NEW WING OF NARBONNE HIGH READY FOR USE

Acres Adjoining School Bought to Provide Room For Laboratory and Field Work

To provide room for field and laboratory work in the agriculture study department of the Narbonne high school a full acre of land adjoining the school grounds south of the tennis courts has been purchased by the Los Angeles School Board.

The new ground will be used as an experimental field in the study of agricultural techniques by the students of the Lomita institution.

Principal Clementina de Forest Griffin also announced that they hoped to build new tennis courts on the new acreage adjacent to the one now in use.

Completed at a cost of about $10,000 the boys' wing of the new Narbonne high school will be ready for service when school opens this term.

Very well equipped, the new building includes a locked room, two shower rooms, a drying room, a room for corrective exercises, director's quarters and lavatories.

The new girls' wing and the main block of class rooms will not be ready for use until about the first of November. A shortage of materials due to the condition of the steel market was responsible for the delay, Principal Griffin stated.

New Style Annual Designed By Staff

With an eye to producing something different in the way of school annuals the members of the staff for the Torrance High School Year Book have decided on a magazine style of makeup for the publication.

Stress on student life will be the chief feature of the new publication, which will include candid camera shots and action pictures taken during the school year.

Last year the Torrance High Year Book won the honor of being chosen one of 26 to receive a first class rating in national contest.

DANCES PLANNED

Students of the Torrance high school are attempting to arrange for a series of weekly dances to be given for the benefit of the Student Activity Fund.

NEW EQUIPMENT FOR CAFETERIA

Venetian blinds and a complete set of the newest thing in hotel dishes have been added to the equipment of the Narbonne high school cafeteria for the coming school year.

WILL BE ABSENT

Miss Mary Wylie, head of the Narbonne high school English department will not be able to attend the opening of the school this term due to the serious illness of her father.

TORRANCE HIGH SCHOOL

Students attending the Torrance high school who have a desire to try their talents on the stage will have a wealth of opportunities offered them.

AMATEUR SHOWS PLANNED
 The amateur show sponsored by the Key Club, an organization backed by the Torrance Kiwanis Club, has been an annual event for the past two years and is attended with much interest. The affair provides the students of the school equal opportunities to show what they can do before an audience.

SERIES OF PLAYS
 Staged by the Drama Club, thespian organization of the Torrance prep school, a series of one and two-act plays will be produced.

The Drama Club is open to all students who show sufficient promise in this field, and during past years has put on an average of eight different performances per school season.

SENIOR CLASS CONSIDERS PLAY
 Hopes that it may be found possible to again produce a Senior class play have been voiced by numerous members of the Senior group, who would like to see this event reinstated among school activities.

Although it was customary to hold the Senior show each spring a few years ago, during the depression it became necessary to cut the event from the yearly program.

MUSICAL ORGANIZATION
 The Madrigals, Torrance high school's a capella choir of 50 members, will again be under the direction of Mrs. Marjorie Eischen for the 1936-37 terms.

Outstanding among similar prep school musical organizations, the Madrigals have sung over various radio stations of the district and last year were included on a program over KFI sponsored by the Board of Education.

Fern Avenue Elementary School

Opened Sept. 9, 1929, with an enrollment of 119 and faculty of four. Present enrollment 295 and faculty of 10. Grades run from kindergarten thru sixth. Mrs. Oda Vans, principal. School located on Fern avenue south of Torrance boulevard.

SAVE FOR EDUCATION

With the new school year almost here you are reminded, perhaps of the plans you have for your children . . . of the hope that you will be able to send them to college . . . "when the time comes" . . . of the responsibility that is yours to help them to a good start in life.

But when the time DOES come, too many hopeful parents find themselves helpless, financially unable to lend a needed hand. The easiest way to plan their future education is to start a savings account NOW!
