-elect, her mother, Mrs. W. H. Neelands; and her sister, Miss Mildred Neelands, and Mrs. Wm. Gray who resides in Glendale. For Mrs. P. G. Briney and Mrs. Wm. Hartley, of San Pedro; Mrs. Arthur Burmaster, of Alhambra; Mrs. Lex Briney and Miss Lorraine Roeloffs, of Los Angeles; Mesdames Melvina Beckwith, Archer Lewis, Fred Hansen, W. C. Hayden, Anna Burmaster, Miss Jane Roberts and the hostess.

After the meeting the entire assembly of 200 Star members, representing all Eastern Star chapters in the 58rd district, were ushered into the banquet hall where a Spanish dinner was served. Ernest Tomkins escorted Mrs. Kasper to the banquet hall. It will be remembered that Tomkins served as Torrance chapter's worthy patron in 1932 when Mrs. Kasper served as the worthy matron.

The banquet hall was decorated in typical Spanish style with bright colored pottery bowls filled with gallardia and geraniums. Strings of peppers, colored corn, etc., hung in strings from the walls. The officers' table was most attractive. A replica of San Juan Capistrano mission made by children of the elementary school was used as a center piece. A Spanish cloth covered the table and dinner was served in bright colored pottery dishes. Favors were tiny Mexican pottery bowls, which served as nut cups. Place cards were made of red and yellow paper on which a Spanish gentleman in sombrero was painted. Other tables surrounding the main table had Spanish table cloths, bright pottery dishes and low bowls of red and yellow flowers placed at graceful intervals. The gift presented by officers to the deputy grand matron was concealed in a string of Mexican peppers.

A special guest at the affair was Mrs. Corfield, past grand matron of Utah Order of Eastern Star. Members voted this the outstanding social affair of the year. Loraine Ulrich, chairman, was assisted by Lecl Kerber, Cleora Stanger, Blanche Kresse, Margaret Kramer, Edith Scribner, Sally West, Minnie Brooks, Lillian Shriner, Gwendolyn Knudsen and Hazel Fossum.

ROYAL NEIGHBORS PRESENT COMEDY SKIT

One hundred persons attended the comedy, "The Kitchen Cabinet Orchestra," presented by members of Torrance Camp, Royal Neighbors, in Torrance Social hall, Tuesday evening. Laughs greeted the group as they appeared with every conceivable what-not the kitchen boasts and played their tunes. Mrs. Adeline Smith directed the performance. In the cast of characters were: Pianist, May McKinley; drum major, Mary Schroeder; accordion, Martha Cooper; cymbals, Evelyn Warner; flute, Mary Baker; violin, Thelma Keller; banjo, Nettie Demman; cello, Louise Walker; guitar, Blanche Crawford; xylophone, Blanche Richardson; snare drums, Mable Rodgers; cornet, Grace Burmaster; egg beater, Albertine Phillips; flog sifter, Elsie Smith; reader, Mary Benson; tenor, Messrs. Richardson and Benzal.

The group sang a lullaby in honor of the Dionne quintuplets. Members of the Pool family, of Redondo Beach, played for dancing after the playlet. A door prize was won by Mrs. Grace Burmaster.
