Compton Junior College Opening

Compton Junior College, in which a number of Torrance students are enrolled each year, will open on Tuesday, Sept. 8, according to Superintendent O. Scott Thompson, who this week issued a detailed announcement.

On Saturday, August 29, all high school graduates who will enroll in the junior college will assemble in the administration building for the guidance examination.

Students of the fourteenth year will register at the college on Tuesday, Sept. 8, and those of thirteenth year on Thursday, Sept. 10. Wednesday, Sept. 9, admission day, is a legal school holiday.

Texas Draw! Proves Slow

DALLAS, (U.P.)—It takes more time for a Texan to say "Jack Robinson" than it does a native of New York or Michigan, officials of the Ford exposition building at the Texas Centennial announced.

The officials determined this by a test. When preliminary plans were made for showing the 15 major exhibits in the Ford building, a cycle of lectures requiring one hour and 30 minutes to deliver was written.

Speaking English as it is spoken in Detroit, a lecturer could make the complete conversational tour in exactly 90 minutes.

But in Dallas, where the Texas drawl rules, it was discovered that it required one hour and 48 minutes to make the cycle. Eighteen minutes had been lost along the vocal highway.

Christian Ladies Dinner Sept. 2

Torrance folks are invited to join members of First Christian church at another of their home-cooked dinners which will be served in the guild hall, corner of Arlington and El Dorado avenue, Wednesday evening, Sept. 2, from 5 to 7 o'clock. Tickets for the affair may be secured from Mrs. Ruth Haggard, 1400 Cravens avenue, or at the door.

This dinner was first planned for tonight but was postponed.

WHAT MOOSE WOMEN ARE DOING

Torrance Women of the Moose will celebrate their first anniversary when they meet in their hall, 1951 Carson street, Friday evening. They point with pride to their records, having added nine new members to their roll, organizing a drill team, which group took second prize at the state convention, and aiding in all civic affairs.

The drill team, accompanied by Mmes. Ruth Kidd, Elsie Smith, Julia McManus and Blanche Harshaw will go to Compton this evening to attend the district conference. The team will be presented to the district as the winning drill team of Southern California.

Minsky's Merry Maidens To Have Day In Court Sept. 3 for Judicial Decision On Scant Costumes and Spicy Dialogue

Darling Scott's costume was not censored by the police raiders, and since her only lines were those of shapeliness, as picture reveals, she could not be charged with racy chatter, but she will be present to sympathize with her feminine colleagues in the Hollywood Playhouse revue, when they make their next appearance before municipal tribunals. The second edition of "Life Begins At Minky's" is going strong in its fifth week.

Escondido Will Celebrate Annual Grape Festival On September 9

(C.N.P.A., Inc. Service)
ESCONDIDO, (Special)—Southern California people in particular and people from all the world in general have a fine day's pleasure awaiting them once again this year on Sept. 9 when Escondido celebrates her annual Grape Day Festival. It will be her 29th observance of this happy marker of the vintage season, and everybody is invited to come and celebrate with the people of the Sunjiskit Vale. It is the one grand celebration of California where everything is free, including plenty of grapes for everyone to eat and an all-day program of entertainment with "no charge" stamped on every event.

President W. N. Bradbury, re-elected for his seventh consecutive term of office as head of the celebration, has organized his committees and board of directors and started the preparation of a program that will afford pleasure for every visitor, meeting every taste and appealing to every age and class.

Big Jubilee
The first event of the day is the grand parade, at 10 o'clock in the morning. Dean E. Howell, as parade chairman, has secured the service of Stuart Hamblen, radio-singing cowboy, as grand marshal, and Hamblen's Covered Wagon Jubilee will be one of the many great attractions in the long line of march. Special attention to a military section will be given this year thru the Veterans of Foreign Wars.

Exhibits showing Escondido's great agricultural development and strength, including principally her citrus, avocado, poultry, dairy and grape and wine industries, will be one of the big attractions of the day, with Wm. Bishop in charge of the display.

All-day program of entertainment, with music, short speeches by prominent speakers and features and stunts of all kinds. Danes, street shows and other entertainment will extend far into the night.

And remember, everybody has a cordial invitation to come to Escondido on Grape Day, Sept. 9.

Dinner Bridge At Brooks Home Friday

Members of St. Cecilia Guild of St. Andrew's Episcopal church will hold a dinner and contract bridge party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Willis M. Brooks, 1328 Portola avenue, Friday (tomorrow evening) at 6:30 o'clock. Dinner will be served in the attractive gardens, after which those wishing to play bridge will gather in the home, where tables will be ready for play.

As tables are limited, no reservations will be taken after Friday noon. Mrs. Dean Sears, as chairman, will be assisted by Mmes. L. H. Deininger, L. C. Doan, Ernest Butt, Luise Jensen and Paul Watson.

MRS. GODDARD AND DAUGHTER AT HOME

Mrs. Etta Goddard and daughter Lois, 1308 Cota avenue, recently returned from an extended trip thru the east. They visited Niagara Falls, went to Chicago where they were the guests of Miss Esther Stephens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph F. Stephens, of 1320 1/2 Cota avenue, who is in training in that city to become a nurse. They then visited with folks in Salt Lake City and in Kansas before going to San Francisco. They were away two months.

Right To Vote

Extended to Women 16 Years Ago Yesterday

Wednesday marked the 16th anniversary of the passage of the 19th amendment, which gave to women the right to vote. Commemorating the occasion the Susan B. Anthony postage stamp was distributed in Washington, D. C.

The Business Women's Legislative Council, headed by Mrs. Alberta Gude Lynch, joined with Mrs. Robert Adamson, prominent member of the National Women's Party, who two years ago proposed that such a stamp be issued. These ladies went to Postmaster General Farley with the idea and reasons why such a tribute to women should be paid. The issuance of the stamp was the answer to the request.

Susan Anthony Week
Governor Frank F. Merriam proclaimed this to be Susan B. Anthony week. A committee composed of Miss Gertrude George, Mrs. Lynch and Miss Sue Brobst arranged a program which was presented yesterday at 2 p. m. in the city hall, Los Angeles, with several women's organizations taking part. Judge May D. Lahey was the principal speaker; the invocation, and Mayor Frank R. Shaw welcomed the assembly. Other prominent women speakers well known to Torrance ladies were Mrs. Will Lee Austin, Grace S. Stoermer, Mrs. Amelia Johnson, Mrs. Carolyn Weber, Mrs. L. S. Rounsaville and Mrs. Marguerite Clark.

Guests of Honor
Honor guests at the affair were Mrs. Mary Marshal Wiley, a former secretary to Susan B. Anthony; Mary D. Flak, who was a personal friend of Miss Anthony and fought in seven campaigns for woman suffrage; Mrs. Robert N. Heath, personal friend of Miss Anthony, who is 90 years of age.

Walter Anthony of the famous Anthony family will speak on family traditions. He will unveil a large picture of Miss Anthony.

STAR'S RADIO department has new MECHANIC

J. A. Robinson, manager of the Star Department Store, announced this week the appointment of Fred F. Lambert to the Star's staff as head of the radio service and repair department. Mr. Robinson also stated that the Star's radio service division had been moved from its old location on Post avenue in the Park Hotel building to the Star building.

Mr. Lambert, who for several years has been employed in radio work in Seattle, was a previous resident of Los Angeles, and is establishing his residence in Torrance this week at the Park Hotel.

Experienced

Twelve years' experience in radio work are to Mr. Lambert's credit. For several years he was engaged in factory installation of automobile radios and saw service with General Motors, United Motors and Philco.

Mr. Lambert plans to revise the Star's radio service department entirely, specializing in rapid radio repair work and giving one-day service if possible.
