

AND THEY WOULD DO IT AGAIN!

Thirty-four hours after they opened the polling place at 1003 North Arlington avenue, five weary women election officials put on their coats Wednesday afternoon and went home to bed. This precinct No. 3, was the last to report its returns in this district.

They were swamped by 391 voters of the precinct's registered total of 489 and were not finished with their duties until 4 o'clock in the afternoon following election day. This group was typical of the election officials who manned the polls efficiently and carefully throughout the election.

They were: Mrs. Leona Lincoln, inspector, who was working her fourth presidential election; Mrs. Emma Evans and Mrs. Kathryn McDonald, judges; Mrs. Sadie Allen, Mrs. Maxine Anderson and Mrs. Alice Ruppel, clerks. . . . And they all were willing to serve again!

Results of Judicial Races

Torrance and Lomita decisions complete, unofficial on the judicial offices Tuesday closely followed the trend throughout the county. The returns and the final results were:

Doiglas L. Edmonds returned justice of Supreme Court: Torrance: Yes, 1,457; No, 717. Lomita: Yes, 975; No, 536. Frederick W. House returned presiding justice of District Court of Appeal, 2nd Dist., Div. 1: Torrance: Yes, 1,401; No, 706. Lomita: Yes, 959; No, 537.

William C. Doran returned as associate justice of Dist. Court of Appeal, 2nd Dist., Div. One: Torrance: Yes, 1,424; No, 678. Lomita: Yes, 964; No, 516.

Charles Crall returned as presiding justice of the Dist. Court of Appeal, 2nd Dist., Div. Two: Torrance: Yes, 1,508; No, 678. Lomita: Yes, 1,030; No, 538.

Walton J. Wood returned as associate justice of the Dist. Court of Appeal, 2nd Dist., Div. Two: Torrance: Yes, 1,314; No, 686. Lomita: Yes, 906; No, 534.

For Superior Court, Office No. 9: Torrance Lomita Sheldon: 1,544 1,163 (Apparently re-elected) Briggs: 697 478 Superior Court, Office No. 9: Torrance Lomita Bogue: 1,143 853 Dockweiler: 1,186 822 (Apparently elected) Superior Court, Office No. 9: Torrance Lomita Swain: 1,399 871 (Apparently re-elected) Marchetti: 926 821 Superior Court, Office No. 9: Torrance Lomita Crum: 1,369 928 (Re-elected) Pagan: 1,005 800

CHANCE MEETING PLACE The 20-30 Club has changed its meeting place to Daniels on Cabrillo avenue and will meet there every Wednesday night at 7:30 until further notice.

Put on GOOD YEAR tires now—get 30% more mileage free—Ask us why!

GOOD YEAR PRIZE VALUES

What Partisan Leaders Said About Sweep

"Thrilled to death" over the national and local outcome of the Democratic victory Tuesday, Mrs. Edyth Miller, of 2116 Gramercy avenue, chairman of the Bourbon assembly district, expressed her grateful appreciation to all voters who supported President Roosevelt in a post-election statement for the Herald.

"I also want to thank those campaign workers who gave their time so willingly to our cause. We are assured of a future better and brighter than ever before now that our President has been given such a national mandate to continue his good works. With the progress already made in the past four years, we can continue to build on the New Deal. There are no limits to the accomplishments of our executive."

"May I also say that it was a great pleasure to work with and for Congressman Colden and Assemblyman Reaves. They appreciate the valiant service rendered their candidacies by Democratic workers," Mrs. Miller concluded.

"Clear Road": Spurlin "Everybody ought to be happy," declared DeKalb Spurlin, spokesman for Torrance Republicans, on the morning following the Roosevelt sweep.

"The election was the greatest endorsement a President was ever given in the United States and now he has a clear road ahead of him with a Senate and House of his own party."

"It should be a clear road to greater prosperity," said the division manager of the Republican 88th Congressional district.

"The election was the people's will and when such a great majority endorsed Mr. Roosevelt his work should continue and our nation will certainly reflect the results. It was an endorsement not only of labor but of business people and the whole nation. As such it was a splendid tribute and I shall eagerly follow in the path our President has made."

SUBSCRIBE TODAY! THE TORRANCE HERALD carries ALL THE NEWS. Don't be an "OUTSIDER"—Subscribe today!

Then there was Earl Conner (do you have to be informed that he is "the New Deal" in Torrance?) who won all but one of his wagers. Early in the campaign Earl bet a Republican worthy that Lemke would poll more votes than Landon. "It was a fool bet but I just wanted to hush up that Republican," Conner chuckled.

Victim of the worst luck in the election was Harvel Guttenfelder. He marched into his polling place armed with his marked sample ballot. While he was carefully transferring his X's to the regulation ballot a friend in the next booth began ribbing him. Harvel, busy with his voting, joshed back. The repartee continued and in the midst of a wise-crack, the tire and battery dealer, folded his ballot, walked out and stuffed it in the ballot box. . . . Then he remembered: He forgot to vote for President! Even though his wife was a member of the election board he could not get that ballot back and four years were wasted!

Excavating his famed silk hat which had been in mothballs since he was elected mayor here in April, 1932, W. T. Klusman strolled about the business and civic center of Torrance election night announcing: "I am here to officially inform you of President Roosevelt's re-election."

The hat and his ever-present pipe revived recollections of Klusman's stormy career as mayor until he was ousted Sept. 26, 1935. He won the top-piece as result of an election bet in the early 1910's when he "covered" a $25 bet that the late Woolwine would be re-elected district attorney. The loser purchased the silk topper for Klusman and it has seen periodic service on "state occasions" for the owner.

Two of the busiest places in the city election day—outside of the precinct voting centers—were the headquarters of the Torrance Democrats and Republicans. With confidence flowing all over the place, both campaign centers were thronged with partisan supporters "talking it up."

Moved from the Levy building at Cravens and Marcelina on Monday because painters renovating the office for the new Pontiac agency there literally ran them out ahead of time, the Roosevelt-Garner workers were established at the old State bank building on El Prado.

Bourbon election workers insisted that the painters were Republicans . . . but the can and brush men continued their redemptive efforts with no comment.

At the G. O. P. sanctuary, DeKalb Spurlin was directing the election drive, assisted by a corps of ardent Landon-Knox aides. Located in the old public library building, the Republicans concentrated in reaching their registered affiliates with Rufus Page in charge of transportation.

As late as 3 o'clock election

How It Went In This District

PRECINCTS	TOTAL VOTE CAST	FOR U. S. PRESIDENT					For Congressman			Assemblyman		Dist. Attorney
		ROOSEVELT (D)	LANDON (R)	THOMAS (S)	COLVIN (F)	BROWDER (C)	COLDEN (D)	LEACH (C)	ROACH (D)	REAVES (D)	BRINEY (R)	FITTS	PALMER
TORRANCE
No. 1—18211 Prairie Avenue	230	133	92	1	1	95		108	106	72	124	87
No. 2—1626 Cedar Avenue	455	315	116	2	1	260	3	124	228	118	216	180
No. 3—1003 N. Arlington Avenue	381	316	57	2	3	256	7	51	246	41	171	155
No. 4—1543 Marcelina Avenue	288	203	76	2	1	159	1	86	151	80	132	121
No. 5—1315 Fortola Avenue	304	184	116		4	163	2	120	120	137	172	106
No. 6—1027 Anapola Avenue	322	272	48	1	1	218	3	55	198	48	116	170
No. 7—1417 Cota Avenue	262	188	81		4	144	5	81	130	83	145	91
No. 8—1743 Arlington Avenue	284	191	81	1	3	176	1	90	156	83	141	92
No. 9—1924 Andreo Avenue	328	255	67	3	2	214	4	78	202	61	128	166
No. 10—308 Narbonne Avenue	315	251	51	1	3	196	9	63	198	51	129	146
No. 11—2013 Arlington Avenue	295	227	67			179	2	77	160	77	120	145
No. 12—Recreation Center Walteria	280	204	76	1	1	178	2	61	162	63	146	109
TORRANCE TOTALS	3763	2720	831	13	17	2228	39	984	2066	914	1740	1568
LOMITA
No. 1—2035 W. 240th Street	303	245	52		2	186	1	68	98	44	137	133
No. 2—24647 Moon Street	322	265	51	1	4	180	4	81	213	45	107	176
No. 3—2071 W. 250th Street	310	240	58	3	2	177	4	91	182	66	141	128
No. 4—25503 Lucille Street	253	202	59	3	5	162	3	56	167	38	98	129
No. 5—25701 Eshelman Street	243	211	28			171	1	39	180	23	84	135
No. 6—25707 Walnut Street	287	230	42	2	1	181	2	63	181	36	104	145
No. 7—26111 Oak Street	178	131	40	1	4	110	1	41	103	39	84	74
No. 8—25623 Cypress Street	328	254	67	1	4	203	3	81	220	57	146	147
No. 9—Miraleste School	77	19	56			22	2	51	13	62	61	15
No. 10—Palos Verdes Office Bldg.	300	97	200	3		76	1	196	76	180	104	87
LOMITA TOTALS	2601	1897	633	14	22	1468	23	757	1433	590	1151	1169
L. A. SHOESTRING
1436 W. 220th	316	260	40	3	3	192	2	61	180	48	103	167
GRAND TOTAL	6360	4886	1604	30	42	3888	63	1812	3679	1552	2994	2904

FROTH FROM VOTE WAVE IN TORRANCE

Breathes there a real genuine New Deal Democrat who has said: "Well, I certainly didn't expect a sweep like that!" If there was any such dyed-in-the-alphabet Bourbon here, you couldn't find him Wednesday. All of 'em were about, declaring that "while I may not have openly expressed such an opinion, I thought the President would carry every state in the Union!"

It was reliably reported that DeKalb Spurlin, prominent Republican, made 17 different election bets in an effort to "hedge" his wagers on the outcome Tuesday night . . . and lost all 17.

Then there was Earl Conner (do you have to be informed that he is "the New Deal" in Torrance?) who won all but one of his wagers. Early in the campaign Earl bet a Republican worthy that Lemke would poll more votes than Landon. "It was a fool bet but I just wanted to hush up that Republican," Conner chuckled.

Victim of the worst luck in the election was Harvel Guttenfelder. He marched into his polling place armed with his marked sample ballot. While he was carefully transferring his X's to the regulation ballot a friend in the next booth began ribbing him. Harvel, busy with his voting, joshed back. The repartee continued and in the midst of a wise-crack, the tire and battery dealer, folded his ballot, walked out and stuffed it in the ballot box. . . . Then he remembered: He forgot to vote for President! Even though his wife was a member of the election board he could not get that ballot back and four years were wasted!

Excavating his famed silk hat which had been in mothballs since he was elected mayor here in April, 1932, W. T. Klusman strolled about the business and civic center of Torrance election night announcing: "I am here to officially inform you of President Roosevelt's re-election."

The hat and his ever-present pipe revived recollections of Klusman's stormy career as mayor until he was ousted Sept. 26, 1935. He won the top-piece as result of an election bet in the early 1910's when he "covered" a $25 bet that the late Woolwine would be re-elected district attorney. The loser purchased the silk topper for Klusman and it has seen periodic service on "state occasions" for the owner.

Two of the busiest places in the city election day—outside of the precinct voting centers—were the headquarters of the Torrance Democrats and Republicans. With confidence flowing all over the place, both campaign centers were thronged with partisan supporters "talking it up."

Moved from the Levy building at Cravens and Marcelina on Monday because painters renovating the office for the new Pontiac agency there literally ran them out ahead of time, the Roosevelt-Garner workers were established at the old State bank building on El Prado.

Bourbon election workers insisted that the painters were Republicans . . . but the can and brush men continued their redemptive efforts with no comment.

At the G. O. P. sanctuary, DeKalb Spurlin was directing the election drive, assisted by a corps of ardent Landon-Knox aides. Located in the old public library building, the Republicans concentrated in reaching their registered affiliates with Rufus Page in charge of transportation.

As late as 3 o'clock election

Torrance-Lomita Join Nation in New Deal Sweep

Continued from Page 1 referendum; No. 3, which would have provided for a new liquor control commission; No. 9, Local Option, and No. 4, which would have permitted tideland oil drilling.

Nation Endorses F.D.R. District voters also turned thumbs down on a majority of the propositions, the full report on this phase of the election being given elsewhere in today's Herald.

Here as elsewhere, even the most ardent New Dealers were amazed at the smashing vote of confidence given President Roosevelt and his recovery administration. They had expected he would be returned but the news that his re-election surpassed the 1932 Democratic landslide took them by complete surprise.

The votes for Thomas, Socialist; Colvin, Prohibitionist; and Browder, Communist, were negligible in this area, Colvin leading the minors here with 17 to 35 for Browder, while in Lomita the Dry candidate polled 22 to Thomas' 14.

Including the Shoestring and Palos Verdes precincts in the totals for Torrance and Lomita, the presidential returns here were: Roosevelt, 4,888; Landon, 1,604; Colvin, 42; Thomas, 30; and Browder, 19.

The grand total for the Congressional race was: Colden, 3,888; Roach, 1,812; Leach (Communist) 19. The district attorney total was Fitts, 2,994; Palmer, 2,904; and the assembly, Reaves, 3,679; Briney, 1,552.

Record Pie-Filler A pumpkin from which 130 pies could be made was placed on exhibition at Corning by W. K. Williams, rancher of the Richfield district. The huge melon was placed on a scale and tipped the beam at 140 pounds.

Huge Owl Snared LOUISBURG, Mo. (U.P.)—Frank L. Brown catches owls, hawks and crows with a bear trap set atop a 12-foot fence post. His largest catch to date is a hawk with a 44-inch wing spread.

that was on the job while the polls were open.

Voting was fairly steady throughout the day with the three big rushes in the early morning, noon-time and after 5 in the evening. . . . Some polling places in the more populous precincts had lines of voters as the time drew near for the election to close. All those in line, however, had a chance to vote even after the 7 o'clock deadline.

Fine Crash Victim $50 for D. W. I.

Still limping as result of her collision with a telephone pole on Western avenue near 208th street Halloween night, Mrs. Vernita Ervin, 35, 1212 Elysian street, Los Angeles, appeared before City Judge Robert F. Lessing Wednesday morning. She was charged with driving while intoxicated.

Found guilty, Mrs. Ervin was fined $50 or given 25 days in jail and her driver's license suspended, Judge Lessing gave her 25 days to pay the fine. Following her accident, Mrs. Ervin was treated at the Jared Sidney Torrance Memorial hospital for severe bruises and contusions.

Democratic leaders, under direction of H. F. Raymond, president of the Torrance Roosevelt Club, worked hard to get out the vote thru an efficient precinct organization. Mrs. Raymond, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Stover and Mrs. Edith Miller were manning the headquarters.

Landonites concentrating at the Republican G. H. Q., were Mrs. Gertrude Ralston, Miss Lucille Stroh, C. T. Rippey, Torrance Welch and Carl Gramling. They, too, had a precinct corps

Announcing the addition to Our Staff of . . .

A. G. LANG Formerly Home Lighting Advisor of S. C. Edison Co.

OPENING SPECIAL Convert your Old Inefficient Floor Lamp into a New One. . . . One Week Only . . . for $3.50

Industrial Electric Co. 1605 CABRILLO Phone 82

How Propositions Fared

Torrance, Lomita, Shoestring and Palos Verdes Count Given; State Result Is Indicated

In the following complete, unofficial report on the proposition vote, the total figure given below the Torrance and Lomita tallies includes those two communities, the Shoestring and Palos Verdes precincts. The state report on the fate of the measures is also given.

No. 2—Personal Income Taxes:

Retained. Torrance: Yes, 938; No, 1,588. Lomita: Yes, 610; No, 1,266. Total: Yes, 1,614; No, 2,999.

No. 3—Liquor Control: Voted down. Torrance: Yes, 1,015; No, 2,047. Lomita: Yes, 702; No, 1,418. Total: Yes, 1,998; No, 3,464.

No. 4—Prohibiting Tideland Oil Drilling: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 1,439; No, 1,394. Lomita: Yes, 985; No, 1,103. Total: Yes, 2,559; No, 2,615.

No. 5—L. A. County Exposition Bonds: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 836; No, 1,578. Lomita: Yes, 624; No, 1,136. Total: Yes, 1,513; No, 2,852.

No. 6—Amending L. A. City Charter: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 828; No, 1,404. Lomita: Yes, 709; No, 946. Total: Yes, 1,662; No, 2,462.

No. 7—County and Municipal Civil Service: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 964; No, 1,418. Lomita: Yes, 778; No, 978. Total: Yes, 2,495; No, 1,150.

No. 8—Registration of Voters: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 619; No, 1,536. Lomita: Yes, 486; No, 1,110. Total: Yes, 1,150; No, 2,770.

No. 9—Local Option: Voted down. Torrance: Yes, 1,195; No, 1,801. Lomita: Yes, 858; No, 1,261. Total: Yes, 2,138; No, 3,207.

No. 10—Motor Vehicle Fuel Taxes and License Fees: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 1,467; No, 1,255. Lomita: Yes, 1,091; No, 786. Total: Yes, 3,977; No, 2,116.

No. 11—Instructors' Tenure: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 708; No, 1,508. Lomita: Yes, 652; No, 1,006. Total: Yes, 1,439; No, 2,613.

No. 12—Court of Criminal Appeals: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 405; No, 1,799. Lomita: Yes, 275; No, 1,322. Total: Yes, 716; No, 3,248.

No. 13—Eminent Domain: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 506; No, 1,644. Lomita: Yes, 437; No, 1,167. Total: Yes, 977; No, 2,928.

No. 14—Consolidated City and County Government: Carried. Torrance: Yes, 950; No, 1,308. Lomita: Yes, 811; No, 882. Total: Yes, 1,875; No, 2,320.

No. 15—Relief to Assessment Districts: Carried. Torrance: Yes, 1,201; No, 984.

Lomita: Yes, 797; No, 787. Total: Yes, 2,096; No, 1,824.

No. 16—Water Districts, Temporary Transfer of Funds: Defeated. Torrance: Yes, 918; No, 1,236. Lomita: Yes, 885; No, 1,011. Total: Yes, 1,872; No, 2,349.

No. 17—Computing