Big Double Circus Will Come to Long Beach Next Week, Oct. 3-4

Gal On Flying Trapeze

The world's newest big show, the Cole Bros. Clyde Beatty Circus which returned from a five-year European tour last year, will exhibit in Long Beach, Saturday and Sunday, Oct. 3 and 4. The No. 1 advertising car, the first of three in advance of the colossus of all amusements, is now in this vicinity. Billposters, bannermen, lithographers, radio men and press agents are heralding the great event, and soon everyone will be planning for a gala visit to the world's largest "big top," the center of the biggest canvas city ever assembled to thrill, entertain and amuse a great and discriminating populace.

Traveling on three trains of double-length steel railroad cars, the giant of super-circuses will bring 1,080 people, 312 menagerie animals, 30 elephants and 500 horses.

The pre-eminent feature is Clyde Beatty's trained wild animal exhibition. Beatty is acknowledged to be the greatest wild animal trainer of all time.

There are 400 performers including the famous Davenport family of riders; the Imperial Harolds aerialists; the Flying Thrillers; Harold Barnes, dancing, tumbling somersaulting acrobat of the tight wire, and 80 internationally celebrated and beloved clowns. The Cole Bros. Clyde Beatty horse fair has become a feature amazing in its appeal throughout the North American continent.

The big holiday will be ushered in with an immense street parade at 11 a. m. Upwards of 500 horses, three score of elaborately carved and gilded allegorical floats and tableau wagons together with many cages and open dens of Clyde Beatty's animals will be seen in the professional. There will be five herds of elephants and two caravans of camels from the great desert. Five bands and two steam callopes will furnish music. Doors to the menagerie open at 1 and 7 p. m. The big show will start at 2 and 8 p. m.

Youths Plead Guilty to Lesser Offense

Probation is expected to be granted Forrest McKinley and Donald Kedzie when they appear in Los Angeles county superior court on Wednesday, Sept. 30, for disposition of the charges against them.

McKinley and Kedzie pleaded guilty to charges of driving an automobile without consent of the owner when they appeared in superior court recently. They did not plead guilty to charges of grand theft, as stated in a previous edition of the Torrance Herald.

The complaint in which they were named by the district attorney's office, named them on both charges, however, but they pleaded guilty to violation of Section 503 of the Vehicle Code, a lesser offense, when they appeared in court. In consideration of entering a plea of guilty to one of the two counts against each of them, they were permitted to apply for probation, and the applications are to be heard on Sept. 30.

BUSINESS DIRECTORY

Histories in Brief of Business Directory Advertisers

Verne G. Barlow, owner and manager of the Ritz Cafe, is a native Californian and has spent most of his life in Los Angeles and the southern part of this state.

During the four years from 1919 to 1923 Barlow was employed by the Southern California Telephone Company as a plant engineer in the Culver City and West Adams district.

Following his employment with the telephone company he came to Torrance to assist his father, G. A. Barlow, with the management of the Torrance Laundry.

In 1930 Barlow entered business for himself by establishing a trouble shooting service for bar equipment. Shortly afterwards he bought his present establishment and a year later purchased the business block in which his cafe is located.
