

Torrance Post Office Keeps Pace With Community

RECOGNIZING the constantly increasing business in Torrance the United States Post Office Department recently completed this large, new building with adequate quarters to take care of present and future needs of the community.

THE Postmaster and Staff of the Torrance Post Office are happy to join with other local citizens in celebrating the Silver Anniversary of the Founding of this City, and the Dedication of its Beautiful, New Civic Center Buildings.